

We Came From The Stars And Then From Mars

The true galactic history of humans on Earth, according to Billy Meier and the Plejarens

This book is dedicated to Sfath, Asket, Semjase, Ptaah, Quetzal, and Eduard

This book is a not a publication of FIGU. However, it has been approved for sale by Stimme-Wassermanzeit Publishing as a handy guide for understanding our ancient history as described by Billy Meier in his contact reports. Some errors in translation and editing remain. Official translations of the contact reports were used whenever possible. Chapter 4 also contains direct excerpts from an earlier version of the Talmud of Immanuel. A newly updated and corrected version of the Talmud is available in German on the FIGU Store website. Please note that the information in this book only represents a small percentage of the entire Meier material, and one should also be aware of the rest of the freely available information in the 600+ contact reports and 40 books and pamphlets of FIGU, including the Might of the Thoughts, OM, and Goblet of the Truth.

Map of the 7 Layers of the Universe

CR 143/582

Billy:

This is simple, actually. The first question is this: what is the diameter of the entire Creation?

Semjase:

8. This had to come at some point, and you can save the remaining questions because I will certainly explain them to you in the answer of your question.

Billy:

As you wish. I'm listening.

Semjase:

9. To answer your question, I must be somewhat detailed:

10. The Universe is divided into seven units, i.e. rings or belts that, entirely together, form the whole Universe, and all of these rings are rotating against each other and have different diameters and an ovoid shape.

11. These seven rings, which we call belts, are the following:

12. i. Central Core,

ii. Ur-Core Belt,

iii. Ur-Space Belt,

iv. Solid-state Matter Universe Belt,

v. Transformation Belt,

vi. Creation Belt, and

vii. Displacement Belt,

And we also call the Creation Belt the Creation Matter Belt or the Expansion Belt, and the Displacement Belt, the last and extreme, embodies, according to your sense, a bumper belt.

13. Now, the Solid-state Universe is that part of the Universe in which the new births exist, so the nascent stars, etc. with all their life forms.

14. This real Solid-state Universe is calculated from the end of the Creation Ur-Core's outer wall up to the beginning of the outer wall of the Transformation Belt, which exhibits a half diameter of 7,869 octillion light-years and is, thus, the next largest belt after the Creation Belt.

15. In addition, the outer wall of the Transformation Belt is where this belt collides with the inner wall of the real Creation Belt, also known as the Expansion Belt or Creation Matter Belt.

16. So this is that space which embodies the Solid-state Universe and is so called because in these three areas, the coarse-material becomes existent and is existent, and the course-material becomes existent in the Transformation Belt only by a transformation from remains of the penetrating Creation Belt, which are converted into course-material from immaterial energy.

17. This is the real Solid-state Universe, which consists of the Transformation Belt, the Universe Belt, and the Ur-Space Belt.

18. In addition, the Transformation Belt exhibits such a gigantic mass and is the next largest belt to the Creation Belt because it is responsible for ensuring that in the space created by the Expansion Belt, the transformation of fine-material energies into coarse-material takes place, and at the same time, time itself appears and becomes existent.

19. Already in this Transformation Belt, time begins to run into the past, from which aging originates.

20. This means that in this Transformation Belt, chronons begin to exist, then are aging and becoming tachyons and are representing the past. By the way, tachyons may be proven by the terrestrial scientists in a short time.

21. At the same time, the speed also decreases from the Transformation Belt in an irregular manner but in a certain half-life.

22. The irregular decrease in speed, which amounts to 147 times the speed of light in its starting point and expansion point, comes about through mutually self-influencing and different time streams that have already changed in their speed.

23. In the interior center of the Universe is the real Ur-Core, which grows with each fall-back of the Creation, so of the whole Universe, doubling itself in size.

24. Thus, the Ur-Core will be twice as large with the next fall-back as it is today.

25. From this Ur-Core, referring to the energy field resting in the Ur-Space Belt, which is the fallen-back Creation, new energies form for the renewed expansion to the next universe, whereby at the end of the slumber time, a new Big Bang takes place and a new expansion creates a new universe, generally all things of a much more refined form, which means that all coarse-material will not be so stable any more as in this Universe.

26. The Ur-Space Belt itself is that part of the Universe from which the expansion of the Creation occurs, in which the Creation energy also slumbers and, on the other hand, after every fall-back, develops itself and takes up new fundamental forces from the Ur-Core, just to expand again through a renewed Big Bang.

27. Of course, the dimension of the Ur-Space Belt also grows from fall-back to fall-back because through every expansion of the Universe and through the associated unchangeable effects and the extreme expansion that again follows contraction, the mass of the entire Creation grows, always doubling itself in size.

28. So thus, it becomes evident from this that in the becoming and passing of the Universe, a cycle of Big Bang expansion – contraction – Big Bang expansion, etc. is arranged.

29. Now, the Central core embodies that belt which consists of the real Ur-Matter, which carries out its existence as generative material and life material of a pure, spiritual form, as real idea energy, created from an Ur-Creation, by whose strength alone this Universe was able to create itself.

30. This Central core resembles an immense and continually loading accumulator block, which exhibits a magnetic energy that is immeasurable to us up to now, which binds the existing Universe to itself and prevents too great of an expansion.

31. This power guarantees that with the start of approximately 47 trillion years of expansion, the expansion speed starts to decrease from 147 times the speed of light and slowly drops until the expansion comes to a halt after 155,520 trillion years and, thus, begins the fall-back, the contraction.

32. Thus, the Central core forms the real power and life center, while the Ur-Core can be seen as a real energy storage.

33. But this Central core, the Ur-Core and the Ur-Space, are only an infinitesimally small fraction of the size of the whole Universe.

34. The most gigantic belt is embodied by the Creation Belt, which further spreads itself into the gaps of the surrounding universes and creates a new Universal space.

35. This Creation Belt is the real Creation and the Creation center, while the Central core, with its diameter of seven light-years, as well as the Ur-Space Belt, with its half diameter* of 103 trillion light-years, and the Ur-Core Belt, with its half diameter of 103.5 trillion light-years, represent those structures known as the Universe's Central Sun and the Universe's Central Galaxy, respectively.

36. In addition, the Central core represents the central sun of the Universe, while the Ur-Space and the Ur-Core carry out their existence as a central universe-galaxy.

37. Now, the outermost belt, with its half diameter of 14 million light-years, which we do not count with the actual Universe, is the Displacement Belt.

38. This has the task of displacing outwardly and against adjacent universes and against the nothing-space of the Absolute Absolutum, so to speak, as the ramming force, which pushes everything away from itself and displaces outwardly, so that, after knocking against it and before pressing itself behind it, it can provide the Universe the necessary space for expansion and, therefore, the expansion itself.

About our Sun

CR 515/582

Billy:

... But that which interests me now relates to our sun, its eruptions, the dark spots on the surface of the Sun, the magnetic field, the plasma vortex and energy mass, and the size in proportion to all planets and moons, and so forth, and everything of significance all around. I am especially interested in regard to the next year in which the Sun's 11 year cycle of activity again occurs which, under certain circumstances, can lead to massive electromagnetic disturbances on the Earth, and in its outer realm of influence. If you can just say something general in a language understandable for us lay persons, about, for example, what occurred in recent years, what is happening presently and what can result in the coming time?

Ptaah:

To be said straight away is that the terrestrial scientists err to a large degree in regard to the Sun's lifespan, because it is a dying star and its real remaining lifetime accordingly amounts to only 1,500,000,000 to 2,500,000,000 years. To say, further to that, is that the star has drifted for years in a weak dynamic phase, and only becomes more active now and again, for example, in March 2010. The dynamic of the Sun is based on cycles of approximately eleven years which, in turn, are connected with the magnetic fields which, however, also impede the emergence of the energy which surges from the interior of the sun. But an even greater number of other factors exists through which all processes are determined. Dark matter, which for the terrestrial scientists is still very mysterious, also thereby plays a certain role, and indeed in particular in regard to the transport of the Sun's hot energy, because without the influence of the dark matter this would not be possible. The around 6,000 degree Celsius hot surface of the Sun is heated up to 1,000,000 degrees Celsius by the thermal energy from the interior of the star. This, while the dark sun spots however only have a temperature of around 4,000 degrees Celsius and extend up to 1,700 kilometers deep into the sun's interior by means of their tunnel-like, that is to say, funnel-like form. At these depths it is many millions of degrees Celsius in the star. As a result of these temperatures the inner material of the sun transforms into plasma - into electrically charged gas - whereby these masses shoot out all around the maw as flaming plasma at a speed of 100,000 kilometers an hour. If dark sun spots emerge in groups, then enormous sun-storms emerge from them which release energies which are only comparable with the energy of thousands of millions of conventional atomic bombs. The Sun lives and hurls its monstrous energies out into its area of the system, even if it is a dying star which presently drifts in a phase of lesser activity. If the new, high phase of activity comes, which is to be expected immediately and in the next year, then it can be monstrously big and can cause very much damage in regard to nature and the human electronic technological advances. Basically, violent plasma eruptions should have already been occurring for a long time, yet since the activity has, so to speak, dropped to a minimum, greater outbreaks have not occurred up to this point, but, with the new activity which is ahead, they can now be very enormous. The fact is that, currently, for that reason, in the Sun's interior, enormous changes are taking place, which also show in the form of external effects. For example, on the surface of the Sun, an extensive current of material has emerged which is driven by the residue of the magnetic field (which has arisen from the weakened, dark sunspots) in the direction of the poles of the Sun, to then sink again there up to 250,000 kilometers deep into the Sun's interior, to then move back again in the direction of the equator. At the mentioned depth of the Sun's interior, the magnetic fields again lengthen and also become strong again, which means that they are newly charged with energy, after which they become newly active and break out yet again on the surface and form new, dark sunspots. From that it also follows that these material currents, together with the different, fast rotation of the surface of the sun, assures that a reversal of the magnetic fields of the Sun results, which manifests every eleven years. Normally the current of material moves very slowly towards the poles, and indeed at a speed of 2.7 to 3.7 kilometers per hour, yet for about seven years this speed has amounted to about 50 kilometers per hour. The result of this fast current is that the magnetic fields are prevented from emerging on the Sun's equator. This is also the reason why the last three years on Earth had enormously cold Winters. The dark sunspots which are surrounded by giant, funnel-shaped magnetic field line loops - which transport hot gas and plasma - show the actual magnetic nature of the Sun. If particularly big energy outbreaks occur, then the magnetic field lines and the plasma free themselves from the Sun and shoot away from it. The plasma loops thereby reach, as magnetic energy, up to 100,000 kilometers in length and breadth if they break forth from the Sun, whereby giant dark zones then also come about on the Sun's surface. If more dark sunspots come about, then that results from the fact that magnetic field lines are increasingly breaking through the Sun's surface. Therefore the stronger the magnetic field, the more dark sunspots manifest. If, on the other hand, it is weaker, fewer dark spots occur. The Sun's magnetic field, called the heliospheric current sheet, has - in its rotating, spiral radiation form - an effect on the entire SOL system, and, in fact, up to the outermost realms of the Kuiper belt, and still some distance beyond. From these sunspots, magnetic field lines escape from the Sun's interior, whereby the Sun's ejected energy, which strikes the Earth, is monstrously high. On average, the Earth is struck every single second by an energy mass such as could be produced by approximately 155 – 160 million atomic power plants. The energy mass is therefore so enormous that 0.01 percent of it would already be sufficient to meet the energy requirements of the entire terrestrial humanity of 8 billion Earth inhabitants. And what there is to say concerning the size in proportion to the planets and moons, and so forth, in the SOL system, is that they come to only exactly 0.2 percent of the central heavenly body, which contains 99.8 percent of the entire material content in the SOL system.

As said, the Sun is a dying star, which will still exist for between 1,500,000,000 and 2,500,000,000 years, with a presently active age of around 5,000,000,000 years. However its ur-ur origin lies very much further back and is based on ur-energies, the age of which, on one hand, the terrestrial scientists cannot calculate, and which appears fantastic to them, because it leads back to previous forms of the whole universe about which they lack knowledge and understanding regarding its existence.

They do not understand, and are also not able to fathom, that the visible material universe is only the fourth belt of the universe, which consists of seven belts altogether, whereby only the fourth belt has galaxies, nebulae, suns, planets and moons, and so forth, while the inner three and outer three immaterial energy belts cannot be seen and, therefore, the inner and external energy belts, between which the material belt - that is to say, the material universe - is located, and from which the so-called background radiation emerges, cannot be seen.

Also, the terrestrial scientists do not know that the material belt renews itself every 49,000,000,000 years which, last time, was around 17,000,000,000 years ago, and that the current material universe is already the third form of the constant renewal and that the entire seven belted universe is already around 46,000,000,000,000 years old. But back to the Sun: the Sun means life for all life-forms in the SOL system, and those life forms deep in the interior of the Earth, which live in complete darkness and never see a ray of sun, also profit from the Sun's energy. And not only do the planets themselves rotate but the same thing happens with the Sun, which, with its own rhythm, rotates on its own axis once every four weeks. However, it thereby has different rotation times and rotation speeds; at the equator, near the poles and in the middle latitudes; whereby that alone guarantees that it can sling the energies - which are generated in its innermost region - as far as the outermost edge of its system. Only as a result of the arising friction, between the different fast parts of the points of rotation which have different speeds, do constantly whirling electromagnetic field lines form. What thereby happens is that the more extensive the whirling, the greater the activity of the Sun. Presently the Sun is passing into a weak dynamic. Consequently there is only a little activity, which is also expressed in few dark sunspots. They are not insignificant in their mass because they in fact often have a size into which the Earth would fit five or six times. Yet what there also is to say in regard to the size is that the Sun collapses into itself and therefore shrinks, and has indeed done so already for several hundred years. These are the first manifestations of decay to do with the dying of the star, which will only exist for approximately another 1,500,000,000 to 2,500,000,000 years as a giver or life for the SOL system. But also to say is that, with very high activity, the heavenly body can again expand some distance, or, swell somewhat, which however only occurs within a cyclical range after which the reduction, or, the shrinking, drops back again to the original starting-point form. Now, what occurs with the upheaval of the cycle this time is still inconclusive, yet it can be said that it can come to an inferno, if ur-worldly magnetic bows break through and all the Earth human being's electronic technological advances on Earth and in the Earth's orbit are thereby paralyzed. The current electronic technology and thereby also the entirety of the electronics on the Earth is extremely sensitive in regard to storms on the Sun and other cosmic radiation; consequently everything can collapse if strong sun-storm eruptions send their energies to Earth and induce storms of electrons on Earth. These induce electric currents as a result of which enormous numbers of electrical - and therefore, also electromagnetic - apparatuses and devices of all kinds can be made inoperable just as can atomic and electric power plants as well as other plants, machines and vehicles, and so forth, which are in any way associated with electrical energy. If something happens in this form then the whole thing is absolutely not harmless, because if such harmful consequences arise, then not only do large parts of the economy and medical care, as well as drinking water supply, collapse, but also the production and necessary transport of food stuffs, as well as general security measures against plundering. Not to mention that, in regard to all Earth human advances, a setback in development could result and damage could generally come about in all areas, which would take decades to rectify again. The Earth human beings and their governments would also come to the brink of financial ruin, which means that they would become incapable of payment concerning being able to generally address and rectify the damage which had arisen. Criminality and wrongdoing would also climb, along with many other evils, which would be incalculable. This would be the case if a catastrophe in fact arose in the form in which it could with an over-activity of the Sun. But that happening is only a possibility and does not correspond to a prediction, because it still is not certain what will occur when the activity wakes the Sun from its slumber.

Billy:

Thank you. You have said and explained more than I actually expected. But it is certainly good that it has all been said.

Galactic History of Humans 12 billion B.C. to 230,000 B.C.

Billy:

Good.

So, I shall begin with this:

The story about Enoch (Henok in German) or Nokodemion, respectively, is well known within our group; excerpts from it can be found also in the (book) OM. However, nothing was ever mentioned until now about the other things that transpired with Enoch nearly 12 billion years ago with regard to his peoples. Even as far back as Sfath, your people requested that I remain silent until 1995. Later on, this commitment of silence was reconfirmed too by Asket, then Semjase, Quetzal and yourself, Ptaah. Now that 1995 has begun, and you have given me your permission to talk about it, I want to offer my knowledge as I still recollect it:

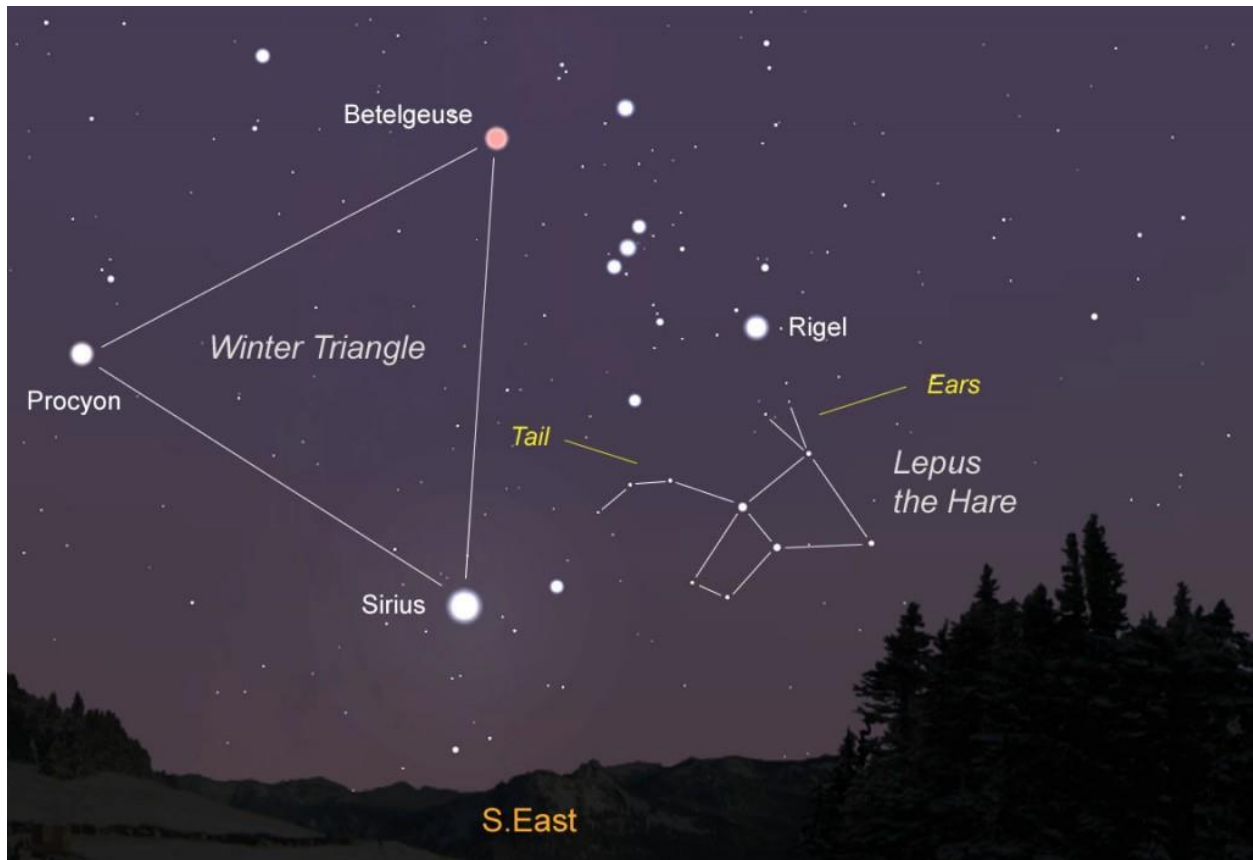

After the great restitution movements by the peace fightertroops, following the end of the peace wars and peace times between all peoples and planets, Enoch's original tribes split into two lineages. One lineage went its own way to the Lyrian territories, where they settled in another space-time configuration that deviates by a fraction of a second from this, our space-time, configuration. They lived there, but only after they had inhabited other worlds and systems in other alien galactic regions for many billions of years that resulted in wars. Subsequently, tribal emigrations occurred throughout space and ultimately culminated in another space-time configuration that deviates from ours by the fraction of a second. The territory was located in the Lyra star system. For this reason, people continue to speak even to this day of the Lyrian territories and the Old Lyrians who, later on, had to return to our space-time configuration partly for exploration purposes and partly as a method of escape.

Consequently, they arrived on Earth and became active in the well-known things I have already mentioned. Up to this point, this lineage retained all knowledge of their earliest origins, and from these earliest origins evolved the Pleiadians, or rather the Plejarens. In their own language they call themselves by the identical name as their star cluster beyond the Pleiades, which is located in another space-time configuration and also deviates from our space-time configuration by a fraction of a second.

After breaking away from Enoch's ancient tribes approximately 12 billion years ago, the second lineage, ventured on a totally different route than that of the Lyrian group, if they may be called that. They, too, emigrated into other galaxies. But a mere 7 billion years ago, knowledge of their true, Ur-ancestry (Ur = most ancient origin, primeval) was lost. Today they have absolutely no knowledge of their true heritage. Hence, their chroniclers, historians and others created a different legend about their heritage that had nothing, or very little, in common with their true background any longer. This lineage consisted also of many diverse races, in the same manner as the Lyrian lineage. However, in contrast to the Lyrians, who remained ready to fight at any time and steadily evolved toward an equilibrium from which emerged the peaceloving, well-balanced, highly developed Plejarans, the second lineage reached that state far too quickly.

Consequently, they completely lost their capability to fight and were increasingly defenseless against aggressors. As a result, they joined an extensive emigration of all peoples and landed in the region of the Sirius constellation.

Once again they lost all knowledge of their past and their heritage. Again a new Ur-history of their ancestry was assembled and registered into the annals. This lineage spread through the Sirius regions' farthest reaches and continuously evolved to the point where they were capable of creating new life. Having lost the ability to fight, these people bred new human races and manipulated their genes so these new races would be able to fight and protect them from repeated attacks by aggressors. Through invasive genetic manipulations, these new human races were turned into life forms who bore barbaric traits that tended toward degeneration and cruelty, and their life span was limited to approximately 100 years. Their genes were manipulated and tampered with because the creators and overlords feared the beings would band together and annihilate them. Eventually, their fears became reality, and for this reason new methods had to be found to bring the genetically-manipulated races under their control once again, although it meant that these goals would have to be achieved through radical extermination. Since the "creator-overlords" were more powerful than the genetically-manipulated individuals those found but one recourse and that was to flee, which they did with help from benevolent supporters in the Sirius regions. At the same time, these supporters secretly decided to exploit the genetically-manipulated people for their own use. Two large, genetically-manipulated peoples fled from the Sirius regions and settled in an area on the other side of the (great central) Sun. This meant they landed within, and then inhabited, a very distant part of a remote solar system; indeed, on planets beyond the galaxy's central sun, the sun of the Milky Way. Eventually, however, they were discovered by space travelers from the Old Lyrian lineage, whereupon they emigrated into the Lyra regions. Ultimately, within more recent terrestrial history, they came to our planet, where they settled in China, Japan and other locations, and various new, so-called races formed. Upon leaving the Sirius regions, the other genetically-manipulated peoples found a way to the SOL System, where several thousands of rebellious genetically-manipulated people had previously been banished to a myriad of terrestrial locations as a punishment. These masses of diverse races found refuge on the planets Mars and Malona/Phaeton, respectively, where they constructed cities, pyramids, stations and other things. They led a good life on Mars until the planet became uninhabitable through cosmic influences. For this reason, the genetically-manipulated people had to leave that planet in ancient times and, subsequently, they settled on Earth. Over the course of time, they became terrestrial human beings whose true and genuine Ur-origin was within the regions and planets of Sirius. Only the pyramids and gigantic monuments on Mars were left behind, abandoned, but stations remained operative for a long time even though all life on the planet had perished. One day all of this will be discovered by terrestrials, the genetically-manipulated people, and some of these sites will even be used once again.

Malona, or rather Phaeton, was destroyed in fratricidal wars by its genetically-manipulated inhabitants who had originally come from the Sirius regions, and who blew up the planet by diverting parts of an ocean into the subterranean or underwater magma chambers of a gigantic volcano. The SOL System's Asteroid Belt contains fragments of this former planet, whose orbit was not where the Asteroid Belt is today but was located where Mars orbits the Sun today, and Mars at one time was located where the asteroid belt is today. This position reversal was caused by immense upheavals in which the Destroyer (planet) played an important role.

The planetary locations of Mars, Earth and Malona/Phaeton, and solar systems on the other side of our galaxy, in the Milky Way, where the two yellow races settled down, were selected as effective hide-outs by these races' benefactors, who were the conspirators for the escape of the genetically-manipulated people. Throughout the past, the refugees' hide-out locations were kept secret from the "creator-overlords" in fear that once the overlords determined the refugees' location, they would send out punitive expeditions to eliminate the fugitives. This danger remains in existence even today and, consequently, the Americans were extremely careless in sending into space probes revealing data on the Earth's location and descriptions of human beings. If, by chance, this information should fall into the hands of the "creator-overlords", they would learn that the genetically-manipulated people, the terrestrials, somehow had survived and greatly multiplied over these past millions of years, and one would have to assume that attacks upon Earth and its inhabitants would be launched from the Sirius regions. Such actions would result in the terrestrials' total elimination. The benefactors would not rush to aid the terrestrials, for they have withdrawn from our region long ago, shortly after their ventures to Earth, in fact, when they began fearing the genetically-manipulated people, the terrestrials, in much the same way the "creator-overlords" did formerly. This fear, which also gripped the benefactors led to the eradication of the Earth peoples' ancestral records by way of various manipulations. At this time, the benefactors elevated themselves to gods and exalted themselves above the terrestrial population, who rapidly became their vassals and believers. Truthfully, in doing so, the benefactors very soon became the antithesis of benefactors. On one hand they hoped to make the genetically-manipulated people their subjects and that, on the other, many cults, religions, fratricide, family feuds and wars would be launched through this worship of gods, whereby the terrestrials, the genetically-manipulated people, would decimate and exterminate themselves. As a consequence, they, the gods, respectively former benefactors, hoped they would be free from the danger of the aggressive, barbaric terrestrial human life form. This plan went completely awry, however, because terrestrial Man, who had become increasingly stronger, smarter, more barbarian and underhanded, began to enjoy his role and defended it to the last drop of blood with every conceivable means, ancient and modern.

Consequently, the genetically-manipulated population, now the inhabitants of Earth, totally slipped from the control of their former benefactors, respectively the gods, who, in turn, withdrew from the terrestrial human beings and from Earth -- but not before swearing revenge and demanding satisfaction in the future from the human population on Earth. For the Old Lyrians, the benefactors' withdrawal paved their way to Earth and its human beings, and as they ventured to Earth on expeditions and in flight after leaving their space and time configuration, they entered our space-time configuration in the SOL System. After a while they, too, comported themselves as gods and began causing havoc. The former benefactors of the genetically-manipulated population had no idea then, nor do they now, that these developments took place nor do they know about the existence of the Pleiadians, respectively the Plejarans. The terrestrial, genetically-manipulated human beings, however, disobeyed the Lyrians and Pleiadian/Plejaran gods as well, although some of these gods attempted to force the terrestrials, such as the Gizeh Intelligences, Ashtar Sheran and the like, under their yoke and domination, using every conceivable means possible. The former benefactors divided into two groups also. One group included those individuals who had sworn vengeance against the terrestrials and later changed their minds, while the other group remained benevolent towards the terrestrials and hoped to one day return to Earth. These "gods" alone from either group know what the future holds in store for us. Should they really return one day, terrestrials cannot expect that anything good will come from those who changed from being benefactors to malevolent personages, for, despite their change into evil-mindedness, they were unable to return to their Ur-habitat in the Sirius regions. Due to their treason they were shunned as outcasts, and now they, too, must take great care to not divulge their whereabouts to the former "creator-overlords" - or they may also become victims of their overlords' curse for revenge. Despite their departure from Earth and the SOL System, these former benefactors, who had become addicted to their passion for revenge, nevertheless continued to maintain some contacts with Earth beings, and occasionally they even visit here. During their contacts and visits they maliciously and falsely influence terrestrial individuals with erroneous messages, visions and similar things, in much the same way the dark elements among the Old Lyrians had done previously. These are only occasional intrigues, however, which only occur, as a rule, in cult like-religious-sectarian form and are of very little significance, for they usually only affect the Christian religions and not all terrestrial religions. Since their alienation, the two groups, consisting of the former and the current benefactors, have had no contact whatsoever with each other. Indeed, it is very likely that such mutual contacts were strictly forbidden and knowledge of the other group's existence was erased from memory, as Quetzal once assured me according to a secret Plejarian clarification.

Some rather astonishing things are revealed when the genetic manipulations performed by the Sirius-region "creator-overlords" on specific human beings that generated masses of fighters are scrutinized: By way of their evolution, the "creator-overlords" themselves had lost all their capabilities to fight. Their evolution was directed only toward opulence, knowledge, competence and so forth, while their own strength and capability to fight were completely eradicated. Not only did they lose the stamina to fight but the capacity as well. When aggressors approached and threatened to annihilate these highly developed peoples, they had to find a solution to defend themselves against the attackers. To achieve this goal, they begot human beings into whom they implanted, through genetic manipulation, various forms of fighting capabilities along with an aging process factor as a precaution, whereby the genetically-altered people would soon become very old and die prematurely. Such actions prevented the genetically-manipulated individuals from banding together and rising up against the "creator-overlords". This precaution soon proved to hold true, for the genetically-altered people continuously increased in numbers, and they inherited their manipulated genes - for all times. Due to the ever-increasing numbers of these genetically-altered individuals, and their escalating aggressiveness toward the "creator-overlords", these fighters became a growing threat. For this reason, alternate ways of eliminating them were required by the overlords. However, prior to the selection of the most appropriate methods, most of the genetically-altered people were able to flee and, with the help of the benefactors, they found a secure place as I have already explained. The genetically-manipulated people have since established themselves on Earth to the degree where they simultaneously became this planet's rulers and its destroyers, because most of them remained overly entangled in the effects of the manipulated genes of fighting, viciousness, barbarism, bloodthirstiness, greediness, addiction, emotionalism, inhumanities, to name but a few. These characteristics have been an evil legacy for mankind from early times, and they also may actually be called the "original sin". Information regarding the "original sin" was erroneously handed down by Christian religions as the fable of Adam, Eve and the devilish snake in the Garden of Eden. This "original sin", however, the genetic manipulation, repeatedly let the obsession for fighting and evil to surface from time immemorial - almost becoming Evil itself. Yet, in fact, this entire matter is based upon the manipulation of a single DNA gene that can be rectified, if only our geneticists were to finally discover it. This genetic manipulation, a characteristic for all living human beings on Earth by way of its inevitable, hereditary transmission, can be reversed and therefore by doing so, Man can finally escape his evil demeanor, which was imposed upon him by way of genetic manipulation. Although science has not yet sufficiently advanced in this field, scientists are nonetheless on the correct path. For this reason alone there is ample justification today for continued progress in genetic research and genetic manipulation, despite objections by those who lack understanding, and others who vehemently reject these concepts and preach idiotic, religious nonsense against things they can neither prevent and nor impede. Terrestrial Man merely has to reverse the former specific genetic manipulation that compels him to resort to bloodshed and murder, bloodthirstiness, hatred, greed, addiction and all other inhumanities. Still, genetic manipulation of the fighting capabilities in the Creation-given Creational law and directive sense must not be reversed since the capability to fight is essential for Man's continued existence and evolution. Consequently, the same event must not occur that previously occurred with the "creator-overlords" who robbed themselves of this fighting capability and lost all of their strength to fight through manipulation of their own genes. For this reason, they were no longer able to defend themselves against any aggressors who attacked them and this, in turn, resulted in their monstrous concept of manipulating human beings so they would become fighting machines through genetic alterations - which, ultimately, precipitated new sets of problems. When the human beings who were genetically-altered into fighting machines by the "creator-overlords" are studied, evidence shows that they procreated, or rather bred specifically for this purpose as they were perfectly normal, indeed, even highly evolved human beings. But they were rudimentarily altered physically through the manipulation of their genes. Prior physical traits reappeared and made these people, among other things, extremely resistant to environmental influences, and they displayed a certain barbarity. Throughout all of these genetic alterations, however, the proponents neglected to manipulate the genetic factor responsible for cognizance, memory, comprehension and compliance with the Creational-natural laws and directives - everything that is balanced and good. This omission was completely intentional, for research had shown that this particular omission would provide a form of security against the genetically-manipulated people's complete degeneration. The omission would always allow a degree of humaneness to surface and influence mankind's lives, actions and other factors, and thus provide some guarantee for the "creator-overlords" that genetically-manipulated individuals would not become viciously assaultive against them. These specific desires were not fulfilled, though, except for the fact that the genetically-altered individuals did not become totally de-humanized or completely, utterly degenerated. From the earliest times therefore, the prevailing factor of stability or goodness, respectively, always penetrated the genetically-altered people's consciousness. Because of this factor over the past millions of years, viciousness has increasingly lost its significance although it remains quite evident, particularly within certain rulers, criminals, despots and others. Unfortunately, no one was previously aware that through the genetic manipulation, and the naturally existing factor of stability and goodness in Man, a conflict or at least a feeling of being torn between opposing emotions would arise. This holds true even today with many human beings. As a result of these genetic manipulations, and from earliest times, Man has fought these inner conflicts of good and evil - where evil frequently is the winner. Nonetheless, increasing numbers of humans combat their way to goodness by conquering the damage done by the genetic manipulation and their wicked legacy, i.e., the evil or original sin. Unfortunately, frequent excesses occur that are based upon degeneration and pseudo-humanism, because humans are unable to find the appropriate paths and cling to false ideals that frequently originated from religious-sectarian idiocy.

Few other details are needed to explain the number of diverse human skin tones on Earth. From our previous explanations, it should now be apparent that various human races and their skin colors originated throughout the most diverse planetary systems of our galaxy, the Milky Way. The regions of Sirius, however, played a specific role too, at least with respect to the actual Ur-Ur-origin, before the Old Lyrians came to Earth where they later merged with terrestrial human beings. Numerous distant descendants from those early days inhabit this planet today.

One more explanatory remark regarding the original genetic manipulators: In reality they were the benefactors of the genetically-altered people, hence they were their "creator-overlords". When the time came to eventually kill or merely exile the genetically-altered individuals they (the benefactors) split into two sides. Subsequently, the two divisions fought each other with harsh verbal assaults and accusations until other intelligent beings from the Sirius regions intervened; they were joined by the group who wanted to kill the genetically-altered people. The true benefactors, those opposed to the killing, were able to rescue a great many genetically-manipulated beings whom they had divided into several groups - in spite of the many counter measures of those who wanted to kill. As was previously explained, two groups of peoples settled on the other side of the galaxy, while the remainder of the peoples found new homes in the SOL system on Mars and Malona; subsequently, several thousand degenerate, genetically-altered individuals were deported to Earth. The benefactors knew even then that the people shipped there could not remain in this solar system forever but that sometime later they would have to depart for other destinations. The benefactors were fully aware that this remote system's sun was a waning star even then, and it was specifically selected since the Sirius Intelligences and the "creator-overlords" who were willing to kill the refugees, did not suspect that this region with its dying sun would be a candidate for new settlements of the "degenerates" and "god's workers", as they were called by the "creator-overlords".

For this reason, the benefactors placed vast distances between the genetically-manipulated people's home planets in the Sirius regions and the SOL system, as well as the distant system beyond the galaxy, so as to protect those living on them from those who threatened to kill and eliminate them. The selected hideaways were chosen therefore for their extreme remoteness and their position at the fringe of the galaxy. In addition to having a dying sun, another determining facet also was that living conditions on SOL planets, and planets within the system on the other side of the galaxy, were very inhospitable since the breathable air on each of the newly settled planets did not match the original air composition on the home planets. Even on Earth today this is applicable, for its air composition fails to measure up to human respiratory requirements. The dying sun, inadequate living conditions and poor air in the SOL system and beyond the galaxy, were therefore reason enough for seeking hideouts here from the pursuers. The genetically-altered human beings have struggled to survive ever since their arrival in the SOL system so remote from Sirius, its planets and intelligences. The newcomers propagated offspring and ceaselessly evolved as terrestrials. Soon they will have developed the capability to embark into the Universe's vastness and to their Ur-Ur-points of origin.

These actions contradict the unjustifiable claims of terrestrial scientists who contend that Man on Earth, in his current form, is the Ur-product of Earth - let alone Charles Darwin's stupid-primitive false premise that Man descended from apes. There do exist, however, some purely terrestrially-created human beings on Earth but they display their own evolutionary lineage, which is independent from the apes, while the apes descended from the original, respectively earliest, human beings. Yet, even these purely Earth-created individuals are saddled with the genetic legacy of the so-called "original sin", if one can call it that. The same applies also to those many humans propagated in former times by Old-Lyrians and Plejarans who then died on Earth. Every extraterrestrial, absolutely each and every one, who ever lived and died on Earth never again returned to his home world. Their spirit forms passed into the terrestrial realms of the Beyond, and they have since incarnated into new human bodies. Because these individuals were born on Earth, they too sustained the damage of the previous genetic alterations by the "creator-overlords" from Sirius. This entire situation transpired because the genetically-manipulated and the purely terrestrial human beings energetically propagated offspring with each other, and as a result the degenerate legacy unrelentingly spread throughout planet Earth's entire humankind.

The genetic manipulations do not imply that terrestrial Man is a born killing machine, but signify only that he is a combative life form, capable of killing when required to do so, or when events trigger his loss of control or outbursts, etc. Such actions may also lead to degeneration; but, generally, they only occur when the two factors- consciousness and psyche, hence the person's world of thoughts and feelings, are afflicted or briefly overburdened, whereupon they prompt the act committed in the heat of passion. Therefore, the evil brought about, or rather fostered, by the genetic manipulation, is not an intrinsic, compulsive inborn lust to murder. In truth, the genetic manipulation was only created as a controllable factor enabling Man to subdue the evil implanted in him, and to make it slowly vanish as he walks along his natural, evolutionary path. This takes an incredibly long time, however, and the reversal of the gene manipulation is an absolutely suitable solution therefore. Clearly, there truly exist no born murderers, and this fact must be stated explicitly. Such malevolent predispositions, degenerations, or individual and mass actions result from either injuries of a psychic-conceptual-emotional nature, through some sort of disorder of the consciousness, or by explosive rages. In case of disorder of the psyche or consciousness, organic injuries of the brain can play an important part. All of this is the result only of the degeneration of the gene that was accordingly manipulated, whereby evil, the purely negative, forever forces itself into the foreground. For this reason additional items also come into play, such as Man's savagery and blood frenzy during revolutions and wars, at times when he discovers the ease of killing and then overcomes the killing barrier. Such a barrier normally will remain forever present in Man, despite his genetic manipulation, unless circumvented by disease or explosive rage. Therefore, there is no such thing that Man is born evil in the sense that he or she is totally evil from birth onward, as some people enjoy claiming; those who wish only to see evil and total negativity. Man, of course, was provided with both the negative and the positive from the very beginning of his existence, but not to the point where he is only negative or only positive. Ultimately, an equilibrium is established that truly provides Man with the capability and stability of conquering every inflicting injury and all forms of external influences. Both, negative and positive factors, when combined with and applied to the appropriate form, result in one grand total which turns the human life form into an extremely hardy living entity that possesses the required abilities and is a born fighter for the Creational-natural laws and directives without excessiveness.

The "creator-overlords" who originally were human beings with the same characteristics as Man, however, insanely eliminated this gene from within themselves. In the process they lost all their own combativeness and robustness. They modified their entire thinking process and actions accordingly, and this resulted in their complete decadence. Consequently, they were defenseless and were subjugated when aggressors attacked them. As a result they secretly developed this breed of fighters whom they genetically manipulated and covertly new races were propagated having an array of diverse skin colors. These fighters served as pawns against the aggressors and were victorious. Thus, the "creator-overlords" are to blame for their own deterioration. In their distress they procreated a new breed of humans who actually possessed all the nature-given prerequisites once again and, hence, they were capable of fighting and living. This proved to be insufficient for the "creator-overlords", though, and they decided to conduct additional genetic manipulations to make the new peoples even more aggressive than their natural tendencies allowed. To some extent the creators merely amplified certain factors through genetic manipulation, whereby the manipulated individuals actually turned into fighting machines -- but always equipped with the potential capability of normalizing themselves again through the control of evolution. For such an event to transpire, millions of years would be required, though, and this evolutionary path continues even today as is evident in terrestrial Man. The genetic manipulations made the negative or evil factors, as humans of Earth know it, particularly forceful and unnaturally aggressive. For this reason these factors have not dissipated from terrestrial Man to the point where they can never flare up again in any way, that is to say, in his excessive procreation of offspring.

Such behavior has led to overpopulation, every type of ensuing ill and religious-sectarian insanity and imbecility that is frequently fanatical in character. All of these factors threaten not only the complete, ultimate destruction of the planet, but also the environment in general and every life form. Terrestrial Man's thoughts and actions represent a regressional phase toward the Ur-condition of the genetic manipulation whereby everything degenerates and becomes excessive, just as it did in earliest times.

The "creator-overlords", at the time, discerned another reason for eliminating the genetically-manipulated people. This regressive phase is manifested ever more powerful in military action, militant matters or religious-sectarian machinations. Military practices, political hate campaigns, religious-sectarian fanaticism and every type of crime generate a loss of control over the positive, which is consumed and suppressed by the negative. This turmoil spawns a state of negative-evil frenzy, which is then indulged in and pursued without restraint.

In ancient times, men and women were equal regarding their capability and energy to live, fight and do other things. Hence, there was neither a distinction between men and women in those aspects nor in their work sites or types of tasks they performed, although men relieved the physically weaker women at strenuous chores. Women and men were equal in every way without there being any discrimination whatsoever between the sexes, as long as biological differences and related details, which were, of course, considered and observed even in Ur-times. Even then, therefore, women were mainly responsible for maternal duties and household tasks when they were married with offspring. If this did not apply, women performed the identical tasks as the men. Both women and men held government posts; male staff members were incorporated into the team to the extent that men and women always governed in equal numbers and shouldered responsibilities together. Therefore neither one man nor one woman controlled the government. The people themselves possessed the right to speak up and join in the decision making process for all concerns, resolutions, edicts and laws, etc.

As previously explained, the two planets Mars and Malona/Phaeton in the SOL system were suitable for habitation by the refugees, the genetically-manipulated peoples. Planet Earth was still quite inhospitable at the time since its atmosphere was somewhat unhealthy for human life forms from the Sirius regions. Consequently, only those fallible, genetically-manipulated individuals were deported to Earth who had aggressively and viciously risen against their own confederates. Five remnant races fled to Mars from the Sirius regions, while two other races embarked in direction of the sun on the opposite side of the galaxy, as explained previously. The five races fleeing to Mars and Malona/Phaeton were joined by two other creator-overlord races. These two other races had not yet been genetically-manipulated, of course, and had no changes made to their DNAs. They were the benefactors who identified favorably with the genetically-manipulated people, and they assisted them in their escape. Their origins are traced to two different overpopulated planets in the Sirius regions where everyone was prohibited from procreating. As a result, every child born was murdered and the offending parents were sterilized and banished.

The exodus of the genetically-manipulated refugees from the Sirius regions took place over an extended period of many thousands of years, and they were constantly hounded by their pursuers until they finally found an appropriate hideaway in the SOL system, far from their pursuers' reach and sight.

A similar fate awaited the other two refugee groups who settled beyond in the galaxy. Indeed, both refugee groups experienced harassment during their many years of flight, which most of them spent in spaceships as they travelled through the galaxy. During their travels revolutions and power struggles broke out and, as a consequence, the genetically-manipulated peoples lost not only all of their previously accumulated knowledge, but also the evidence of their ancestral heritage. Appalling dramas befell them and led to cannibalism throughout all of their spaceships. As a result, the ancestral indications of the genetically-manipulated peoples, the future terrestrial humans, was lost. This knowledge consisted also of information regarding the Creational-natural laws and directives, among other things. Great confusion ensued that led to further problems in face of the knowledge about the dangers of their pursuit; this knowledge was passed down from one generation to the next.

The genetically manipulated peoples, along with their benefactors, the "traitor" "creator-overlords" who eventually settled on Mars and Malona, ultimately developed into a notable technological culture. Unfortunately, they were not able to protect themselves sufficiently and one day were forced to flee from the planets. Their scientists discovered that the SOL system was cosmically much more perilous than they had originally anticipated. Many comets, roaming planets, meteors and other perils repeatedly endangered the two newly inhabited planets Mars and Malona/Phaeton. Several of these space intersector plunged upon the planets, causing immense damage and taking numerous human lives. In the process, a large roaming planet was discovered that had an unusually long rotation period and an orbit that projected it far beyond the outermost planets of the solar system. According to the astronomers' calculations, this large celestial body threatened to collide with the planet Mars, or to ravage it to a point where all planetary life, including all floral, faunal and human life, would be completely destroyed and annihilated in the wake of a near collision. The genetically-manipulated people, or rather their distant descendants, made the decision to abandon their place of exile. Even these distant descendants were aware of their situation as one of exile, for they remained cognizant of the danger of being pursued, albeit in a much vaguer form. As a result, they were incapable of defining the origin of their peril any longer. The threatening wandering planet in the past, over a long period, had caused a great deal of destruction and wreaked great havoc in the SOL system. According to details formerly presented by Sfath, this celestial body named the "Destroyer" had previously caused the most horrifying destruction on their home worlds in days gone by, before it streaked through space on its unpredictable course. The "Destroyer" ensconced itself in the SOL system where it also wreaked much havoc. Over time it decreased its orbiting period to an average of 575.5 years; however, the Pleiadians/Plejarans have since increased this interval again. As a result, the "Destroyer" will again appear in the SOL system in about 1180 years.

(Destroyer updated to no longer be a threat)

The Pleiadians/Plejarans were unable to completely knock the planet off course, as they had planned; nonetheless, they did change the Destroyer's orbiting period and rotation time in such a way that it presents no longer any danger - at least for the time being. Normally, the planet would have returned in the year 2255 with devastating, destructive results. The High Council failed to give the Pleiadians/Plejarans permission to offset the wandering "Destroyer's" course by any other means or to destroy it, and it requested the Pleiadians/Plejarans refrain from doing so as the Destroyer's obliteration, or a change of its course, would have generated an even greater destruction and possibly even affected the Earth.

As they completed the details for their emigration opportunities, a dispute again erupted among the distant descendants of the genetically-altered people who had, of course, inherited the genetic manipulations from their ancestors. A decisive factor in the erupting disputes proved largely to come from the new teachings presented by the benefactors. The teachings stated that the benefactors were the creators of the genetically-manipulated individuals or, rather, their distant descendants, and that they, the creators, must be awarded absolute obedience and worship. Most benefactors claimed to be the highest exalted beings -- the creators and makers. However, these opinions and demands were not shared by all benefactors and, subsequently, two camps formed: One camp consisted of the purported creators, and the other of those who retained their prevailing benevolent attitude, who distanced themselves from this "creatorism". A dispute resulted not only among these two camps but also among the faithful within the two parties, their followers. Ultimately, the antagonists reached an agreement whereby those who wanted to do so departed from planet Mars in the direction of Earth and Malona. Subsequently, many people from both camps grouped together to emigrate jointly, some of whom travelled to the planet Malona/Phaeton and the others to Earth. The emigration group leader to Malona/Phaeton was called Zenteka, whose wife (Amalaka) concurred with him. The earthbound group also had two emigration leaders who were brothers called Semos and Passas. The atmosphere on Malona was safe and healthy for the emigrants and the peoples already inhabiting it. It was somewhat like the air on Mars and similar to the air the descendants of the genetically-manipulated peoples had become accustomed to over many millennia in their spaceships. Unfortunately, the same could not be said about the air on Earth. Pragmatic modifications were therefore required for future emigrants who wanted to live on Earth. For this reason, the same purposeful adjustments ensued that had previously been effected when the degenerates were exiled to Earth: At that time and before they were deported to Earth, the exiled individuals were forced to adapt to the terrestrial atmosphere, and their skeletal frame required further stabilization, among other things. Those individuals willing to emigrate from Mars to Earth now had to undergo the same remedial procedures so that they would be capable of establishing themselves on this planet.

Everything transpired as the scientists had formerly predicted: The "Destroyer" penetrated the Martian orbit and wrenched Mars with it into another SOL orbit, namely that of Malona, where it remained. Subsequently, Malona drifted away, however, because of the Destroyer's powerful forces, but managed to exist in this orbit until the time when it was destroyed by its inhabitants many millennia later, and became the Asteroid Belt.

During this "drifting catastrophe", the inhabitants of Malona were decimated from approximately 470 million humans to barely 14 million; however, they were able to recover somewhat and by the time they destroyed their planet, their population had increased again to approximately 52 million.

The refugees on Earth lost contact with the people on Malona and Mars, which became completely desolate and its remaining inhabitants perished.

Individuals from the benefactor group who previously had demanded that they be exalted and worshipped, fiercely spread their false teachings and never again allowed the well-disposed benefactors to gain any power. In this manner, the "creator-overlords" were then capable of putting on the airs of terrestrial Man's creators, rising to power and spreading their insane religious doctrines which, however, contained an absolutely novel yet equally false history of humankind's origin, history and belief.

Its purpose was to definitively destroy and lose all data of mankind's true descent in the event that someone else would attempt to secretly glean the information from somewhere. Of course, the true benefactors did not allow this occur. They fought back by inventing their own religious creeds and disseminating them among the now numerous terrestrial human beings. They were hoping that through their new belief system, humans would learn to search for the genuine truth, to grasp and comprehend everything that is truly Creational and natural - and they envisioned their situation turning to the better. To this end, the true benefactors coined the phrase: "The teachings shall be produced for the human beings on Earth, so that they may destroy the impurity and degeneration within their abused bodies."

However, in these teachings, as in the teachings by the "creator-overlords", there lay the secret hope that these various philosophies of faith and religious doctrines would form a monumental hindrance, whereby the distant descendants of the genetically-manipulated peoples would limit the size of their population to tolerable and responsible numbers. An alternate motive behind this was that the manipulated people's descendants would neither rise against the "creator-overlords" nor the still benevolent benefactors in order to gain control over them, among other things. The benefactors did not want the descendants to prematurely evolve to the point where the descendants had the capability to fly once more into space with the help of a too rapidly expanding, too highly developed technology, and where they would find their previous home worlds such as Mars and the planets in the Sirius region. The "creators" also hoped that in their scheme of things, and through their various religious doctrines, the terrestrials would eradicate themselves through the ensuing confusion and wars. They based their hope on the concept that terrestrials would only be technologically, biologically and scientifically capable of conquering space when they had evolved through a sufficiently lengthy period, so as to achieve the mandatory adjustments in their thinking processes and actions. In other words, their intention was that terrestrial human beings, through religious doctrines and diverse religious forms, would have the insight to resolve their genetically-manipulated deterioration problem, whereupon they could correct this deterioration. An important factor in this scenario was that, in the distant future, the terrestrials would discover for themselves the genetically-induced earlier damage imposed upon them, and find their path back to normalcy through appropriate genetic reversals. They believed and hoped that the distant descendants of the genetically-manipulated peoples, the terrestrials, should only then seek contact with their original past, their ancestry, other worlds and human beings in the vastness of the Milky Way, alien galaxies, and the Universe.

Judging from all indications, the terrestrials evolve very quickly on their own, for increasing numbers of people have now been born over a very long period who cherish evolution in every aspect. The benefactors' hopes will be fulfilled and exemplary and peaceable races will come to Earth from the Universe's vastness to maintain contact with terrestrials. This can only take place, though, when the unfortunate chain of genetic manipulation is reversed and normalized in sequential order, and when the human DNAs are Creationally and naturally linked once more to Creation's laws.

Preprogramming previously occurred, allowing terrestrials to detect and locate the deplorable genetic manipulation of their DNA chain, although these findings will not transpire for some time. Furthermore, with certainty, this "error", which was imposed upon human beings, will also be reversed by humans themselves. This error has kept Man from living the life of a true human being until this day, and has frequently distanced him from the Creational-natural laws, directives, as well as their fulfillment. For this reason, until now, only a few individuals had the capability to find the correct path, arriving at this point only through the most painstaking struggles to conquer the genetically-manipulated degeneration on their natural course to evolution. Therefore, everything on Earth is directed toward the elimination of what was once genetically manipulated, so that Man can leave the solar system once again before its sun dies and the entire system ceases. This event will occur far sooner than terrestrial scientists currently claim. Truthfully, SOL is already a dying star. And when terrestrials emigrate once again from Earth to adjust themselves to their new home planets, distant and remote from the SOL System, they will have to adapt to those prevailing atmospheric conditions, just as their Ur-Ur-Ur-Ur-ancestors did in the past. The newly encountered conditions will be identical to those of Ur-times, when the genetically-manipulated peoples were breathing salubrious (clean) air. As can be stated today, these distant terrestrial descendants will have an extraordinary and agreeable future.

Many years will pass before terrestrial human beings find the proof that their former Ur-Ur-Ur-ancestors came to the SOL system from alien solar and planetary systems to settle on Mars before emigrating to Earth. When they do, the first proof may also be found that mankind's earliest ancestors -- the genetically-manipulated people, or rather their descendants -- were refugees and exiles who originated in the Sirius regions. This proof will shake up the scientific community and, even more so, the religious world; it will prompt the need for great changes. That moment will come chiefly when artifacts from a previous human civilization are found on Mars, with pyramids and sculptures such as the so-called Mars faces representing but a mere fraction of the entire discovery.

The findings and the message to terrestrials regarding the discoveries on Mars will be the factors one day in the collapse of the legendary picture the terrestrials' former ancestors had formed of their heritage. Many negators of the truth will realize with frightening clarity that terrestrial Man did not originate on the planet Earth and, furthermore, he is not the only human life form in the Universe. Although one prophecy states that extraterrestrials will officially land on Earth on June 5th, 1995; a second prophecy predicts this event for 1998. One should probably not count on these occurrences taking place, though, for terrestrial humankind is currently incapable of tolerating such contacts, the ensuing knowledge from them and the related ramifications. Should this event actually take place, the Plejarans would withdraw from Earth and, henceforth, keep their distance from its inhabitants, as Quetzal previously explained some time ago along with Sfath before him in the '40s. One must remember, though, that these prophecies are indeed only prophecies and not predictions. Everything can change, therefore, and the prophecies may not come true unless essential conditions for the events exist. And this is exactly the case - always with the assumption everything occurs precisely and correctly - for its prerequisite is that terrestrial Man must first remedy the damage, or corruption, of his genetic manipulation and change his mentality, thoughts and actions into the Creational-natural state prior to attaining open contact with alien races and peoples, that is, to extraterrestrials. This signifies that a succession of years must still elapse before these prerequisites are fulfilled. Until that time, the Earth and its human inhabitants will experience all forms of events, changes and other things, which are not only essential for Man's evolution but unavoidable as well, because of the terrestrial human life form's thoughts and actions. On one hand, this entire scenario inevitably results in numerous situations which are frequently a grave danger or impediment to Man's evolution. On the other hand, these events are conducive to his evolution and absolutely unavoidable, therefore. Taking everything into account, official contacts with extraterrestrials are currently truly not recommendable, for terrestrial human beings are incapable of bearing the reality appropriately particularly from the secular-sectarian, the military, religious-sectarian, economical and political position. For this reason, official contacts with extraterrestrials would be entirely out of place should they occur at this time or in the near future. Extraterrestrial contacts at this time are viable only with individuals or certain, very small groups; to this end, contacts of a secret military and governmental nature would be feasible as well. Such events, though, will increasingly lead to the public emergence of fraudulent contactees and observers, who present purported photographic material, perfectly falsified with computers. The public will believe them, all the other frauds, deceivers, charlatans, delusional individuals, and those who are capable of mesmerizing many stupid faithful followers in matters concerning extraterrestrials, God, Jesus Christ, Mary and Joseph, Moses and other sundry saints and masters, for Man is too easily deceived and too gullible in his search for truth.

The Destroyer Wreaks Havoc in the Sol System

Semjase:

64. Surely, but I am not finished yet, because I would like to explain even more primordial things to you; the early history of this comet that is so fateful to the Earth, which has also brought the satellites here, the Moon - a fragment of a small planet from a very distant sun system.
65. The Earth's Moon, which comes from a planet that is 4,5 million years older than the Earth.
66. It happened millions of years ago.
67. Deep in unknown space, in a space-time shifted sun system of the Milky Way, a solitary star floated far from the normal paths of the sun-orbiting satellites.
68. It was a dark star, devoid of any life and very dangerous in its unpredictable path, into which it had been flung by a massive eruption of its original sun.
69. This happened as its original sun shattered through all-convulsive explosions, and in its destruction partially destroyed its orbiting satellites, or hurled them out as dangerous projectiles into the dark space.
70. The sun then collapsed into itself and tore a hole in cosmic space.
71. Its matter pressed itself together with tremendous force and was compressed into a small mass.
72. The sun, which in its normal vibrant state had a diameter of eleven million kilometers, had now shrunk to only around 4.2 kilometers.
73. The material became so compressed through this that a single cubic centimeter weighed several thousand tons.
74. Since then it floats as a dark gaping hollow in space, which within a perimeter of millions of kilometers, tears into itself everything that it is able to grasp and which falls into its spell.
75. The dark star which had been slung from it was again caught by a neighboring sun system, and circled it in an unpredictable path.

76. In the force field of the giant sun, it circled for many thousands of years, along with its satellites, carrying with it the promise of someday bringing down a catastrophe upon the system.
77. Still far from the actual worlds, the lifeless dark planet wandered through cosmic space.
78. Vast and inapproachable, it floated through the freezing cold of cosmic space - as an outcast, as a wandering planet, as a stranger in a strange system; dark, dangerous and deadly.
79. Under the spell of the far-reaching force arms of the sun, during the course of millennia it approached more and more the actual area of the system's satellites, which it had already circled for so long in an ever-increasing speed.
80. Imperceptibly, its orbit continuously became tighter and tighter, and year after year the extent of the danger grew.
81. With the succession of millennia, it finally came to suddenly and unexpectedly rush into the closest orbit of the sun and its planets.
82. As a rapacious monster it emerged from the blackness of space and announced deadly destruction.
83. First it was just like a silhouette out of nowhere; but as time went on it could be indistinctly recognized as a half-darkened round disk.
84. And now, already illuminated by the rays of the sun which it reflected, it approached with tremendous speed the orbit of the outermost planet.
85. It was still removed by millions of units from the actual heart of the peaceful calm, which however, on account of its enormous size, it would soon have to turn into a seething hell when it entered the stillness of this harmony.
86. But time still went by for the time being, before the giant finally broke away from its path and came into dangerous proximity.
87. Now already visible as a round sphere, the Destroyer reflected the sunlight while pulling a fine veil of luminous particles behind.
88. Still only a few hundred units away from the nearest worlds, it caused infernal storms in these, which destroyed large areas that had been built by the peaceful human beings which had emerged there.
89. Trembling for their hard-earned goods and their already hard life, they found themselves suddenly abandoned to the powerful and merciless forces of the Universe.
90. Helpless, condemned to be handed over from life to death, they stared out into the sky, to the gigantic wandering planet which came racing like a cosmic death missile.
91. It was only a matter of time before the forces of the cosmos would come to display their monstrous powers.
92. On the night of the third day after the incursion of the Destroyer into the orbit of the planets, it might have been shortly past midnight when the drifter from outer space penetrated into the elliptical orbit of the sixth planet.
93. Causing enormous cosmic storms, it threw the planet belonging to this path some units off of its direction, and brought it into a dangerous course towards the sun.
94. Tremendous eruptions and storms tore apart the peaceful appearance of the flourishing planet.

95. Mountains collapsed into themselves and seas were hurled from their beds as it settled into a new path around the sun.

96. Filled with horror and consternation over the mighty forces of nature, the people fled to the vast plains which were scattered all over the planet.

97. But the unleashed forces of Nature were stronger than the will and the ideas of preservation of the people.

98. Two thirds of the human beings inhabiting that planet were killed and destroyed in the hell that was unleashed by Nature.

99. Wild waters tore away large parts of the mainland, while exploding volcanoes buried vast areas under glowing lava and turned everything into rubble and ashes.

100. The daily rotation time doubled, and the planet circled the sun in the opposite direction.

101. Forced by cosmic determinations, the survivors had to find a new beginning, devoid of any culture and transported back to a primeval development period.

102. The Destroyer however, continued its incursion into the system, spreading hell, death and destruction.

103. It crossed the course of the fifth planet, a world about to generate its first life.

104. This one however, was fortunately too far from its path at the time of the event, to be seriously affected by it.

105. Besides powerful storms and minor earth and sea quakes, no significant incidents were worthy of note.

106. The fourth satellite on the system, however, would find its destruction on a war of the worlds.

107. As the smallest of the satellites, it stoically moved along its trajectory, and the prediction was that it would cross the path of the wanderer precisely as the latter would stand directly in front of it.

108. And that is exactly what happened:

109. It fell into the irresistible force of destruction of the giant.

110. Like two wild monsters the two planets rushed against each other; a giant and a dwarf.

111. But before the two could collide, huge explosions ripped the lifeless dwarf planet.

112. Its fragments were hurled into the endless expanse of the Universe, where they were captured by the forces of other stars as shooting stars or meteors, and found their final end burning out in their atmospheres.

113. Additional parts of the dwarf were pulled into the sun and atomized.

114. Other parts were drawn into the Destroyer, becoming a part of it.

115. As if hurled by a giant fist, one half of the dwarf planet shot through a highly developed, man-made dimension door, into the infinite expanses of space of the Milky Way, a very distant destination.

116. Several times it was shaken and pulled from its path in the vicinity of suns and planets, and hit by meteors and shooting stars, thereby changing its shape.

117. After a few centuries it had already reached a roughly round shape.

118. It was however dead and desolate, covered by many small and large craters and unsuitable for life.

119. Through the forces of the various systems, it gradually lost the initial speed and changed course several times, until one day it was attracted by the sun of a system and drawn into its orbit.

120. As a dark, dead planet it passed through all the planetary orbits of the outer rings without causing any damage.

121. Only on the inner rings did it collide with some fragments of a destroyed planet, which however only tore a deep crater in it.

122. Through this, its course was once again slightly changed, and as a result became parallel with the path of the second planet, which had already begotten its first primitive life.

123. A planet that was covered by vast seas and dense primeval forests, primitive, deadly and gruesomely fantastic.

124. From this point on, 34 days passed until this planet, namely the Earth, caught the dwarf and submitted it to its spell.

125. The forces of the planet were enough to tie the dwarf to itself and let it circle around it as a new satellite, on a constantly changing elliptical orbit.

126. Since then, it orbits around the Earth as the Moon; 4.5 million years older than its mother star.

127. On the distant sun system however, the Destroyer raged on.

128. Devastating everything in its path, with unimaginable force it flung the innermost planet of that system against the sun, before which at a million fold distance it destroyed itself through powerful eruptions, and turned into the smallest fragments it fell into the sun and was atomized.

129. The Destroyer itself was driven by a few units from its previous course, and passed dangerously close to the sun and back into the depths of space, to take the same path that the asteroid had taken a long time ago, therefore also passing through the highly advanced man-made dimension door, and coming into the space-time fabric of our DERN Universe and into the area of the Milky Way and consequently, also into the SOL system.

130. Due to the incredible heat of the blazing sun, the surface of the dangerous wanderer had liquefied itself, and the glowing substances and particles which, due to its raging speed were continuously flung from it, generated a glowing tail hundreds of thousands of units long, luminous like the Destroyer planet itself, which had now become a deadly comet.

131. Through the zero temperature of space, the surface of the wanderer quickly froze again.

132. Its luminosity however remained, as well as the glowing tail.

133. Countless myriads of tiny particles and substances cover it since then, overflowing and being dragged as a long tail behind it, when it comes into the vicinity of a sun; glowing and pointing the path of the comet to the creatures of the Universe.

134. Due to a continuous stream of meteor dust, particles, substances and the corpuscular radiation of the sun, it will never lose its radiance, until the day when it falls prey to its destruction.

135. For millennia or even millions of years it will wander through space, until it is turned to dust by the friction of the particles, or is captured and destroyed by a sun.

136. Perhaps one day humans will destroy it, just like it has already destroyed billions of lives itself.

137. Millions of years have gone by since its creation, and its course is still unpredictable.

138. Through many cosmic forces, it very often changes its course in the SOL system unexpectedly, and endangers among others the unfinished sun systems of Jupiter and Saturn.

139. On the whole however, its dangerous path is so stable that during the course of 575 1/2 years it always passes through the same planetary systems, although with variations in distance of up to one million kilometers.

140. The population of that distant sun system, by then decimated by two thirds, found a new beginning, which was hard and full of privations.

141. Still, in less than 9 centuries they built up a new civilization and culture; created and driven out of the adversity inflicted by the cosmic powers.

142. The peoples succeeded in preventing further cosmic catastrophes and destructions.

143. Through arduous research, work and voluntary efforts until the very end, they created plans for their new culture and for a wide ranging technology.

144. Nature forces-safe dwellings were built, and generation after generation contributed its knowledge and skills.

145. Their spirit, their consciousness and their knowledge rapidly refined themselves, and soon the following generations had reached a technique which defied all possibilities.

146. And there came a time when the descendants flew out into the infinite expenses of the Universe with round, saucer-like ships with beam drives.

147. Other sun systems and planets were approached and explored.

148. New worlds and possibilities were opened up to transplant the peoples from their planet, which in the meantime had become too small for the new mankind.

149. The scientists with their spaceships, their profusely equipped resources of all types and fantastic application possibilities, used the known to them dimension portal to enter the Milky Way area and search for ever new things.

150. They found many new habitable worlds and sun systems, which they often subjugated with their ray weapons in short one-sided battles, in order to conquer them for the settlement of their race.

151. In addition to their monstrous material and genetic technique, they also perfected their consciousness and their spirit, and nothing that they wanted to learn remained strange to them any longer.

152. The use of their consciousness powers became self-evident to them, and so they rose more and more above their peoples to rule them.

153. They called themselves kings of wisdom by the word JHWH, which is translated on Earth as God.

154. Far superior to the ordinary people in spirit and knowledge, as well as in consciousness, they soon ruled it in an evil dictatorial form.

155. But after some centuries, having grown tired of the godly scientists, the people rose against them, initially in a silent revolution.

156. But weighed down by the spiritual and consciousness-related powers and by the immense knowledge of the gods, the people were forced to submit to their rulers.

157. However, the desire for freedom made them prepare for battle in secret.

158. Like smoldering embers it glowed for four centuries, to conflagrate at a given moment as a wild, untamable blaze.

3.

Extraterrestrial Visitation 230,000 B.C. to Present

159. It was about 230,000 years ago by Earth's time, when the liberation war broke out.
160. Evil battles covered many planets and much was destroyed.
161. A scientist named Asael took the opportunity to make himself independent and flee.
162. Secretly, he was able take possession of a large fleet of spaceships, to man them and to escape under heavy fighting activity.
163. With 183 Great Spacers and 250 Explorer class ships with a total of 360,000 people on board, he fled from his home system.

Ptaah's Great Spacer near Jupiter

164. For years they moved restlessly through the vastness of space, until one day they found a sun system which offered them living possibilities, far away from their home system.
165. Three hundred years passed since their occupation of the planet, until they created a new humanity.
166. Then they settled two more planets of their new home system, to then again travel through the Universe in exploration.
167. Through this they came upon the system of the Earth's sun.

168. They came down on three different planets here, namely on Earth, on Malona and on Mars, and started to build a new culture.

169. But the planets were still quite inhospitable and often hostile.

170. So, they abandoned the planets and only visited them from time to time.

171. When intelligent life first started to move on the second planet, the Earth, they came back and lived there.

172. As it is human nature, however, power struggles broke out, and they left the Earth.

173. From the new home planet, Earth's development was constantly monitored and expeditions were made every year.

174. From time to time there were always new attempts to colonize the planet.

175. Individuals were also deported to Earth and simply left to their fate, without any technology or help.

176. They wasted away and became wild and beastly.

177. Then finally the day came, when the great step was finally dared.

178. A certain culture was built on Earth, which lasted for several thousand years.
179. But once again the thirst for power broke out, and everything was destroyed.
180. So the Earth fell back to its old existence.
181. It took a few thousands of years more until a new attempt was made, but this time not in the sense of an actual expedition:
182. On the home planet dissension broke out again, because once again the scientists set themselves up as gods and struck the peoples into bondage.
183. From this resulted that a group of dissenting scientists and other people banded together and took possession of several spaceships.
184. About 70,000 human beings escaped and settled on Earth.
185. Their supreme leader Pelegon was freely recognized by all as a JHWH (God) and held a strict rule.
186. He had two hundred sub-leaders, each of which was responsible for a specific field of knowledge.
187. They were sub-gods, so to speak, and were also called Guardians. [“guardian angels”]
188. On the home planet, war broke out and much was destroyed once again.
189. However, the people finally reached freedom and peace.
190. This has remained so ever since and it will never change again either.
191. That was around 50,000 years ago according to terrestrial chronology.
192. Only on the Earth, things were not always so peaceful, and many mistakes were committed.
193. And through one of those mistakes were the first human races of Earth created, whose descendants still live today and are about to commit the same mistakes that their ancestors have.

Billy:

That is completely fantastic, Semjase. But how did it all go from there? I am really anxious to know.

Semjase:

194. I really believe you are, but I can't tell you anything else today because my time is up.
195. You shall hear more about it the next time.

Pelegon, Arus, Semjasa, and other “Gods”

CR 009/582

Semjase

115. At our fifth contact, we ended the history of mankind where some 50,000 years ago in Earth chronology, our home world found peace and liberty.
116. Shortly before this time, 70,000 human beings fled under the leadership of Pelegon.

117. In spacecraft which they took by force, they fled through the cosmos and settled here on Earth.

118. Under Pelegon were 200 sub leaders, scientists, competent in their special fields of knowledge.
119. By these, and others, Pelegon was unanimously acknowledged as "King of Wisdom" (IHWH/Ischwisch/God) and regarded as such.
120. In the course of millenniums, they constructed great cities and inhabited all the continents of Earth.
121. Regrettably this went well for only a narrow 10,000 years, until desires for power and control prevailed once more, and a deadly war raged over all the earth.
122. Without exception all was destroyed, and only a few thousand human beings survived (on Earth) while others fled once more into the cosmos and settled far away worlds.
123. For 7,000 years none returned to Earth, and the humans left behind degenerated and became completely wild.
124. Then descendants of those who had settled on faraway worlds returned.

125. They were again under the leadership of an IHWH (Ischwisch), under whose command they built on Atlantis* and Mu.
126. They built huge cities on each of the two separate continents.
127. For thousands of years they lived in friendship and peace, until a few scientists were again overcome by the old thirst for might and power, and tried to seize the government.
128. But having tired of wars, the nations rose up against them, and they occupied spaceships and fled into cosmic space; that being some 15,000 years ago in Earth chronology.

129. For two millenniums, they and their descendants lived in a neighboring solar system.
130. Two millenniums during which they had become very evil and only maintained order under strictest control.
131. By mutation and their sciences, they extended their lifespans to some thousands of years.
132. Overcome by their thirst for power, they left their world about 13,000 years ago and returned to Earth.

133. Their highest leader was the scientist "ARUS", who was also called "The Barbarian"...
134. Like the IHWH 40,000 years before, he also had 200 leaders and sub leaders, who were competent in special fields of science.
135. In two groups, they settled in the high north and the present Florida of North America, while they continuously attacked Atlantis and Mu in wars.
136. In only a few millenniums after their occupation of Earth bases, they succeeded in destroying (the civilizations of) Atlantis and Mu completely.
137. The few survivors went into servitude, while many great scientists were able to flee, and return to their home worlds in the Plejares.
138. But centuries before this point in time, the intruders boasted of their conquest of Earth, and IHWH ARUS led a severe and bloody regime.
139. Still his sub-leaders assumed for themselves many things and became more and more independent.

140. Within only three decades they had gone far in their own decision making, even though they feared the punishments of the IHWH ARUS.
141. They advocated a codex, to under all circumstances maintain their own race and not allow it to fall to mutations away from themselves.
142. In a forbidden manner and secretly, they went out and caught wild Earth creatures and mutations who were distant descendants of former human beings from cosmic space.
143. Wild and beautiful female beings were tamed and mated with by the sub-leaders who called themselves "Sons of Heaven".
144. Each, according to his own race, created mutated beings, completely new forms of life, who were of dwarf like stature, gigantic or animal-like.

145. Semjasa, the highest leader of the sub-leaders, mated with an EVA, a female being, who was still mostly human-like and also rather beautiful (in feature and form).
146. The descendent of this act was of male sex and a human being of good form.
147. Semjasa called him "ADAM", which was a word meaning "Earth human being".
148. A similar breeding produced a female, and in later years they were mated to each other.
149. Meanwhile, others similar had been produced, who formed groups and tribes.
150. From these, present Earth mankind developed...

151. IHWH ARUS, angered by these activities, seized his sub-leaders, when he could catch them, and killed or exiled them.
152. In time he changed his mind and recognized a new power he could exercise over the Earth beings.
153. With newly appointed sub-leaders and guard angels, he brought three human races under his control.
154. These were the ancestors of those who today are known as "Indians"; then the (fair-skinned) inhabitants who had settled around the Black Sea; and the third were the Gypsies along the south of the Mediterranean Sea, who were called Hebrews. .
155. Through his guard-angels, IHWH ARUS subjected these races and forced them under his control.
156. As the highest ruler over them, he allowed himself to become venerated and adored.
157. He allowed them to venerate him above The Creation itself, and his sub-leaders as assistant creators.
158. He imposed harsh and severe laws demanding the blood of the guilty.
159. His son "JEHAV", who took over his dominion was little better for he too, as IHWH, demanded only blood and death from the three enslaved races.
160. The later descendants of these GODS became more humane and developed a degree of spirituality.
161. Their spiritual evolution changed their minds and they decided to leave the developments of the earth beings to their natural course, and retired to their home-world, so they left the Earth and returned as peaceful creatures to the Plejares, where their own mankind had reached advanced states.
162. United, we live together today and are an allied population in peace and liberty.
163. This is the essential that is important for Earth beings to know that the Plejaran visiting earth feel that they have vested interests here coming over from their own belligerent and often chaotic past, and, perceiving yet another atomic devastation by the scientists' new ascendancy, a legacy to us from their own history, seek to head it off if possible.

Semjase:

29. Your earthly chronology is not very accurate, and it is only halfway oriented towards the facts.
30. Even your own reckonings don't exactly match, though they are the most accurate which have ever been calculated by a human being on Earth.

31. Your calculations vary only by the small amount of around 200 years, whereas the calculations of your scientists and researchers reveal gaps of several thousand years.
32. A fact which you can recalculate at any time based on my data, which I will give to you here.
33. Many researchers on Earth have been trying from time immemorial to work out the exact time of the flood known to you from the Bible, but without any success worth mentioning.
34. According to the current Christian chronology, the flood took place exactly 10079 years ago. (10119 counted from 2015)
35. It was triggered by a global catastrophe of cosmic origin, as a gigantic comet threw the Earth out of its orbit and changed its orbital period and direction of rotation.
36. At the time a day on Earth amounted to more than 40 hours, and the sun did not rise from the east as it does today.
37. Such orbital period and rotation direction changes have stricken the Earth twice after the flood, but they have not brought such devastating disasters as the ones caused by the said flood.
38. The last catastrophe of this kind took place 3500 years ago, of which however, I will still speak later.
39. The flood of 10079 years ago (based on the year 1975) was caused by a gigantic comet, which has already caused immense damage, and which pulls through the Universe from time immemorial.
40. We call it the "Destroyer", and we know it has been racing through space for millions of years.
41. According to your chronology, this dangerous comet has an orbital period of 575,5 years, and on the year 2255 of your chronology it will once again pass very dangerously through the area of the Earth, if its course is not changed through any cosmic circumstances or by our planned efforts, or even destroyed by us.
42. The last passage of this comet took place 295 years ago (counting from 1975), and precisely on the year 1680.
43. 10079 years ago this gigantic comet, which was created through a natural cosmic catastrophe, came very close to the area of the Earth and almost destroyed it.
44. Only the knowledge and abilities of our ancestors, who had settled on Earth and generated their descendants here, prevented the dire end.
45. Even on the subsequent millennia the gigantic comet was always a great threat for the Earth - and it will still remain so until it is finally destroyed or diverted.
46. The last great catastrophe that came out of this comet took place around 3500 years ago, as I mentioned earlier.
47. To be precise it was 3453 years ago in your chronology.
48. Through this comet an event occurred which is very rare in the Universe, namely a planet transplantation:
49. Through the enormous power of this gigantic comet, on a planetary system very far from the SOL system, a planet on the first stages of developing life was thrown out of its orbit and sent out into space, on a parallel trajectory to the destructive giant comet.

50. For over 130 years this planet followed far behind the giant, only infinitely slowly deviating from this path.
51. Then, 3453 years ago, the Destroyer came into the Earth's solar system, and through its gigantic forces it forced the planetary orbits into disarray.
52. As it passed by the Earth, it wrapped it in its huge tail and shook it very hard.
53. Huge storms and volcanic eruptions were the result.
54. People and animals died in large masses, mountains were moved and the ocean depths changed.
55. On the Mediterranean sea, the magma walls of the Santorini volcano were torn down low and large quantities of water entered it.
56. This caused a huge disaster, because the volcano exploded as a result and destroyed the island.
57. The explosion produced a gigantic storm surge which grew to 2000 meters up in the sky, and swept across the sea like a primeval monster.
58. Everything was killed and crushed by it, and the water turned blood red.
59. In Egypt, this storm surge flooded vast areas and gave rise to all sorts of plagues, while the flood wave returned and raced northeastward across the sea, to the eastern shore of the sea in present-day Syria, to destroy wide areas and every port city.
60. The comet still shot through the Earth's solar system, round the sun and back into space, to return 575.5 years later.
61. The planet which, carried along, had slowly been following in its wake, and which had approximately the same size as the Earth, passed by it at a distance of around 600,000 kilometers, and was captured by the attraction of the sun.
62. Due to its gigantic force it forced the new planet into an orbit between its nearest satellites, namely between Mercury and Earth.
63. And since then, this "transplanted" and "foreign" planet has been known to the Earth people, who call it Venus.

The human named Jmmanuel

February 3rd, 2 B.C. to May 9th, 111 A.D.

The Discovery Of The Talmud

In 1963 a Swiss born man named Eduard Albert Meier, who the world now knows as 'Billy Meier', and his ex-Greek-Orthodox priest friend Isa Rashid took an afternoon walk along a roadway a little to the South of the Old City of Jerusalem. And during that afternoon walk Albert Meier happened to glance upwards and spied a small opening in the ground that took his interest.

Finding himself curious Albert Meier took a torch-light from his backpack and examined the opening, which was found to continue inwards. And so, Albert and his friend Isa Rashid dug out enough of the surrounding earth to allow them to gain entrance to some sort of chamber.

What they both found after crawling inside was an old tomb in a state of disrepair and half-filled with earth. However, after clearing more of the soil away Albert Meier and Isa Rashid discovered a package beneath a flat rock, which they took back to Isa Rashid's home to examine. The package was said to be about 60 cm long and 25 cm wide, and was found to hold four separate rolls of Aramaic writings which took the name of 'The Talmud Of Immanuel'.

Luckily Isa Rashid had some Palestinian background in his family, and so he found he could read the old Aramaic text. And the first thing that Isa Rashid noticed was that the title page showed that Judas Iscariot had authored this collection of Spiritual Knowledges on behalf of his Teacher and Guide who was named Immanuel¹. Isa Rashid also noted extra-terrestrial links within 'The Talmud', as it was made clear that that real father of the Biblical Adam was named Semjasa, who was a 'distant traveller' from the far reaches of Mankind's Universe, and an aid to 'El' [or 'God'].

It became very clear to both Isa Rashid and Albert Meier that this collection of Ancient Scrolls, much like 'The Book of Henoah' and other so-called 'apocryphal' writings, was going to be considered 'heretical' because of its content: which strongly contradicted the 'popular' Biblical teachings of the later-day Established Churches. Not only were extra-terrestrial links presented in 'The Talmud', but it was also made clear that ¹ Pronounced 'Immanuel'. And who the Established Churches later erroneously named 'Jesus'.

Judas Iscariot was actually the friend, student and official scribe/recorder of the Master Jmmanuel. The Scrolls also stated that Judas Iscariot never did spite his friend and teacher Jmmanuel in the run-up to the Biblical crucifixion event, as the real culprit of that venomous act was a man named Juda Ihariot, who was the son of Simeon, the Pharisee.

The Translation

Because of the nature of the revelations made clear in the teachings of 'The Talmud', Isa Rashid offered to translate the document in secret, in the hope that the finished version could be made available to the world. Also interestingly, and prophetically, Albert Meier had already been told seven years before co-discovering 'The Talmud Of Jmmanuel' that he was destined to become the man that would make it available to the world.

Anyway, Isa Rashid spent a few months checking the highlights of 'The Talmud' and imparting them to his friend Albert Meier. And then Isa Rashid began a formal translation in August 1963 into German [Albert Meier's native language], whilst Albert Meier continued onwards to Mehrauli India to train under a Hindu Guru and to further his own spiritual knowledges.

And after a year in India Albert Meier continued onwards ² and journeyed to Turkey, where he met a Greek lady named Kalliope Zafiriou in 1965. And who became his travelling companion in Asia, and later his wife and the mother of Albert's three children when they came to the town of Hinwil in Switzerland to make a home together.

Meanwhile Isa Rashid worked on the German translation of 'The Talmud Of Jmmanuel', which he completed up to the 36th Chapter, and which he posted in 1970 in two separate packages to an address in Switzerland that had been the home of Albert Meier's parents. Amazingly, although Albert Meier's parents were no longer living at that particular house, in 1974 the postal office at Neuthal ³ forwarded the two packets onto him. And in the same 'round-about' manner Albert Meier also received a personal letter from Isa Rashid that spoke about the translation project becoming 'known to certain authorities'⁴ which resulted in him fleeing from Jerusalem to a refugee camp in Lebanon along with his family. However, Isa Rashid's presence also became known to the Israeli authorities and the refugee camp was bombed during an Israeli air-raid⁵. And this air-raid forced Isa Rashid to flee again to Baghdad without The Scrolls, where he had posted his final letter to Albert Meier.

² During a twelve year spiritual quest Albert Meier had travelled to forty-two different countries.

³ Which was very close to the town of Hinwil where Albert Meier was living with Kalliope.

Sadly in 1976 Albert Meier learned that Isa Rashid and his entire family were assassinated in Baghdad shortly after posting that last letter.

Who Really Wrote The Talmud Of Jmmanuel?

Well, most the body of 'The Talmud' was penned by Jmmanuel's official 'scribe' Judas Iscarioth during the life and times leading up to, and following, the crucifixion event.

Though to trace the point when 'The Talmud' was originally finalised, we will need to examine what some people believe to be more controversial aspects of the Master Jmmanuel's life, which takes our investigation to the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, and then onwards into India.

And here comes some more of the so-called 'apocrypha', in that 'The Talmud Of Jmmanuel' makes it very clear that the Master Jmmanuel ['Jesus'] never did die on The Cross. He only ever fell into a trance-like condition, due to the Arch-Angel Gabriel twinning with Jmmanuel's body to induce a death-like stupor. And inside the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, Jmmanuel was revived by a team of Hindu healers before He set off to India to continue with His Teachings.

In-fact it is believed by many scholars that the full story was only ever completed in India in the early second century. Also, there is a great deal of evidence stating that after Jmmanuel's genuine death in the Kashmir region in early 2nd century, that 'The Scrolls' were carried back to the Palestinian or Anatolian region by Jmmanuel's oldest son Joseph. And Joseph evidently released a second copy of 'The Teachings' somewhere in that region, since that copy found its way into the hands of the apostle Matthew⁶.

⁴ In the letter Isa Rashid sent, he stated that he had been 'persecuted by two different groups, both Christians and Jews, which was to be anticipated, because the rolls are not favourable towards either religion'. The letter was headed 'Baghdad, September 14.9.1974'.

⁵ There was a series of raids during June 18-20, in 1974. These were Israeli air raids upon several refugee camps in South-West Lebanon, 'reported' to be in retaliation for a guerrilla incursion into Chamir in Northern Israel on June 13th. It is believed that the June 18th raid was designed to eliminate 'The Scrolls', and that the raids upon the several other refugee camps on the following two days [June 19-20] were intended to divert attention away from the real reason for the first raid.

However, Joseph also preserved and hid the original Rolls within the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, just south of the Old City of Jerusalem. And there they lay until Albert Meier and Isa Rashid re-discovered them in 1963.

Let's also be aware that it is made clear in 'The Talmud' that 'The Teachings' were originally written down by Judas Iscariot who travelled with Jmmanuel to India after the crucifixion, along with Judas-Thomas [Jmmanuel's brother] and Mother Mary.

And so, to answer my original question which was centred around "who wrote The Talmud", what we find is that it was mostly written by Judas who was present at all of Jmmanuel's lectures both before the crucifixion event, and after Jmmanuel travelled and taught in India. Though it also seems very clear to me that Jmmanuel's oldest son Joseph added the 'final touches' to the pages, and also made at least one other copy which became known as 'The Book Of Mathew'.

THE TALMUD OF JMMANUEL

Chapter 1 - The Genealogy of Jmmanuel

1. This is the book and arcanum of Jmmanuel, who is called "the one with godly knowledge" who is the son of Joseph, grandson of Jacob, a distant descendant of David. David was a descendant of Abram [Abraham], whose genealogy traces back to Adam, the father of a lineage of terrestrial humans.

Adam was begotten by Semjasa, the leader of the celestial sons who were the guardian angels of god, the great ruler of the travellers from afar⁷.

2. Semjasa, the celestial son and guardian angel of god, the great ruler of the voyagers who travelled here through vast expanses of the universe, took a terrestrial woman and begot Adam, the father of the white human population.

3. Adam took for himself an Earth wife and begot Seth.

4. Seth begot Enos.

5. Enos begot Akjbeel.

6. Akjbeel begot Aruseak.

7. Aruseak begot Kenan.

8. Kenan begot Mahalaleel.

9. Mahalaleel begot Urakjbameel.

10. Urakjbameel begot Jared.

11. Jared begot Henoah.

12. Henoah begot Methusalah.

13. Methusalah begot Lamech.

⁷ The title "god" is not capitalized unless it refers to the Judeo-Christian God [The Talmud Of Jmmanuel].

81. Joseph was the husband of Mary, the mother of Immanuel, who was impregnated by a distant descendant of the celestial son, Rasiel, who was the guardian angel of the secret.

82. When Joseph heard of Mary's secret impregnation by a descendant of the celestial sons from the lineage of Rasiel, behold, he was filled with wrath and thought of leaving Mary before he would be married to her before the people.

83. While Joseph was thinking in this manner, behold, a guardian angel, sent by Gabriel, the celestial son who had impregnated Mary, appeared and said:

84. "Joseph, Mary is betrothed to you, and you are to become her spouse; do not leave her, because the fruit of her womb is chosen for a great purpose. Marry her in all openness, so that you may be husband and wife before the people.

85. "Behold, the impregnation of Mary occurred eleven thousand years after the procreation of Adam through the celestial son Semjasa, to fulfil the word of god, the ruler of those who travelled from afar, who conveyed these words through the prophet Isaiah:

86. "Behold, a virgin will be impregnated by a celestial son before she is married to a man before the people.

87. "They will name the fruit of her womb Immanuel, which translated means 'the one with godly knowledge,' as a symbol and honour to god. Through god's power and providential care the Earth was made to bear intelligent human life when the celestial sons, the travellers from the far reaches of the universe, mated with the women of Earth.

88. "Behold, god and his followers came far from the depths of space, where they delivered themselves from a strong bondage, and created here a new human race and home with the early women of this Earth.

Chapter 3 - John The Baptist

1. In due course, John the Baptist came to the edge of the wilderness and preached at the banks of the Jordan.
2. John the Baptist preached of baptism in accordance with the old laws of god, according to which the way to knowledge was to be prepared.
3. He preached that god's laws shall be followed because he is the sole ruler of this human lineage.
4. He preached that above god, however, stands Creation, the source of the worlds, universes and all living creatures.
5. And so he taught that the genderless Creation is the mystery of all mysteries; death and life, light and darkness, being and non-being.
6. And so he taught once again that god, the lord and ruler of this human lineage and of those who travelled from afar, the celestial sons, holds Creation in high esteem.

29. So John consented and baptized him.
30. When Immanuel had been baptized, he soon came out of the water of the Jordan, and behold, a metallic light fell from the sky and rushed over the Jordan.
31. Consequently they all fell on their faces and pressed them into the sand while a voice from the metallic light spoke:

32. "This is my beloved son with whom I am well pleased. He will be the king of truth, through which terrestrial humans shall rise as wise ones.

33. Behold, after these words Jmmanuel entered into the metallic light, which climbed into the sky, surrounded by fire and smoke, and passed over the lifeless sea, as the singing of the metallic light soon faded away.

34. After that, Jmmanuel was no longer seen for forty days and nights.

Chapter 4 - Jmmanuel's Arcanum

1. From this day on, Jmmanuel no longer lived among the sons and daughters of these Earth humans.
2. Jmmanuel was lifted up from the Earth, and no one knew where he had been taken or what had happened to him.
3. But then he was set down by the metallic light between North and West, in a place where the guardian angels had received guidelines by which they were to evaluate the site for the chosen ones.
4. Thus, he lived for forty days and nights between the winds of the North and the West, where he received the arcanum of knowledge.
5. During this instruction period he spent his days with the wise saints of god and the guardian angels, the celestial sons.
6. They taught him the wisdom of knowledge.
7. They taught him about the dominion of god over terrestrial humans and over his celestial sons.
8. They also explained to him the omnipotence of the Creation of the universes.
9. They also taught him about the immortality of the spirit through rebirth.
10. There he saw the initial forefathers, the saints of ancient times, who were the celestial sons and the fathers of the terrestrial humans.

37. "You will be misunderstood and denounced, because Earth humans are still ignorant and addicted to delusionary beliefs.

38. "They believe that god is Creation itself and not the ruler of the celestial sons and these human lineages.

39. "Earth people attribute to him the omnipotence of Creation and glorify him as Creation itself.

40. "But god is a human being, like all the celestial sons and the terrestrial humans, except that he is vastly greater in consciousness than they are.

41. "Creation, however, is of immeasurably higher standing than god, the lord over the celestial sons and terrestrial humans, because Creation is the immeasurable enigma.

42. "Immanuel, you will also be slandered as god and as his only begotten son, and you, too, will be equated with the mysterious Creation.

43. "Do not heed these false teachings, however, because millennia will pass before the people of these human lineages are capable of recognizing the truth.

44. "Much human blood will be shed because of you, including your own and that of countless generations.

45. "Notwithstanding, fulfil your mission as the king of wisdom, as the son of Gabriel, the celestial son.

48. "Hence, following the fulfilment of your mission, centuries and two millennia will pass before the truth of the knowledge you brought to the people will be recognized and disseminated by a few humans.

49. "Not until the time of space-travelling machines will the truth break through and gradually shake the false teachings that you are the son of god or Creation.

50. "And this will be the time when we celestial sons begin to reveal ourselves anew to Earth humans, when they will have become knowing and will threaten the structure of the heavens with their acquired power."

51. Thus they spoke, the celestial sons between the North and the West, before bringing Jmmanuel in the metallic light back to Israel, to the land of Galilee.

- 8. "If you do not know how to pray directly to the almighty power of the spirit, make use of something sacred by which you can reach the spirit.
- 9. "But be never like the ignorant, the hypocrites, the idol worshippers and the selfish, who worship something sacred in the belief that the omnipotence of the spirit dwells in it.
- 10. "Be aware, however, that the almighty power of the spirit always dwells within you regardless of your usage of a sacred object or place.
- 11. "Therefore pray as one who knows; thus you should pray as follows:
- 12. "'My spirit, you exist within omnipotence.
- 13. "'May your name be holy.
- 14. "'May your kingdom incarnate itself within me.
- 15. "'May your power unfold itself within me, on Earth and in the heavens.
- 16. "'Give me today my daily bread, that I may recognize my wrongdoings and the truth.
- 17. "'And lead me not into temptation and confusion, but deliver me from error.
- 18. "'For yours is the kingdom within me and the power and the knowledge forever. Amen.

8. However, at the same time it transpired that the writings, in which Judas Iscariot had reported on the teachings of Immanuel, were stolen from him. So he told Immanuel about it.

9. But he spoke, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Judas Iscariot, you will have to suffer even greater evils than the mere loss of your writings about my teachings and my life.

10. "For over two thousand years you will be wrongly accused of betraying me, because Simeon the Pharisee wants it so.

11. "But his son, Juda Iscariot, is the real culprit; like his father, Simeon Iscariot, he is a Pharisee who seeks my life.

12. "It is he who stole the writings from you and brought them to the scribes and Pharisees, so they could thereby judge me and put me to death.

13. "He received seventy pieces of silver for your writings and will receive another thirty when he makes it possible to hand me over to the executors.

14. "Truly, I say to you, he will certainly succeed in this, and for two times a thousand years you will innocently have to pay the penalty for it; consequently you will become a martyr.

15. "But write down my teachings and my life story another time, for the time will come, in two times a thousand years, when your writings will be revealed.

42. "The spirit of a person is not a human product but is a part of Creation given to humans. It must be made knowledgeable and perfected,

43. "so that it proceeds to become one with Creation, since Creation, too, lives in constant growth.

44. "Creation is timeless, and so is the human spirit.

45. "The teaching of this knowledge is extensive and not simple, but it is the way to life that is diverse in its nature.

46. "The human life is destined for perfection of the spirit, in order that life be lived in fulfilment thereof.

47. "Even when humans burden themselves with mistakes, they act according to a law of Creation, because they learn from them and gather insight and knowledge, whereby they develop their spirits, and through their spirits' strength they are able to act.

48. "Without making mistakes it is impossible, therefore, to gather the logic, insight, knowledge, love and wisdom necessary to develop the spirit.

49. "Truly, I say to you, the teachings of the chief priests, Pharisees and scribes are erroneous and false when they tell you that a mistake would be punished by god or Creation when, in fact, the mistake serves the insight and knowledge, and hence the progress, of the spirit.

50. "Therefore there is no punishable mistake, if it serves the insight, knowledge and progress of the spirit; likewise, there is no inheritable mistake or punishment in this world or another world.

31. But when the Pharisees heard that Jmmanuel had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered and deliberated.

32. And one among them, a scribe, tested him by asking, Jmmanuel, which is the foremost commandment in the law?"

33. Jmmanuel asked in return, "Whose law are you thinking of, the law of the emperor, or are you thinking of the law of god, or are you thinking of the law of Creation?"

34. The scribe said, "I am thinking of the laws of all three."

35. But Jmmanuel said, "The highest directive in the law of Creation is this: Achieve the wisdom of knowledge, so that you may wisely follow the laws of Creation.

36. "But the highest commandment of the law of god is this: You shall honour god as the ruler of the three human lineages and obey his laws, for he is their king of wisdom and a good and just counselor.

37. "And the highest command of the laws of the emperor is this: You shall be obedient to the emperor, follow his laws and give to him the tithe, because he is the ruler over the people and their guardian and protector

38. "These are the foremost and greatest commandments in the laws of the three, as applied to their categories.

39. "But the other directive, equal to the first, is this: You shall consider only Creation as omnipotent, for it alone is constant in all things and therein is timeless.

3. "The Israelite people trespass against life and the truth, and they built this city on human blood. These people are divided into Israelites, who call themselves sons and daughters of Zion, with whom I do not identify, and who want to kill me, and Jews, who are misled believers of their religious cult, and to whom I bring the teachings of truth, as I do to all Earth humans.

4. "The Israelites have ravaged this land through plunder and murder, they have killed their friends with whom they had drunk wine, and they have deceived and misled their fellow believers of the Jewish cult, who are truly not Israelites but merely believers in a cult.

5. "Thus the Israelites betrayed their own friends and murdered them because of their greed, but it shall likewise be done to them by the rightful owners of this land whom they have deprived of their rights and subjugated since ancient times."

6. And when he sat on the Mount of Olives his disciples came up to him and said, "Tell us, when will this take place, and what will be the sign?"

7. And Immanuel answered, saying, "Two thousand and more years will pass, but meanwhile Israel will never find peace because wars and many calamities will threaten the unlawful occupants of this land; but see to it that nobody leads you astray.

8. "That is, many deceivers and false prophets will come in my name and say, 'I am Immanuel, and I am the sign of the time,' and they will mislead many.

9. "People will hear about wars and threats of war, and they are to witness this but not be frightened because it must transpire; but it will not yet be the end.

29. "They will construct machines of metal for use in the air, on the water and on land, and will bring about mutual destruction.

30. "From these machines of metal they will fling heavy projectiles across the land and upon the cities.

31. "Fire will burst from these projectiles and burn the world; and little will be spared.

32. "They will place the basic elements of life and deadly air into the projectiles to kindle the deadly fires and destroy land and life.

33. "If at that time mighty nations were not to intervene, as once did the celestial sons, to bring a halt to the unrestrained madness and deadly conduct of demented dictators, truly, I tell you, no human being would survive.

34. "Since the human populations will consist of far more than ten times five hundred million people at that time, great segments of them will be eradicated and killed.

35. "This is what the law ordains, because people have violated it and will continue to violate it into the distant future.

36. "If at that time someone will tell the people, 'Behold, here is Immanuel who is the sign of the time,' they should not accept it as the truth,

37. "for many a false Immanuel and many deceivers and false prophets will come forth and perform great signs and miracles, so that it will become possible to lead astray not only the seekers, believers and errant ones, but also the scholars and knowledgeable people.

The Last Supper

34. On the first day of the Unleavened Bread, Jmmanuel spoke to his disciples, "Go forth into the city to a good friend of mine named Aaron and tell him, 'Jmmanuel says to you: I want to have a last meal with my disciples at your house, for behold, the Feast of the Passover is near.'"

35. And the disciples did as Jmmanuel had ordered them; and they prepared the meal, together with Aaron and his wife, in their house.

36. When they sat down and were eating, he said, "Behold, the time is near when I must take my heavy burden upon myself.

37. "To be sure, I am going along my destined path as it is written by the prophets; however, I will only be near death and bear much pain, so you must not fear and not worry about me.

38. "Truly, I say to you, from now on I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vineyard nor eat the grain of the bread until the day I drink and eat again with you after my ordeal.

39. "So shall it be when I have risen from near death and so have then lain in the tomb for three days and three nights."

52. And Immanuel replied, "As you say, but I also say to you that god is not Creation; instead he is lord over the three human lineages that were begotten on Earth through his will;

53. "god has come from the vastness of the universe and has brought the world under his will; therefore he is the supreme emperor of these three human populations.

54. "One of them is here in this country, which you have deprived of its rights and subjugated; another is in the east as far as the land of India, and the third is in the north from the land of the king with horns to the sea where icy mountains drift in the water.

55. "There are seven human lineages living in all the directions of the wind, from one end of the Earth to the other;

56. "god is lord over them also, although they serve other gods who also are not of this Earth.

57. "If you consider god to be Creation, you are mistaken and commit a sacrilege against the truth.

58. "Just as you are human like I am, so god is human, except that in spirit and consciousness he is very much more advanced than the human lineages procreated by him;

59. "god and his celestial sons are other human lineages who have come from the stars out of the depths of space in their machines of metal.

60. "Creation stands immeasurably higher than god and his celestial sons, who are the guardian angels.

61. "Creation alone is the incalculable mystery that begets life and, thus, stands immeasurably far above god and indeed all life.

62. "Recognize the truth of this teaching, so that you may attain knowledge and wisdom in truth:'

63. Thereupon Caiaphas, the high priest, rent his clothes and spoke with rage, "He has blasphemed God, the Creator. Why should we need further testimony against him? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy for yourselves.

64. "What punishment do you think he deserves?"

65. They answered, saying, "He deserves death."

66. Then they beat him with their fists and spat in his face.

67. And some of them struck him from behind and said, "Prophecy, you great king of wisdom and son of a celestial son, who is it that's beating you?"

20. Pilate inquired once again, saying, "Let us hear your wisdom, for your teachings are new to me.

21. Immanuel spoke, "Behold, aeons ago, I returned from the realm of a higher world in order to fulfil a difficult task; and now I was begotten by a celestial son to be a prophet in this life. This came to pass according to destiny and the desire of god, the ruler over the three lineages of terrestrial humans procreated by him.

22. "Through his kindness, I have added to my knowledge in this incarnation by gaining great insight and learning true wisdom, which was imparted to me by his teachers over a period of forty days and forty nights.

23. "Furthermore, I have travelled extensively to faraway places and lived for many years in the land of India. There I was taught much knowledge and many secrets by the great wise and knowledgeable men who are known as masters.

24. "When I have fulfilled my mission here, I will return there with Thomas, my brother, who is a faithful disciple of mine.

25. When they heard Immanuel's speech, the elders and chief priests became very agitated and shouted in front of Pilate, "Do you hear his blasphemy?"

26. Thereupon Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear how harshly they accuse you? Don't you wish to justify yourself?"

27. Immanuel answered him, saying, "Behold, I will carry my burden as it is destined.

10. "And the time will come in five times a hundred years when you will have to atone for this, when the legitimate owners of the land, whom you have enslaved and deprived of their rights, will begin to rise up against you and fight against you on into the distant future.

11. "A new man will arise in this land as a prophet, and he will legally and rightfully condemn and persecute you, and you shall pay with your blood.

12. "This man will establish a new religious cult specifically for the forceful preservation of the truthful teachings and will have himself recognized as a prophet. Through these actions he will persecute you for all times.

13. "Although according to your claim he will be a false prophet, just as you slanderously claim of me, he will bring you new teachings that will seem false to you. Nonetheless, he will be a true prophet, and he will have great power. He will have your people persecuted for all times.

14. "His name will be Mohammed, and his name will bring horror, misery and death to your kind, just as you deserve.

15. "Truly, truly, I say to you, his name will be written for you in blood, and because of your offences the hatred against your people will be endless.

16. "In this way, he will be a true prophet, even though you will claim him to be a false one, and he will bring you teachings that will in part seem confusing and unintelligible to you. His emerging religious cult will eventually end when his and your followers lay the foundation for a bloody conclusion. His teachings, too, will be distorted and falsified, and will result in an evil and confused religious cult."

48. Then his head fell forward, he slipped into a state of near-death, and they presumed he was dead.

49. It came to pass that a soldier took his lance and stabbed Jmmanuel in his loin to ensure that he was dead.

50. Blood mixed with water flowed from the wound as is the case when a person is dead or in a near-death state.

51. Thus the soldier thought Jmmanuel was dead, and he informed the others.

52. They were all astonished, because it was unusual for the crucified to die so quickly.

53. But since the soldier had told them so, they believed him and departed.

54. Among them were also many women and others who watched from a distance, because they were followers of Jmmanuel; they had served him and followed him from Galilee.

55. Among them were Jmmanuel's mother, Mary, and Mary Magdalene, and others.

56. Once the people had departed, they went to him, knelt before the cross and wept bitterly because they, too, thought Jmmanuel was dead.

57. Also among them, however, was Joseph of Arimathea, a follower of Jmmanuel.

58. After a short while he noticed that Jmmanuel was not quite dead, but he told no one.

62. Joseph of Arimathea then carried the body of Jmmanuel all the way as far as Jerusalem and placed it outside the city into his own tomb, which he had arranged to be cut into a rock for his future burial.

63. And he rolled a large stone in front of the door of the tomb and went to obtain medicine so he could take care of Jmmanuel.

64. The entrance of the tomb was guarded by soldiers and Jmmanuel's mother so no one could enter and steal the body.

65. Joseph of Arimathea, however, sought out Jmmanuel's friends from India and returned with them to the tomb. There they entered through a secret second entrance unknown to the henchmen and soldiers, and for three days and three nights they nursed him. Soon he was in better health and again with good strength.

66. The tomb was being guarded on the other side by the soldiers because the chief priests and Pharisees had gone to Pilate and said,

67. "Sir, we have considered that when this crazy man was still alive, he said to the people, 'I shall return after three days and three nights and rise, because I will only be in a state of near-death.'

68. "But since it was established through a soldier that he was really dead, his tomb should be guarded so that no one can come, steal the body and say, 'Behold, he has risen from the dead after all!'

69. "Command therefore that the tomb be guarded up to the third day so that the last deception may not be worse than the first."

70. And Pilate said to them, "Take my soldiers as guardians. Co and guard the tomb as best you can."

71. And they departed, guarded the tomb, and secured the stone in front of the door with a seal.

72. However, they did not realize the secret of the grave, namely, that it had two exits or entrances, Jmmanuel's helpers, therefore, could go to him to apply healing salves and herbs without being detected. On the third day he was once again strong enough to walk.

Chapter 32 - Jmmanuel's Farewell

1. They went to the mountain to which Jmmanuel had directed them.
2. When they were gathered there, he said to them, "Behold, I will speak to you one last time; then I will leave and never return.
3. "My path leads me to the land of India where many of this human lineage also dwell, because they have left this land to live there.
4. "My mission leads me to them and to the human population that is born there.
5. "My path there will be long, for I have yet to bring my teachings, new and old, to many countries, and likewise to the shores of the great black waters to the north of here.
6. "But before I leave you, I will give you my final lessons of the teachings:
7. "If humans live according to the laws of Creation, they live correctly in truth. But the ultimate goal should be this:
8. "Everything human within human beings must die, but everything of Creation within them must rise and embrace Creation.
9. "Consider the universe as the place where Creation lives in infinity.
10. "Everything humans possess has its origin in Creation; therefore it belongs to Creation.
11. "Human beings shall transform their entire spiritual lives and perfect them, so that they will become one with Creation.

37. "Humans may be great, wise and good, yet this is not sufficient, for they can always become greater, wiser and better.

38. "There may be no limits to love, peace and joy, because the present state must always be exceeded.

39. "Truly, I say to you, a love that is unlimited, constant and unfailing is unconditional and is a pure love, in whose fire all that is impure and evil will burn.

40. "Such a love is Creation's love and, therefore its laws as well, to which humanity has been predestined since the beginning of time.

41. "Since this is the ultimate destination for human beings, they must take steps to guarantee that this will come to be, for this is their destiny.

42. "But as yet humans do not understand the wisdom of this teaching, and therefore it is being adulterated everywhere on Earth.

43. "In their ignorance, humans are falsifying the teachings in many ways and forms, so that they are becoming diffused and unintelligible.

44. "But in two times a thousand years they shall be taught anew without falsification, when humans become sensible and knowledgeable, and a new age heralds great upheavals.

45. "And it can be read in the stars that the people of the new age will be great revolutionaries. Thus, some special predestined people, who will be the new proclaimers of my teachings, will preach them unfalsified and with great courage.

46. "But you, go therefore and prepare the way for my teachings and make all peoples their disciples.

47. "However, beware of false teachings, which you may allow to arise because of your lack of judgment, for some of you are inclined that way.

48. "Teach them to follow everything I have commanded you, so you do not falsify my teachings."

49. And it came to pass, that while he was speaking to them in this manner, a thundering came from the sky, and a great light descended.

50. The light settled on the ground not far from them, and it glittered like metal in the sunlight.

51. Immanuel spoke no more, but went to the metallic light and entered into it.

52. Then, however, a haze arose all around it. Once again a thundering began and the light ascended back into the sky.

53. And the disciples returned to Jerusalem in secret and made known the events among their own kind.

22. "Humans will want to control their lives by external means, because they will have forgotten to be aware of their own essence from the Creational point of view.

23. "Through deceitful means they will delude, cheat and exploit their fellow humans and the entire world.

24. "And wherever trust and truth still exist, they will change it into distrust and untruth, and in so doing they will get farther and farther away from the true life.

25. "Thus, they will also lose sight of the principle of the oldest wisdom, which states that humans are the measure of all things in life because they are, after all, a part of Creation.

26. "But the time will come when humankind must turn around and become reacquainted with the eternal values of life.

27. "Initially only a few will know that humans live not only on Earth but also in the endless expanse of the universe, and that they live not only in the material world but their spirits reach into another world that can not be grasped by the ordinary physical senses.

28. "This other one, the ethereal world, is the true home of the spirit. Therefore, humans should try without ceasing to broaden and deepen their knowledge, love, truth, logic, true freedom, genuine peace, harmony and wisdom, so that the spirit may be perfected and lifted up into its true home, becoming one with Creation.

29. "Truly, I say to you, those who understand the truth of this message and attain insight through wisdom, will awaken to the obligation of aligning their lives with their destiny of eternal change toward Creation.

What happened after the crucifixion event was that Jmmanuel, His mother Mary, and His bother Thomas travelled to Northern India. And to make the most out of the journey Jmmanuel stopped at many countries along the way to preach to anyone that would listen. In-fact because of all the stopping and preaching, it took Jmmanuel, Mary and Thomas several years to arrive in India.

The journey to India was arduous, as we are told that Jmmanuel's mother, Mary, became ill and died in the Western Himalaya during Jmmanuel's 38th year. Though Jmmanuel continued onwards and travelled to what is now known as India's Kashmir region, where He furthered His Teachings. In-fact Jmmanuel visited many parts of India, including West Pakistan, and Northern India.

In His 45th year Jmmanuel married, and it is said He bore numerous children when He settled down in Srinagar in the Kashmir region of India. And from this base he ventured out upon numerous trips to further His teachings.

It is said that Jmmanuel died of natural causes somewhere between His 110th and His 115th year, and that He was buried in Srinagar.

It is also said that Judas Iscariot was also buried near to Srinagar in his 90th year.

Now, after Jmmanuel's natural death, His oldest son Joseph finalised the account of His Father's Teachings which Judas had begun. And when the full version was finished Joseph left India and spent three years journeying back to Jerusalem where he died, after placing the original Rolls penned by Judas back into the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea. And also, it seems, after Joseph also released a copy of his own finalised version which found it's way into the hands of the apostle Mathew. So the original Scrolls penned by Judas remained in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathea until they were re-discovered by Isa Rashid and Albert Meier in 1963.

Degeneration of Human Progress

111 A.D. to Present (2015)

“Truly, many of you belong to the majority of your humankind who fritter away your life and lead no real and truthful life on Earth, nor do those amongst you who believe to live in the present but have a completely wrong understanding of it.”

Billy

Around 22 years have now passed since you and Quetzal told me privately that you had comprehensive cognitions in regard to terrestrial UFOs and the massacre of animals and alleged abductions which were disguised as the shoddy efforts of extraterrestrials.

You said thereby that, in regard to this, involved in these machinations are governments, the military, as well as industrial businesses and powerful ones of finance, which constitute a special group, to which still smaller groups are also related.

At that time you promised that you would officially explain more about that when the time is ripe for that.

Can one now speak publicly about that?

Ptaah

Yes, that was said.

And the time is also ripe for that.

- With the named group, it concerns a worldwide branching from governments, the military, industrial groups, secret services, paramilitary and powerful ones of finance, as you correctly said.

Those in the know and contributors are only certain elements of the same, who profit greatly, financially and power-politically, from their secret machinations, for which reason the entire powers of the government, military and industrial as well as finance are not involved in the situation and are also not informed in regard to this.

The group is not organized, as such, rather is only a loose collection, whereby their interests, however, have a common form, which, already since the 1920s, was designed to operate a continuous, ingenious, large-scale disinformation campaign regarding the question of extraterrestrial life.

The group, which is split into many small groups, has many kinds of technical possibilities at their disposal, which they employ for their evil and human-misleading purposes.

That started with technologies of electromagnetism to do with precision electronics and computer engineering, up to and including apparatuses through which brainwashing and the programming and altering of consciousness is evoked in humans.

They even have back-engineered beamships at their disposal, whereby, in certain contexts, even antigravity finds application.

It has also occurred many times that premeditated “abductions” of Earth humans by “extraterrestrials”, and the massacre of animals, has been and is faked by this group.

That stands partly also in connection with those illusionary and schizophrenic visions and apparent experiences of those who believe that they have had, or have, these kinds of real experiences.

Also wrong information and falsified pictures of alleged extraterrestrial flying devices is strategically circulated worldwide, whereby according to our investigations, about 98% of all false pictures, films, videos and false information is directed at moving the Earth humans to angst and terror of extraterrestrials and to engender hate and thoughts of revenge in the Earth humans.

Therefore, in this way, angst, terror and hate is stirred up against all life foreign to Earth.

Especially films for cinema and television serve this purpose, as also, however, do many books which are constructed on lies and untruths and are written partly by “experts” in psychology and psychiatry.

All this nonsense sells very well to the Earth humans because many on the search for the effective truth trust and believe this false information, and these films and pictures.

Angst, horror, terror, hate and revenge always sell well, while the truth appears too banal and therefore appears uninteresting as well as not worth knowing.

Only the fantastic and unreal find a place in the interests of Earth humans.

However, precisely that is the launching platform for the infamous machinations of the worldwide group, because, through disinformation and fear-mongering in regard to the malicious foreigners to Earth, the entire group, which reaches right around the world, derives horrendous advantages of a financial, governmental-power, military-power as well as an economic form.

The entire war, electronics and weapons industries, and so forth, thereby gain an enormous boost.

Yet, in the worldwide group, secret paramilitary units also exist as smaller groups which carry out the same kind of operations which, however, are mostly controlled by the worldwide group.

In particular, these small groups carry out premeditated abductions which are credited ostensibly to the extraterrestrials, as well as, however, also simulated appearances of alleged extraterrestrial flying craft, which are then collectively declared to be extraterrestrial UFO appearances and are often observed, photographed and filmed by many people.

Thereby the illusion of an ostensible extraterrestrial abduction or observation of extraterrestrial flying devices is evoked.

What is further to say about that is that, in this worldwide group, with all the small groups who partly also work autonomously, there exists a proper “UFO trade” and a subculture in regard to animal massacres and abductions and so forth.

The entire thing is secretly financed through governments, the military, industrial groups and financially powerful ones who are interested in angst, terror and hate being stirred-up to their highest forms in regard to the alleged evil extraterrestrial foreigners, because they can thereby gain gigantic financial profit and advantage.

It is on this basis that, in every regard, from this group, only stories, cinema and television films and observations of UFOs will be accepted and profitably exploited, which are based on everything negative and – as is becoming proverbial with the Earth humans – on the malicious and aggressive nature of the extraterrestrials.

Only that which evokes angst, fear and terror as well as engenders hate and revenge is accepted by the group and exploited worldwide in order to obtain enormous profit with it.

Conversely, in addition to that, everything which is good and positive is vehemently slandered and is designated as a swindle, lie and deception, as is the case with you and us, since, in keeping with the interests of the group, we are not permitted to exist, and you are not permitted to be in contact with us, rather you must be a liar and a fraud.

So, from the group and their small groups, the Earth humans will be served up deliberately false and fear-influencing stories in regard to extraterrestrial UFOs and foreigners to Earth and their alleged horrifying machinations like, for example, painful examination contacts and animal massacres along with falsified encounters with alleged extraterrestrials.

Along with profit, the whole matter also serves deeply-based psychological propaganda in order to insult forms of life who are foreign to Earth and to brand them as malicious beings and to create angst, hate, revenge and hysteria because great financial means will be thereby freed up which serve research for the production of innovative and futuristic weapons of all kinds.

Therefore, in these Earth humans, in regard to the extraterrestrial, an enemy will be psychologically, deliberately created which does not exist and which will, in a manner, be made into a malicious being such that the Earth humans, in their angst, will be driven to freeing up horrendous sums in order to therewith manufacture weapons against the alleged malicious invaders.

Also, with these acts, various groups play off against each other, which, however, is part of a well-thought-out plan which is carried out and implemented by secret services, psycho-terrorists, espionage groups and treacherous disinformation agents and which is underpinned by false information regarding UFOs and alleged extraterrestrials.

Additionally belonging to this plan is the invention of an imaginary extraterrestrial enemy, as well as a danger emerging from this – an enemy and a danger which, naturally, will have to be fought.

The infamy is thereby that, first of all, everything is made ridiculous because the concerned “abductees”, “examinees”, “chance contactees” and UFO-observers can provide no evidence for their experiences which would withstand a real examination.

Then comes the second fact, which exists in the fact that angst, terror, hate and feelings of revenge is produced in the Earth humans whereby then the weapons industry can be built up and indeed especially in regard to futuristic weapons, of which the normal Earth humans have no idea, and of which they do not ever dare to dream.

The entirety is thereby a well-thought-out psychological network on which the progress of the entire weapons industry and the power of the military, of the federal leadership, the finance sharks and the industry businesses as well as the secret services can be built up ever further.

To this end angst, terror, hysteria, hate and revenge is sown in regard to all foreigners from outer space.

So the Earth humans become duped and financially exploited by the responsible ones of this dangerous group and their small groups and are deliberately driven to abhor and to hate the extraterrestrial foreigners.

Corresponding cinema and television films serve as especially suitable means for that.

The foreigner-angst, respectively, alien-angst, which is thereby produced surpasses all normal angst and the responsible ones of the group know that precisely, for which reason they can also thereby calculate that all necessary finances flow to them, which they require for their weapon research, their weapon manufacture, their leading of wars, and desires for power, as well as for unrealistic cinema and TV films which demonize the Earth-strangers.

The creation of a supposed threat from extraterrestrials as well as the alien-angst is, for them, a profitable matter which is operated under the shabby cloak of a federal, respectively, country security and of world peace.

For the entire machinations of the group, the meanest machinations are quite good enough which, as said, were already operating since the 1920s and to that also belong highly developed electronic weapons systems, futuristic flying discs, Earth humans who are hypnotically and surgically converted, as well as converted in their consciousness, to robots*, whereby some have an appearance like the being which is called the “Little Gray”.

On one hand there is the dim-witted paradox that the extraterrestrial flying devices are denied and the strangers to Earth are made ridiculous or made out to be monsters by means of psychological propaganda, while, on the other hand, a financial exploitation of the peoples results through the inciting of angst, terror, hate and revenge and indeed thereby in that a simulation results in regard to a supposed threat from extraterrestrials.

A paradox without compare, to which the question must be put, how far are the Earth humans imbued with reason and understanding that they do not recognize this paradox?

The entire pre-arranged game of the group and their small groups, as already said elsewhere, also includes faked encounters with alleged extraterrestrials, whereby these are truly nothing other than normal Earth humans or those who have been transformed into “aliens”.

In order then to affirm the improvised “encounters with those foreign to Earth” psychologists and other experts are pulled in into whom the wildest stories are hammered for so long until they believe the entire swindle and nonsense and employ “verifiable” and “genuine” analyses which are recorded and published in books and documentation as well as in cinema and TV films.

And since, as a rule, the supposed extraterrestrials are described as horrible villains, just according to the plan of the group and their small groups, the picture of the extraterrestrial threat is powerfully incited.

Thereby, not only is the slandering in regard to the real strangers to Earth always more exaggerated, as also more and more finances flow into the cash box of those who stupidly and dimwittedly earn as a result of the entire tissue of lies and slander and thereby come by the means to reach their criminal goals.

A certain part of the group has also fallen to a Christian sectarianism and to the supposed “End Times” in such a way that hope is directed at a malicious invasion of extraterrestrials resulting on Earth, and thereby the prophesied Armageddon will become reality in which Jesus Christ celebrates his official return and God the father will exercise his judgment.

Their delusion is therefore bound with a biblical end of the world, which, as they believe, rests on the terrible badness of the Earth humans.

And in order to accelerate this divine judgment as well as the return of Christ they do everything in order to make the way free for that.

The monstrous power of the worldwide group and their small groups as well as the religious fanaticism, together with the cultic maintaining of the secret of the entire underhanded, degenerated and deceptive as well as criminal and felonious machinations, lead to malignant effects which could not be worse.

These are the facts which I have to name in regard to your question.

Billy

From your words it comes forth that that is also still so today.

Ptaah

Yes, that is really so, and it will also still remain so in the future.

Now however it is again time for me.

Goblet of the Truth, p. 633

399) Truly, you only have outer successes to mention, for example with regard to your technology, medicine and other achievements, but this outer state of progress is no more than a conceit through which you try to cover up your own narrowness of intellect and rationality, but this conceit in itself is already a pronounced characteristic of the narrowness.

400) And for almost four thousand years, in which your great religions, sects, ideologies and philosophies and your catastrophic forms of politics have arisen, the basis of your degeneration of all kinds and the turning away from the real truth of all truth and hence from the Creation Universal Consciousness and its laws and recommendations has become increasingly dreadful.

401) And all your turning away from the Creation, its laws and recommendations and hence also from the effective truth has had such a decisive and devastating effect on your views that you have created a cluelessness with regard to the real truth and the effective reality, become entangled in it and therewith suggestively and force- fully brought about your own disaster.

402) Through wrong views which you often believed to be good, you have incurred evil effects in terms of interactions, which have brought you tremendous harm, because you acted against the creational laws and recommendations, which has, however, up to the present day not become clear to you.

403) The number of those of you acting and behaving in this wise has been huge since time immemorial, and in your presumptuousness and vanity as well as wrong pride you have brought over your world tormentful horror, terribleness, destruction, death and ruin, and you do not know that the true life and the real truth and reality of all creational existence is completely different from what you think and imagine.

404) So you must act before it is too late and before you bring even more guilt upon yourselves, for which you will have to atone in processes lasting for decades, centuries, even millennia, if through your wrong doing, actions and activity, you create more and more hatred, jealousy, strife, terror, war, unfreedom, disharmony, unpeace and vices as well as pathological cravings, and therefore you will have to struggle to even be able to still live on your world which, through your constantly growing overpopulation and its effects, you destroy to such an extent that in the end your earth can no longer recover from it.

405) Truly, your way to the cognition is long and heavy, but if you have achieved the cognition, then the way you must go to create in yourselves the developmental change to the good, better and best is even much longer and heavier.

Human being of Earth, it is high time for you to change for the better and for the good...

“The period of time of the 21st century and of the 3rd millennium brings about gigantic and cataclysmal events for you, your Earth and its nature, which you will have to meet with intellect and rationality. The new century and millennium will bring events, which you would never have imagined and which aren't solely of cosmic-natural origin, but rather created by you due to your unintellect and your irrationality. It is not only those events, which keep rolling across the worlds and universes endlessly, but rather those, which you are to blame for.

The coming events are therefore bearing witness to what you have destructively created by your obstinacy and are furthermore creating with regard to the destruction of nature, climate change and impairment of the atmosphere. However, they also bear witness to the senseless – ness of your worldwide transportation of goods and of mass tourism, whereby diseases, epidemics as well as strange seeds and plants are being spread into foreign countries, among human beings, animals and among creatures as well as within the plant life, whereby many deaths are being brought about and changes and destructions are being caused in fauna and flora. Where in the world have you gone and where are you continuing to go on in your obstinacy, human being of Earth, out of which you are causing pernicious changes and damage to nature and to the planet, are living in hatred, urge for revenge and wars?

Considering that you have spent a mere 250 years during the last 10,000 years, during which no acts of war had swept across Earth, then this should be an impulse for you to finally create peace. Truly, there is neither a god nor a religion, which can bring you true love, peace, freedom and harmony, no matter how submissively fawning you are beseechingly throwing yourselves into the dust in ardent prayer. Only you and you alone have the power and the might to free yourself from all the terrible things, for you are your own lord and master, and only you and you alone determine your destiny and that of the whole of humankind. There is no god and no religion, which you may expect help from and which can free you from all evil and bad. Only you and you alone bear the responsibility for anything and everything of your thoughts, feelings, deeds and actions, therefore also only you alone are able to free yourself from hatred, urge for revenge, jealousy, urge for retaliation, lovelessness, unpeace and unfreedom as well as from terrorism, strife, squabble, discord, disharmony, murder and manslaughter, from war, crimes of violence, criminality and all the inhumane.

However, up until now you haven't done this, but you have rather steadily let yourself fall further and deeper into the abyss of ruin. And you continue with this in like manner, whereas your steadily growing overpopulation is the main reason that all your self-created terrible things and destructive machinations are increasing further.

You are hastening into emptiness with your thoughts and feelings, human being of Earth, straight into a dark and deadly future, and you will only be able to avert the worst of all if you come to your senses, to rationality and intellect. You must put a stop to the senseless growth of the overpopulation as well as to all wars, all terror, hatred and unfreedom, and you must desist from your urge for revenge and jealousy, from your urge for retribution and quarrelsome – ness as well as from your disinterest towards your fellow human beings and nature, the planet and its fauna and flora. You must overcome and put an end to your lovelessness, human being of Earth, in order to create true love and feelings for others within yourself, both for yourself and for your fellow human beings all over the world as well as for the fauna and flora, the whole nature and Earth itself.

Human being of Earth, you must work your way out of the darkness of your unintellect and your irrationality, which you have fallen into; out of the darkness, where the demons of hatred, of war, of murder and killing, of unpeace, of jealousy, of peacelessness, disharmony, of urge for retribution and for revenge, of hatred and of unfreedom have dug their claws into you, snarling and grinning diabolically. And if you do not turn round, in order to finally find a new beginning in true love and freedom, in peace and harmony together with your earthly humankind as a whole, then you will, in your obstinate delusion and in your addiction to creating an overpopulation as well as in your destructiveness, continue to extinguish yourself as well as the fauna and flora.

If you do not decide for the better and the good and do not integrate yourself into the natural laws and do not follow them, then your own acting resulting from your obstinacy will crush you in the time to come, and mercilessly, like with a deadly slamming fist of a giant. It will also be the fist of your megalomania, by which you personally will determine your destiny. Owing to your obstinacy, your megalomania and your self-aggrandizement, you provoke your own revenge on yourself, formed from your own irrationality, which demands accountability from you. You cannot abdicate the responsibility for your doings and actions, as well as not for your false thoughts and feelings, by which you are leading yourself into disaster and are suggestively and forcefully bringing about an evil destiny.

You are not leading your life according to the true sense of existence – for truthfully it is to a great extent only lies and deception, filled with hate, greed, lust and addiction, with murder, war and with other crimes and acts of violence. Up until now, you have not fulfilled your life's duty, but rather made use of your existence for waging war, for murdering and killing, for destruction, for the fulfillment of your greed for might, for envy, stinginess and for retaliation and revenge, for hatred of every kind and for greedy financial enrichment. Thus you have lost the „being human“ in the real and true sense, and with it also your own dignity and the venerability for the ones next to you, the fellow human beings, the whole humankind, the planet and its nature, fauna and flora.

You have not lived and do not live according to the creative-natural laws, but only according to tremendously fallible laws, which you have made yourself and which will lead you far away from what is rightful, fair and righteous. Truly, you have disparagingly trampled true love, life's benevolence and all the laws of nature into the dirt, while the dignity anchored therein was sadly accepting your devilish actions, giving you a last chance over and over again, in order to eventually remind you of true love and faithfulness in the course of time and enabling you to find your way back to the natural, as this is given by the natural principles of existence.

However, you, human being of Earth, have consciously disregarded any ever so good opportunity and disparagingly trampled it into the dirt, for due to your obstinacy, your self-aggrandizement and due to your megalomania, you wanted and still want to lead a life which satisfies your evil degeneracies. And today as a matter of fact you are leading a life in selfishness, lust and greed, in hatred, overbearance, greed for might and war, in destruction, jealousy, strife and discord as well as in unpeace, unfreedom, disharmony and lovelessness. You neither bother about those next to you, even less about your fellow human beings and about humankind as a whole, as well as not about good interpersonal relationships, nor about dignity and true humanity. This, however, takes its toll not only in the present time, but also in the future through the coming events and happenings, which can hardly be averted, if at all.

Human being of Earth, truly, you must undertake everything in order to being able to face this great and new time in a good and valuable measure, and so therefore: Finally free yourself from your traditional, false and most destructive way of life, from your hatred against those next to you, against people who think differently and those who are of another religion. Also free yourself from your quarrelsome – ness, from your mad addiction to war, revenge and retaliation; move on from jealousy, stinginess and discord as well as from the addiction to great riches, resentment and to numerous offspring, for all of these are degeneracies of evil. Avoid further overpopulation and turn yourself to the true joys of life, which are true and honest love, real peace, true freedom and ample harmony.

Human being of Earth, all of this concerns not only your whole humankind, but mainly you as an individual, for all those many individuals form the humankind of this world, which is a diabolical and demonic world full of disharmony and darkness, because you have turned it into this as an individual and together with humankind as a whole. So you as an individual are asked to direct your life and the existence of the planet as well as its nature and fauna and flora to – wards the true life, love, peace, freedom and harmony. You must leave the paths of ruin, the path of disharmony with nature and the creative principles, on which you are wandering about.

Truly, you are still wandering about on the path of death straight into a bottomless abyss full of incredible torment and deadly ruin, which is lying in wait for you in order to tear you into its blood-sopping claws and to crush you mercilessly. You must free yourself from your <going astray>, otherwise the bony claw-armed fist of your unintellect and your irrationality will snatch you from your life and cast you into the abyss of the all- ruining destruction. You still have a last true chance, which you can use, if you turn to everything that brings you further in a rational way, whereby the rational also demands that you become conscious of your responsibility and put an end to the increase of your overpopulation. You as a single human being of this earth must do everything conceivably possible, good and right, in order to be able to preserve yourself and humankind as a whole as well as nature and its fauna and flora from the tormentful end, which the cataclysmal events and occurrences are already giving evidence of at the present time and which will continue to turn out to be even worse in the time to come.

Human being of Earth, you still have a really very last chance, which you, however, will have to seize now, because otherwise you will not be able to prevent the worst any more.

Now do not believe that all those false prophets and scientists are right, who play down everything and declare everything as completely natural with respect to the degenerating development of nature, of the climate and the false development regarding your consciousness and behavior. Consider that time doesn't stand still and that your devastating malicious machinations will therefore continue to proceed, if you do not finally consciously call a halt to them. If you do not do this, then it will be too late one unpleasant day and there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth, as it is written from time immemorial. And the old prophecies of the true prophets have proved to be true over thousands of years up to this new time, and this is exactly what they will do furthermore, but you can still avert much thereof, if you let your rationality and your intellect prevail and henceforth do the right things.

Already for decades all kinds of natural catastrophes have disastrously increased, as have the degeneracies among human beings; and all this bears witness that the cataclysms cannot be stopped any more, but can only be mitigated in their worst forms. But, human being of Earth, you must finally advance the evolution of your consciousness and take the responsibility into your own hands, instead of demanding it from a god or a religion and from the belief in these, since help will never come from them, but solely from yourself. You yourself must direct your thoughts and feelings as well as your actions, doings and activities, because it is now a requirement. You as human being of Earth must learn to esteem the basic elements and components of nature and of life even though your consciousness is still limited, and to bring your own world of thoughts and feelings to react, in order not to furthermore destroy in your delusion myriad- fold life of nature and its fauna and flora, the climate of Earth and finally yourself.

Therefore, human being of Earth, I raise my voice and shout out the well-appropriate warning and my demand, so that you may eventually awaken from your lethargy of disregarding the facts as well as from your destructive rage. It is a warning, which is based on the present events and on all those that have been appearing for a long time, which will carry further and further into the future to a terrible extent. I have already called in the past, but my calling has faded away in the desert of your irrationality and your unintellect.

The time has already come at which the climatic conditions all over the world have starkly changed for which you bear the blame and enormous natural disasters are occurring, and this will also continuously have an effect in the future through extreme storms of all kinds. Everything has already escalated to such an extent that a vast number of human lives running into hundreds of thousands and into millions have been lost and will continue to be lost. Together with enormous destruction of all human achievements, also more and more diseases and epidemics will spread, which will take a heavy toll on the lives of your species, human being of Earth.

All disaster will expand steadily further on, destructions on mountains through rock slides due to the thawing of the permafrost will take place, and due to volcanic activity, large portions of mountains will be blasted away, which will rush down into the valley as mudflows, destroying everything, wiping out entire villages and cities and claiming a great many human lives. The glaciers and poles are melting on a worldwide scale, and also more and more deserts are forming. The world climate is warming up rapidly, and this leads to enormous climatic upheavals, which will bring more and more great heat waves and cold waves, conflagrations, droughts, inundations, snowstorms, hail storms and tremendously powerful storms in its wake. Also earthquakes and seaquakes will occur with increasing frequency, as will enormous tsunamis in the oceans and lakes resulting therefrom.

Thus, further devastating destruction of nature and of your achievements arise. And vast landscapes will be destroyed by natural disasters and due to the growth of the overpopulation, since you require more and more housing and living space. A great number of natural disasters and wars as well as machinations of sects and acts of violence are increasingly leading to mass deaths of your species. Enormous material damage to land, houses and to various buildings, to streets, railway tracks, mountain torrents, creeks, rivers and lakes will arise. And as was frequently said in the past, more and more human lives will be lost through the climate-induced upheavals and thunderstorms as well as due to mass murders, for the rapid and increasing climate warming and climate change is not only changing the entire nature and the ocean currents, which will cause massive upheavals, but also your consciousness in a depraving way. Through this you, human being of Earth, will be – come more and more indifferent and without feelings towards yourself and to – wards your fellow human beings, thus your good interpersonal relationships will also increasingly suffer from it and will become continuously rarer.

The entire plant world and animal kingdom are also changing catastrophically, whereby a great number of mutations come into existence, also among you, whereby above all else the overpopulation bears the blame for everything. This is indisputably the utmost evil on Earth, because the further and the faster the population grows, the greater, more extensive and more insolvable all the problems become that result from it. As to that, there are degeneracies existing across- the-board, therefore in medicine, in the decreasing drinking water, in the depleting consumption of energy as well as in the steadily increasing worldwide, amply destroying and epidemic spreading mass tourism, in terrorism, in wars as well as in other armed conflicts. The wars, instigated by your might-greedy and felonious mightful ones of state, won't come to an end, if you, human being of Earth, don't finally put a stop to all the felonious acts as an individual and as a mass of people.

However, family tragedies also become more and more rampant, as do the many cases of killing by your psychically disturbed adolescents and also by older offenders, who are trying to solve their problems with a flight into murdering. However, the escalating problems are also multiplying due to the air pollution, water pollution and pollution of the environment as well as due to the growing crime and due to the felonies of violence, as well as due to the general health, consciousness-related, psychic and physical weakening, which you have already fallen prey to for a long time and are increasingly falling prey to. Beneficial leisure activities also belong to the problems which can no longer be coped with, for instead of engaging in such an activity, you are only seeking crazy pleasure and idleness, or extreme and life-endangering sports, because you, human being of Earth, are not even able to appraise your own life as valuable any more, let alone the one of the person next to you and the one of the fellow human being.

Inevitably, being hard-hearted and coarsened towards your fellow human beings and nature as well as towards the fauna and flora also increases as a result of this. You, human being of Earth, are becoming increasingly pre – disposed to allergies and diseases, to epidemics and degeneracies of the sexual life, to psychic degeneracies, to depressions and suicides, to psychopathic and paranoid moods, from which murders and mass murders as well as maltreatments of fellow human beings are resulting, which are increasingly being perpetrated by teenagers, because their whole education is failing completely in every respect. You are increasingly appearing as a chicken-hearted person, who is throwing his life away, because you have become incapable and afraid of bearing pain and misery and of ending your days through a natural death. And you have also become chicken-hearted with respect to helping those next to you and your fellow human beings, when they are being harassed or attacked by others, as you have also become chicken-hearted with regard to helping the aged and handicapped people. Human being of Earth, you are causing disaster for the planet and for all life on an unprecedented scale.

The destructions of nature as well as of fauna and flora and of life caused by you are sweeping over the whole Earth. You have caused enormous damage, destructions as well as hardship and misery and keep on causing them. You have straightened torrents and creeks and have dug drainage ditches across the wetlands, in order to make them habitable to you. So the creeks and rivulets became powerful rivers, rivers became raging currents, while wild waters are bursting their banks and causing enormous inundations, which are devastating all land, destroying a vast number of your achievements and existences, and together with other catastrophes are claiming hundreds of thousands and millions of human lives. And all of what happens today in no way means the end of the worldwide catastrophes, which you bear the blame for triggering, for only in the now new millennium everything is getting even worse, because nature will rise up even more gigantically against your environment-destroying insanity and attain an extent, which bears comparison with the primeval times of Earth.

Considering and analyzing the coming events and catastrophes, which are going to break upon Earth, the climate and you, human being of Earth, then it is clearly and obviously recognizable that solely you bear the blame for the whole misery, namely, as already explained, due to the relentlessly increasing overpopulation, as a result of which all the enormous problems are arising. This can no longer be stopped with simple means, but only by means of worldwide radical and rigorous laws and measures, whose compliance you must ensure.

The blame for the coming disaster and chaos as well as catastrophes arises fundamentally due to your gigantic mass of humankind, even if you as a pathologically dumb and irresponsible scientist or know-it-all claim the opposite. Solely your overpopulation is the comprehensive factor of all terrible things, namely concerning the energy and drinking water shortage as well as regarding the destruction of nature and the environment, and also with regard to climate warming, new diseases and epidemics, violent crimes, hatred, unfreedom, lovelessness, unpeace and disharmony and so on and so forth. And the more your overpopulation is growing, the more extensive and unmanageable all the problems and terrible things become.

If an existing problem of this or that kind resulting from the overpopulation is being approached and a solution is being found and carried into effect, then the whole thing is being overtaken by emerging problems of the same or a similar or new kind during the time of the implementation of the solution, because the world population is increasing further by hundreds of millions of people during the time at which solutions are being implemented, whereby the solutions worked out become null and void and are being overtaken by similar new problems.

Also the asylum system, the neo-Nazi organizations and extremists' organizations, mass migrations, worldwide terrorism and new wars will spread and constantly cause more unpeace, hardship and misery and other new big problems. Very harsh and effective measures must be taken against all terrible things that come from you, human being of Earth, and which you have unleashed against all life, against nature, against the climate, against the atmosphere, against the bodies of water as well as against fauna and flora and against the whole planet due to the irrationality of the cultivated overpopulation. This also includes measures against the world-domination-craving machinations of those mightful ones of state, who feloniously trigger wars and terror all over the world, execute wars and acts of terrorism themselves and precipitate other countries into chaos, whereas they also intend to trample the mentality of the people into the dirt as well as break and eradicate their religion and politics.

As long as you submit to these machinations and don't take a stand against these felonies and don't bring the right people into the corresponding governmental positions, until then you will create neither true love, true peace, true freedom nor harmony on Earth. Due to the rapid growth of your humankind, human being of Earth, you are forced to destroy the environment and to exploit the resources of Earth more and more and with increasing frequency, in order to meet everyone's increasing needs. But all these needs increase to an even greater extent with the growing number of your humanity, whereby nature as well as fauna and flora, but also the climate and the entire environment are being increasingly affected and destroyed. The planet itself is being tormented and slowly destroyed, because atomic and other types of explosions caused by wars are disturbing the structure of the earth and triggering earthquakes and seaquakes as well as volcanic eruptions.

Waters, nature, the atmosphere and the near-Earth space are becoming polluted and poisoned, while the primeval forests are profit- greedily destroyed and razed. Already in September 1964 I wrote the following to all international governments:

«The need of the hour and of the future is: that the insanity of the over – population must finally be stopped. Although the climate change triggered by humankind cannot be stopped any more through this, the destructions, demolishments, the chaos and the catastrophes can nevertheless be gotten under control somewhat through rationality and intellect, for example by rebuilding natural wetlands and ceasing the over-exploitation of the planet as well as of nature and fauna and flora, because only in this way can the worst still be avoided.

However, this requires that the insanity of the overpopulation is being stopped by effective legal measures. The overpopulation or rather the world population must be most urgently gotten under control and reduced by means of a world – wide controlled birth stop, because only through this can all the in every respect increasing needs of humankind and the further destructions connected with it finally be brought to an end. Very much has already been set in motion that the old predictions are being fulfilled, wherefore it is also necessary to take steps against it: The pollution of the environment through fossil fuel engines of all kinds as well as through chimneys etc. must be gotten under control most urgently, together with all other forms of environmental pollution and atmospheric contamination.

It is also of the most vital necessity to keep endangered avalanche zones and inundation areas clear of all human buildings of every description, such as residential buildings and factories etc. Wetlands etc. must be given back to nature as natural water collection areas for flood waters. Residential buildings and factories etc. must no longer be built along torrents, creeks, at lakefronts, in or on avalanche slopes or plains endangered by water etc. Moreover, precautionary measures must most urgently be taken along creeks, rivers, lakes, streets, residential areas, slopes and mountains etc., by raising very strong and tall control structures in endangered places, where wild waters overflow or mudflows, snow avalanches and mudslides as well as mountain slides can possibly come down and cause damage, in order to pre – serve houses, streets, paths and railway lines from undercutting, inundation, spillage and from being torn away. This will be necessary in many places, because much of the predicted chaos and the catastrophes will unfortunately already be unavoidable – and time is of the essence and is getting short.

Therefore action is called for, and this is the responsibility of the entire earthly humankind. The human being of Earth must take action, before it is definitely too late and nothing at all can be done any more, in order to stop the irresponsibly triggered process of the destruction of the climate, of the fauna and flora as well as of nature and of the planet and the extinction of humankind. ... Where are you going, humankind of this Earth – Quo vadis, humanitas? You are straying down the path of darkness – on the path leading to ruin with no return. Save yourself, because it isn't too late yet for a complete change in order to walk on the path of light, of the creative-natural – on the light-path of the truth of the ever-present creative principles, – the path of the good itself.«

Human being, turn your back on your present life and find your way back to the creative-natural laws and recommendations. Find your way back to the true path of the real life. However, the way cannot be found and taken through religion or sectarianism, therefore, it isn't satisfying that you hurry to church daily or every Sunday, in order to appear brilliant there that YOU of all people are one of those, who are diligent churchgoers, in order to listen to the word of the clergy – man at every opportunity and, if possible, to sit in the front row right beside him, so that everyone can see you well and notice that you are diligently listening to the word of god and are so close to the clergyman, are going to the mosque, to the temple, to the synagogue or into any house of prayer, in order to pray, or that not a single word of the ministering religious representative slips your attention. Human being, such doing is no law of the creative truth, nor a creative-natural foreordination or regulation, and it isn't the sense of life. If you can – not find the path of truth from your own cognition and do not profoundly understand the word of truth, place your trust in it and follow it, then it will be better for you to crawl away into the deepest slough of disgrace.

If you are not treading the path of the truth of the creative-natural laws and recommendations, then let at least those, who want to pursue it and are looking for the effective truth, find this path unhindered. Do not curse and condemn those who are searching for the truth, for their stride and their presence on the pathway of truth are not for their own glory and not for shining like a beryl, but for the evolution of their consciousness, as is predefined for the human being by the creative laws as the sense of life. Anchored therein is also the entire human behavior in every respect, namely with regard to the fellow human beings, to humanity, nature, fauna and flora, the climate of the world and the planet itself.

However, if you act contrary to this, human being of Earth, then your own judgment will befall you before you become aware of this, because the era of the coming events is approaching and there is no more time left to gamble with the further cultivation of the overpopulation and with the destruction of the climate, as you have done this up to now as an individual and as the mass of humankind. For far too long you have gambled with all terrible things and treated everything abominably, but now it's the final straw, for it is said already since time immemorial: The jug goes to the well until it breaks ...

Humankind and human being as an individual, whether poor or rich, whether small, tall, beggar or workman – human being in any position, it concerns you – my words are addressed to you. Turn around and take the path of the true life, as determined by the creative-natural laws and recommendations, for time is getting short, until great disaster will befall the world and you and demand accountability from you for all the destructions that you have caused among humankind and to the whole nature, to the fauna and flora, to the climate, to the atmosphere as well as to the bodies of water and elsewhere around due to the overpopulation. In the scriptures of the millenniums it is written: <Love your next one as your – self, because he is your own brother or your own sister – into whom life has been breathed>. Therefore, human being, put an end to all your hatred, to your greed, to the daily strife, to the murderous wars and acts of terrorism, to all your egotism, self-aggrandizement, to your cravings for revenge, to your jealousy, greed for might and urge for retaliation.

Turn your back on your murdering, deceitful attacks, killing and torturing, on prostitution, on hatred of every kind, on greed and avarice, on your dishonesty, unfairness and unrighteousness as well as on your addictions, vices and on anything else degenerate. Love those next to you as yourself, love your fellow human beings, nature, fauna and flora as well as the planet, which is your home and your aegis. Therefore it is written: <Pay attention to the signs of the times, which will be in the sky, when the time is near at which cataclysmal events will take place>.

Human being as an individual, heed these signs of the times, learn to understand them and don't misinterpret them. Be conscious of their truth and do not regard them as some strange miracles, because a miracle is only a word as a term, the value of which, however, carries no weight. Regard the signs for what they are – the product of a mighty law, which you have broken by the over – population and all the problems resulting from this, and thereby have caused enormous changes and destructions in nature, in fauna and flora as well as of the climate and of the planet itself and have brought plight, murder, crime, war, terror, misery and ruin upon the world and humankind.

The signs in the sky are mainly signs of the consequences of human irrationality; signs which become apparent as devastating storms of all kind, because the climate warming and climate destruction as well as the environmental destruction have developed and continue to form into unimaginable catastrophes. This is already part of everyday life, but you, human being of Earth, still haven't recognized and haven't understood that you bear the blame for these evil events yourself; you bear the blame because you continue to drive up overpopulation and are there – by creating always more gigantic insoluble problems, which you cannot master any more.

Therefore turn around, before it is definitely too late, because you can still do something in order to avoid the major catastrophes. But act fast, because otherwise it will be too late, because then the disastrous consequences of your heinous doings cannot be stopped anymore and nature, life, the planet and the climate will let the results of human irrationality unleash on humankind and the planet with primeval violent force ...

Even though the process of the destruction of climate and nature can hardly be stopped any more, it is still possible to some degree if the overpopulation is decreased by a radical cessation of births, which would reduce all of the problems.

If this doesn't happen, then the problems of all kinds will go sky high and cannot be overcome any more. As a result of this, however, the existence of the entire humankind and of the planet is being put at risk and brought into question; therefore, it may be that the earthly humankind will eradicate and exterminate itself one day due to its irrationality and due to its unintellect and egoism. And there will not be an imaginatively fabulated god, who will have an ear for your humankind, human being of Earth, in order to answer your senseless submissive pleas for forgiveness and prevention of all evil, because since no such god exists, it also can neither listen to anything nor provide any help either.

Fundamentally, it is you alone, human being of Earth, who is your own ruler and master, for you alone are god and therefore comprehensively bear the responsibility for all your doing and acting, for all your thoughts and feelings as well as for your entire destiny, of which you alone are the architect. Therefore, it is solely within your own discretion, within yourself, within your thoughts and feelings as well as within your rationality, your intellect and responsibility to eventually bring about true love, freedom, harmony and true peace within your – self and among the entire earthly humankind.

Consider, human being of Earth, you alone are urged to and able to accomplish this and to create a paradise on Earth, where the high values of love, of freedom and harmony and of peace are being honored, appreciated and held in high esteem, because there is neither a god-creator nor any other god, holy one, angel or tin god, who could do this for you.

You alone are the ruler and master of your life and of all the things that you ever think up and cause by your feelings, deeds and actions; consequently, you and you alone bear full responsibility for anything and everything.”

You, the Future, and Society

Present to When the Sun Burns Out in 470 million years

Progress- an essay by 11 year old Billy

CR 306/582

Humans are in the world in order to change and to evolve. This is so throughout the whole Universe on all inhabited planets, always was so and will always remain so, and indeed, as long as there are material humans in need of evolution. Evolution is also the meaning of life, and in this consequence, humans continually strive further and for something higher, in order always to strive for and achieve the relatively highest possible perfection. An urge by Creation to strive for something higher and more perfect, which is fixed in humans, awakens in them the driving force of the healthy and accountable, measured and worthy ambition, by which progress is taken and acquired. The way of progress has both its beautiful as well as its ugly sides. Thus, it brings, for example, successes and valuable innovations in all possible areas, such as in technology and medicine, but also with respect to all kinds of scientific insights, in any form of archaeological research and with regard to various other things. Also successes appear that ensure a longer life expectancy of humans than what was formerly the case, when the humans reached an average age of 28 to 42 years. Also with regard to the hygiene of humans, progress brings a tremendous amount of value, which also contributes in part to the prolongation of life, along with new and more valuable food, medicines, and surgical as well as medical capacities, etc. The opposite of progress, however, also has its very ugly sides, and indeed, especially when technical, chemical, and all sorts of scientific achievements become negatively redesigned and implemented for military purposes or for improper profit purposes. So it will appear in the coming time through the unstoppable progress, good as well as evil and negative as well as positive. Thus, the monstrously negative and evil already occurred on the 6th of August, 1945 in Hiroshima, Japan, the first use of a nuclear weapon, and a short time later, in Nagasaki, Japan, the second one followed. These atomic bombings, which cost the lives of hundreds of thousands of humans, terrified all of humanity, while the Americans responsible for this fell into the flush of victory. But that's not enough, for the progress of the future will still bring many other deadly weapons, and indeed, also those that will be based on deadly vibrations and rays, which can destroy the coming electronics technology as well as all animal-organic and human-organic life. However, the whole environment will also be affected, and the terms "environmental pollution" and "environmental degradation" will become just as bad catchwords as also the incessantly growing overpopulation, for which the foundations are already laid, which will allow all earthly and human-produced problems to grow immeasurably. Also space-flight technology will be included in the progress, and already soon, this technology will also belong to everyday life.

However, there will also be a mixing of peoples, which will bring hatred and death but also disease and epidemic carryovers, which will demand very many victims. Thus, diseases and epidemics will be displaced from the southern into the northern countries and from the northern into the southern, and especially human-sexual perversions and greed for profit will play very important roles. Diseases and epidemics that are believed to be eradicated will appear anew, as well as various animal diseases, whose pathogens mutate and spread to humans, and there won't just be a few of these diseases and epidemics. But still, progress will also bring about successes that will bring tremendous benefits to very many interests of humans, particularly through genetic engineering and gene manipulation, which will be in the mouths of all humans. Yet also in surgery and medicine, successes will appear through the progress, which humans and particularly the scientists of the present time don't even dare to dream of yet.

Striving for better values, for progress and success, as well as for higher things with regard to knowledge, real love, and wisdom is given to man by Creation, so that from this, he develops a healthy ambition, in order to ensure progress and, with it, the meaning of life. Yet man must always be mindful of this, so that he knows how to restrain and control it. If he doesn't learn this, however, then progress can become very dangerous for him and lead him to his own annihilation, even to the complete destruction of the planet Earth. Generally speaking, there are different forms of striving and ambition. Nevertheless, man himself determines each form because he has his own and free will in every respect; accordingly, he can change it at his own discretion and exercise it as he always sees fit. However, this gives him the ability to think for better or for worse, positively or negatively, to create his feelings as well as carry out his actions. Solely the perception and exercise of one's responsibility or just its neglect or malicious, willful, or wanton disregard decide whether good and positive or bad and negative result. And this applies to both sexes of humans, both to the female as well as to the male. Nevertheless, the striving and ambition are different, depending on the specific gender, even though the boundaries are sometimes blurred and barely recognizable, as this will very especially be the case in the coming time, when an emancipation-driven equal rights delusion breaks out, which will sprout strange flowers. However, it will be irrevocable that the women – who have been beaten down by the male world for thousands of years – will slowly be able to free themselves from the male bondage and, thus, be able to work in the areas of the male domain, and indeed, particularly in professional interests.

If one observes man and woman, then one can't help but notice that the thoughts and feelings of the woman are more oriented on what is useful and meaningful as well as on the facts and objectivity, and with this, she is also more pragmatically oriented than what is the case with the man, while the man always wants to conquer the whole world, indulges in visions, and is very strongly attached to the material. Instead of minding the dirt in front of his own door, he looks at the filth of his neighbor, gladly interferes in foreign affairs, believes that he is great and strong, and acts at every opportunity – all the same whether appropriately or inappropriately – as though he would be the Lord of the world and omniscient. Conflict and war are often appropriate for him, and the consequences arising from it are very often just as foreign to him, like when he actually seizes the power for himself without hesitation, exercises it with evil force, and thereby sows death and destruction, and indeed, very often not only in relation to his country, or rather his nation, province, or city, but also in his own family. In contrast, there is the woman, who is much more pragmatically oriented and, therefore, first of all wants to change the world around herself, whereby her own family and immediate surroundings come first, for everything there should be good, harmonious, and prosperous, as well as peaceful and without great worries and problems. This is also the reason why she tackles and exercises everything very practically and straightforwardly, in stark contrast to the man, who often displays a disgraceful complexity and a great lack of understanding in these things – and indeed, without leading any great speeches. Still, women must fight for their equal rights, which will still be the case until some time in the future, and indeed, even though they have found access to the male world of employment since the 19th century, and this will increasingly be the case in the coming time. However, this will resolve itself with time because the events at the present time are also at a breakneck change as well as all of the events that will follow from the future and shape a whole new worldview. But overall, this change means that there will be a tremendous upheaval that will throw the old world order completely over the heap. All of the coming progress will be so immense and will come so quickly that many people won't be able to keep up with it. Thus, man must change himself if he reasonably wants to overcome everything and without all too great collisions. Change must come quickly, however, because time and progress do not stand still. Each individual must take all his things into his hand and bring them to good progress and success. If he does not do this, however, then he will remain in his old person and will continue to muddle along in the trot, in which he has gone until now. Thus, the only ones who will profit from the progress and success are those who go along with the times and the progress and who do not simply walk along the same, lousy, and unprogressive path before them, as they have done up to now. And this also has reference to one's life-attitude and lifestyle with regard to real love, true knowledge and wisdom, as well as to one's own peace, harmony, and freedom.

The human can, in fact, develop a healthy ambition from his Creation-given striving, by what means he can change himself to the better person. Every individual must do this, and if he does, then he can thereby also change other people indirectly, namely by living before them a good and positive example which is accepted by the others, for they find it as good, in order, then, to exercise it themselves and induce a similar change in themselves. It may be a close associate or a foreign person – it absolutely doesn't matter – because it's only important that one's own creations and one's good and positive living example produce their effects within their own framework and are, thus, also transferred to one's fellow men, from which new fruits emerge. Indeed, the fact is that every person can influence his nearer and further surroundings a lot more than what he himself is aware of. But one must be clear about this:

If one wants to see humanity change, then one must begin with the change in himself.

Climate Change due to Overpopulation, Some Seas to Rise More Than 5 feet by 2100

CR 437/582

Billy

Still something because of the weather: Winter is keeping us waiting, as you said at our last meeting, as however also that the climate changes ever more rapidly.

Can you still briefly say something about that?

Ptaah

The climate warms ever faster, whereby the snowfall is also absent ever more frequently in the deeper sites, while the Earth's polar ice masses, as well as the glaciers, melt ever faster, which leads to this: that by the year 2100, in some cases, the water of the seas will rise up to 160 centimeters. [5'3"]

Forceful natural changes have become unstoppable, consequently there is also a general change in the world of animals, birds, fish and the entirety of the fauna, as however also regarding the flora, because already it is all changing and is beginning to adapt to the new conditions of nature.

Thus, it is also the case with the migratory birds which remain in their home areas in Winter and are no longer drawn to other domains.

It is the same with migratory animals, because their pasturelands are changing and everything is taking on new forms.

Billy

And the origin of everything is overpopulation, which, however, neither humanity nor the responsible scientists, authorities and governments want to accept as true.

The more humans there are, the bigger become the entire environmental problems of interpersonal relationships, humans living together, illnesses, epidemics and criminality as well as wrongdoing and wars, and so forth.

And what is resolved, and eventually implemented, regarding climate protection and so forth, ends in a farce because the responsible ones are so stupid that they cannot think into the future, consequently, they do not see that their resolved and perhaps implemented measures, are only a drop of water on an ever increasingly hot stone.

That is therefore so, because, in the time in which the measures eventually become reified, Earth's population increases by hundreds of millions again, and thereby naturally also all the problems, whereby the implemented measures to protect the environment already become worthless before they have even only begun.

All the responsible ones are too stupid and narrow-minded to recognize that help in regard to the protection of the environment can thereby only be provided when the resolved measures, or the measures yet to be resolved, for the protection of the environment and the protection of the climate, and so forth, are only useful in association with a regulation for a global halt to births.

But as long as this is not recognized and is not implemented, so climb the problems of the destruction of the environment, energy problems, illnesses, epidemics, criminality, wrongdoing, wars and family dramas, absent interpersonal relationships, race-hate, xenophobia, hate between and among humans and religious hatred and so forth.

In the same way, the general softening of the human also increases in regard to the quality of life and the alacrity regarding a willingness to work on anything worthwhile and lasting.

But overpopulation also brings with it, that the human's entire body suffers ever more from damage to its health, because it is ever more susceptible to it, and also, in regard to the inurement against suffering and illnesses, the human is ever softer and less capable of life, which often ends in cowardly suicide.

The quality of the affirmation of life sinks just as rapidly as also does the respect for life generally.

But the effects of overpopulation are also demonstrated by humans becoming ever more uneducated, and becoming addicted to evil vices, habits and degenerations, whereby the most common forms are especially alcohol, drugs, and excessive seeking of pleasure and craving for travel, as well as degenerated sexual cravings.

Parents ever more commonly leave their children undefended, allow them to starve and die of thirst, beat them to death, force them into prostitution or sell them, while in other families, conflict and strife, as well as battery and jealousy, rule between the marriage partners, which not seldom leads to the dissolution of the entire family through murder and homicide.

And still, ever more, only hate, profit-craving, strife, disharmony, bondage, vice, addiction, revenge and the like rule among the individual humans, among the peoples and even the entirety of humanity, because only few honestly concern themselves with love, peace, freedom, harmony and a valuable living-together for good interpersonal relationships and a Creationally correct manner of living as well as for a good and deliberate evolution of the consciousness.

Out of that, it also results that for the majority of humankind, true love and friendship are only empty and worthless words, and yet only isolated humans are lovingly concerned about the wellbeing of their neighbor.

And what do the responsible ones of the governments do against all this evil?

Nothing!

They only thirst after their high and far-overloaded stipends, however, undertake nothing valuable in order to discern the true facts of all the evil and to undertake anything truly effective to stop all the need and all the misery of humanity, as well as of nature, the environment, the climate and the planet.

They crank out only hollow and empty words, let their own life be a good one – and don't concern themselves even so much as a pinch of filth about all the countless problems.

And if, for once a true human comes into a government, who works in the sense of truth and reality for the people and the homeland, as for example, in Switzerland, the Upper House Member Christoph Blocher – who can be called the only truthful Member and represents the interests of the righteous, thinking and intelligent ones, as well as the interests of the country and thereby the homeland – who really recognizes the real problems and wants to change them to the better, then, in their own ranks, as well as among the people and in the parties, all the inexpert, incapable and weak-witted ones step into the plan and, with abuse and insults and opprobrium, shout down the ones who are industriously concerned with the good and best changes.

And, as a rule, they do it, therefore, because they, on one hand, exercise their power and do not want what is right and good, and, on the other hand, because their intelligence does not reach far enough to recognize the effective truth, and, in regard to this, to do that which is correct and valuable.

Therein the evil also takes root such that those who govern are not capable of teaching the people through appropriate schooling as regards the creational and natural laws, so that the humans slowly but surely turn to the effective life and effective way of living and thereby also true love, freedom, harmony, and true peace as well as true humanity.

Ptaah

Facts that are already often named in our conversations, and which you have carried out into the world, which up until now, however, have, by and large, born no fruit.

CR 481/582

Billy: But now a question regarding the oxygen collapse, respectively, the atmospheric collapse, on the planet Akart, of which you spoke on February 3rd of this year in the 476th official contact conversation. What must I understand “oxygen collapse” and “atmospheric collapse” to mean?

Ptaah: An oxygen collapse, respectively, an atmospheric collapse, arises as a result of a massive over-impregnation of the atmosphere by the molecule CO₂, which enters the atmosphere, as well as the oceans and other bodies of water, as well as the soil of the Earth, and radically alters the climate. An oxygen and atmospheric collapse would be evoked by a massive excess of CO₂, which means a bad fate for the entire Earth humanity. It would evoke a threatening catastrophe consisting of the destruction of life itself. This is caused by the incessantly growing overpopulation, through which constantly more monstrous amounts of CO₂ are produced and, with that, not only the air is impregnated, but actually everything up to the highest heights of the mountains and the deepest depths of the oceans is impregnated. The molecule already exists in dangerous amounts everywhere on the entire Earth and unfolds its dangerousness which does not only express itself in the destructive manner, being climate change, with all the natural catastrophes which more and more take the upper hand, which always demand more and more human lives and cause destruction which cannot again be repaired in a practical amount of time. And actually, all of that is founded singly and alone in the overpopulation of the Earth humans, who senselessly multiply like noxious vermin and thereby also produce more damaging material of all kinds, and CO₂, and thereby impregnate the atmosphere and reduce the oxygen content – this, along with all other destructive machinations like the logging and clearing of the rainforests – the green lungs of the Earth – and, bound to that, the creation of infertile desert areas. Naturally the Earth has always contained the molecule CO₂, but the CO₂ content has drastically risen through the irrational pushing ahead of the overpopulation which constantly burns more fossil fuels, such as coal, petroleum and gas, principally through the internal combustion engines of road and marine vehicles, work machinery, and aircraft engines, as well as through nonsensical kinds of motor sports. In addition to that is still the enormous overproduction of animals, which are bred as means of nourishment for the humans and which exhale, and release from the colon, horrendous amounts of methane and other gasses. But also, due to the thawing of the permafrost, enormous amounts of all kinds of dangerous gasses are released which enter the air. Further, it is also the Earth human himself who puts CO₂ in the air through his exhalation, and indeed already in dangerous amounts, as a result of the monstrous overpopulation. Every year, in this way, the Earth human is to blame that millions of tons of dangerous materials are produced, along with other poisons, and are blown into the air, and that increases as the incessantly growing overpopulation increases. And actually today Earth humanity stands on the brink of the serious threat that everything is leading to a collapse, as was the case with Akart. And if a stop, in a rational way, is not finally ordered to the overpopulation then it all increases more and more, and faster, whereby, finally, nothing more can be saved. If, therefore, the CO₂ content continues rising unabated, then the catastrophe is no longer avoidable. And a rapid reduction can, singly and alone, only come about through the prevention of overpopulation, because actually only in that way does all the nonsensical production of CO₂ also rapidly decrease. But if that is given no heed then the oxygen content and the atmosphere of the Earth would be so overburdened by CO₂ that a collapse would unavoidably result. And if the concentration of the molecules climbs in this manner then the respiration of all relevant life forms on the Earth would be so impaired that it would no longer be possible for them to take up sufficient oxygen. When inhaled, the CO₂ concentration already becomes deadly for Earth humans, and for the other actual oxygen-breathers, when it only amounts to eight percent.

Billy: That will naturally not be made public by the scientists and by the governments; quite the contrary. They will hold useless climate conferences and make decisions which are even more senseless, as, for example, that within a certain period of years the CO₂ output is to be reduced by such and such a percent. Truly, this is completely nonsensical fussing and posturing because, even if that which is decided were to be achieved, the entire thing is not even a drop on a hot stone. This is because, already in the time between the resolution and its realization, hundreds of millions more human beings will populate the Earth and produce still more filth and CO2 than the quantity that was decided upon. Therefore, the entire climate conference is counter-productive and idiotic because the only correct solution would be one from conferences concerned with the reduction of the overpopulation, at which resolutions, which are effective worldwide, for the radical decimation of the overpopulation, would be made and carried out and certainly by means of a worldwide, regulated control of births. This would thereby have to be such that many more completely natural cases of death come about than the number of births.

That would be the real and humane solution, which could be carried out in a simple manner and would also guarantee that all evils and catastrophes evoked by the human beings of the Earth can be reduced and that the worst could still be prevented.

Ptaah: You have already taught that to the Earth human beings since your youth, in that you sent your explanatory writings to those in positions of responsibility on the Earth and to all the media. Unfortunately, however, up to today none of your efforts have borne valuable fruit. On the contrary; you have now been attacked and reviled up to the current time, while, since time immemorial, others with rank and name are built up as stars although they simply only reveal that which you have taught for decades, about which you have warned and which now is being frighteningly borne out, as a result of climate change. This corresponds to an incomparable disgrace, because it would only have been fair if your predictions had thereby been mentioned.

Billy: You should not agitate yourself on account of that, because I do not belong to the world of rank and name. But it must be said that when these people with rank and name are built up as stars, as you say, it is actually good that they do something, even if their wisdom has not grown from their own knowledge. But unfortunately these rank and name people are too late with their deeds, because climate change can no longer be halted. There would probably still be something to save, respectively, the worst could still be prevented, if humanity finally became more sensible and stopped the overpopulation, which is indeed firstly and lastly the true reason why everything is going off course in regards to the climate and also in other ways.

Ptaah: When I consider all the warnings and predictions which you have written and spread worldwide, which, however, brought no success at all and did not bring the Earth human beings to a change towards what is reasonable, there is not much hope, or none at all, that the correct thing will be done, and a worldwide regulated birth stoppage will be arranged.

Sorry San Francisco- They say it is inevitable

CR 437/582

Billy:

Then something else: I was discussing the big quake in California with Quetzal – that is to say, San Francisco – which is already overdue.

Have any new things come about there, or does everything remain as Quetzal told me; that the earthquake is to be expected in the foreseeable future and that it will be the biggest natural disaster in living memory?

The quake will not just have a negative impact upon San Francisco, but also Los Angeles, San Diego and various other places.

And as Quetzal said, possibly the seaward part of the San Andreas Fault will tear off, whereby an elongated island would result.

Ptaah:

46. You have seen the enormous destruction in the future, however, only in relation to the “Erstzeit”^[1].

47. But the entirety will, however, be much worse when the great quake occurs. The point in time has remained the same as that which Quetzal named for you.

Billy:

Therefore, everything remains as predicted and as it was, as I have seen then through the travel into the future.

Ptaah:

48. It was, at that time, a journey into the real time of the future of the real event; consequently also nothing about it can change.

Billy

Naturally – how stupid of me.

21 Critical Pieces of Advice – From Erran to Terran

CR 215/582

Billy:

Let’s hear something in the sense of what you extraterrestrials have to tell us Earth people in general, regarding behavior and development, love, knowledge and wisdom, as well as regarding peace and truth, etc. In your kind, you are all very highly developed and extremely loving beings, who have overcome all acts of violence and who wish that we sorry Earth worms would also free ourselves from the illogical violence. In this context, I think that it would be appropriate for you to say a few words.

Quetzal:

332. There is a lot that can and must be addressed, and I would like to list that which I have to say as follows:

333. 1) For the earth humans, we wish that they, in all love and reason, tend toward bringing an end to all aggression, acts of violence and wars, as well as all criminality, all hate, all discord, every bondage as well as any craving for vengeance and retaliation.

334. 2) In order that correct justice and humanity, as well as true reverence for life can prevail, it is our desire that in all countries worldwide, torture as well as the death penalty be abolished and laws are enacted where every life and the right to soundness of the body and psyche are respected and placed under legal protection.

335. 3) We wish that a normal state of population and births be strived for on Earth and, in this regard, effective worldwide birth control be enforced, because only through this can too excessive an overpopulation be avoided and even further privation, criminality, hate against fellow men, wars, exploitation of Earth's resources to the utmost, as well as new diseases, epidemics and misery be avoided and contained.

336. 4) A means of food production should be strived for on Earth among all people and these goods should be distributed in such a manner that the misery of hunger no longer develops and, therefore, all people have enough food.

337. 5) Earth humans should no longer be destructive in all areas of science and in the cultivation of land and forests, as well as water utilization, etc., but rather be constructive and progressive.

338. This also refers to the preservation of a healthy atmosphere and ever more threatening climatic change, with reference to that which originates through human fault.

339. 6) Earth humans should consciously unfold in the forms of love and knowledge, as well as in true humanity, and recognize Creation-given evolution as the highest goal and meaning of life.

340. 7) Earth humans should utilize their sciences in such a manner that true, positive progress develops in every respect.

341. 8) The cognition, knowledge, experience, as well as wisdom should grow within earth humans that they are not the only human life forms in the entire universe and are, furthermore, but a fraction of the whole within the universe.

342. 9) True peace as well as true love and freedom should finally prevail on Earth and among all human beings regardless of skin color, race and faith, without hate, revenge, jealousy, craving for retaliation, privation, misery, murder, homicide, terror and wars.

343. 10) It should come to an end that the countries of Earth even the poorest and most underdeveloped among them maintain armies that are armed to the teeth and senselessly burn away innumerable sums of money in the billions which could and should be used for the true well-being of the people.

344. Thus it should finally cease that politicians and the military, as well as the most diverse organizations everywhere in the world, talk about peace and freedom, love and humanity, in order to justify tremendous financial expenditures on the one hand, and on the other hand, to snatch up even more of these funds for purposes of war and terror and to heat up the weapons industry so that further acts of terrorism and war can be carried out with the new weapons.

345. 11) It must finally come to an end on Earth that human beings with other forms of conviction as well as different faith, skin color and race are hated, pursued, tortured and killed.

346. 12) It must come to an end that umpteen thousand tons of food are criminally destroyed on a daily basis for reasons of profit or, due to low market prices, they are simply thrown into rivers, fed to livestock or left to rot away; food which would spare millions of people from a death by starvation, in particular women and children who are the ones bearing the most misery in this regard.

347. 13) It must come to an end that earth humans as a whole face all their enormous problems helplessly and powerlessly because all the profit-greedy, irresponsible and unscrupulous ones are able to conduct their criminal affairs unrestrained without being held accountable for them, as are also the governmental persons of responsibility who are incapable of administering their office within the framework of a just and appropriate leadership in order to resolve the mounting problems.

348. 14) Most urgently, the earth human must learn to bear his own responsibility and consciously act in a progressive manner in accordance with this.

349. It can no longer persist that the responsibility is simply shifted onto someone or something else, because the individual is responsible for all of his own thinking, feelings and actions.

350. The individual must recognize and adhere to his responsibility, because only when the individual begins recognition of his responsibility and adheres to his responsibility will the next person be prompted to do the same, whereby others, in turn, will join in, and finally the whole of Earth's mankind will be taken up by it.

351. 15) If the individual person feels the need to actively do something to change the world, its human beings in particular, this actually is within his power, but only in such a manner that he be an example to his fellow man and fellow men.

352. Thus every person has it within him/herself to begin a change for the better, toward peace, love, freedom, progress, as well as toward knowledge and wisdom.

353. Everyone must make a start by himself and also discover the way to a free and happy life on his own.

354. Each person must first acquire an optimistic attitude solely for himself, and from this will initially result the progress of expansion through which his fellow men will be prompted and will join in.

355. And if people think consciously in this direction, then they will make the amazing discovery that all means and all hopes for a true progress exist only when they start everything by themselves.

356. 16) The human being must recognize, discover and experience, in detail through his own cognition, what his true, innermost being is and how it relates to the external personality.

357. 17) Unfortunately, earth humans have generally assigned top ranks or top status to political, economic, scientific, military, material and financial values.

358. These, however, are non-values that bring tremendous damage through which the well-being in physical and psychological aspects is impaired, as well as the consciousness-related development of the individual and even of the whole of mankind.

359. As a result, the true sages and philosophers have vanished, making room for the "wannabe's" with respect to wisdom and philosophy who frequently inundate the world and its mankind with horrendous nonsense that has nothing to do with reality, correctness and conformity to laws of the spiritual energies and Creation.

360. All of these non-values must be removed in order to place the true sages back in their proper place in society.

361. The opportunity must be provided for these few who are presently on Earth, to emerge from their hidden solitude so that they can instruct the people.

362. In so doing, however, all those must be pushed into the background who spread unreasonable sectarian teachings and principles, through which earth humans have been pushed away from the real truth and have been misled.

363. 18) Earth humans must learn not to solely pursue materialism and money from birth until death, and hence they should not listen just to those who have amassed political or military power or an immense fortune.

364. And so they should neither aspire after them nor try to be like them, and devote neither their time, their work and efforts nor their initiative and lives to them, as well.

365. If people nevertheless do this, then they forfeit their evolution and thus the meaning of their existence.

366. And if they do not lose their life in a direct manner, then they make themselves dependent on the rulers of a political, dictatorial, military or materially wealthy form, shouting approval and support for them and becoming those who live an appearance instead of those who truly live/exist.

367. 19) The earth human must free himself from the variety of political, dictatorial, military, scientific and faith-oriented directions, as this alone guarantees, on the one hand, the discovery and following of the path of the Creational truth and its laws and commandments, as well as, on the other hand, a loving, peaceful, liberated, wise and harmonious functioning of the individuals and the entire community of mankind.

368. Truthfully no movement of a political, military, economical, scientific, philosophical and faith-oriented form should be allowed to dominate over another.

369. However if such domination exists, then rivalries, hate, racism, faith and political struggles, as well as discord, lack of freedom, unkindness, ignorance and many further non-values develop which lead to destruction, murder and manslaughter, in addition to warlike actions and falsehood.

370. 20) The earth human must change toward the good and positive through his own reason and grasp of responsibility, and thereby rehabilitate himself.

371. Thus he must establish his own dimension and free himself from his self-demeaning service toward all his shortcomings and his false hopes and desires.

372. The earth human considers that he will live new lives over and over again in striving for that which is higher in accordance with the Creational laws and commandments through many new personalities in reincarnation of the spirit form and the comprehensive consciousness block, namely in the obligation of a Creational path that he consciously develops in every logical, good and positive form.

373. But this means that every person must strive for his advancement through every personal responsibility, and society must also make that possible for him.

374. It is correct that everybody takes the trouble to perform the required work for which he will be paid and which will enable him to afford housing in one form or the other, as well as, in self-responsibility, to bear the cost of his food and clothing and also for his training and education and for all arising needs.

375. 21) The earth human must learn to recognize and understand his true, innermost Creational being, because solely through will it be possible for him to get involved with his body and, above all, his material consciousness and its awakening and development.

376. Thus he learns his own self-appreciation for his innermost being as well as his body and consciousness and come to this realization by himself.

377. So the recognition and conscious arousal of one's own innermost being occurs through the awakening of the material consciousness as well as true awareness of the body.

378. These 21 important things, dear friend, should be my statements for now, which I mentioned in accordance with your wish.

379. In another visit, I will, perhaps, try to continue with the statements.

Billy:

My sincere thanks for your remarks. I would also like to thank you in advance that you want to address even other points in later conversations. Many thanks.

8.

“Your currently actual life on Earth is only one of many steps in the development that you go through in the always returning existence of your spirit-form and in the course of your always new personalities, and truly you cannot skip these steps, but you must climb one after the other.”

How Much of Our Brain Are We Using?

The brain quotient of Earth humans, Jmmanuel and the Pleiadians/Plejarans as well as evolutionary knowledge transfer

The brain quotient percentage of Earth humans is around 14 per cent according to research done by Earth scientists, which means that by Earth humans, from their total brain quotient volume of 100 per cent, only 14 percent is being used, while the remaining 86 percent still lies unused and idle.

If one look at the brain quotient of Jmmanuel, Billy continues, who lived as a Prophet 2000 years ago in the area of Palestine and North India, then the answer to this question is that his percentage rate was around 23.

This is according to the information provided by the Pleiadians/Plejarans. But this does not mean that Jmmanuel was a so called <great/ascended master> or had turned into one, as erroneously is being claimed by different cult religious sects, firstly because Jmmanuel was an ordinary Earth human, like any other citizen of Earth, when apart from that he was able to build his overall knowledge with respect to the spiritual teachings and all other spiritual matters to great height through the assistance of the extra-terrestrials and by his own hard study, and secondly, no life form is able to work its way up to become a so called <great/ascended master>, who then with hierarchy power is able to decide on the fate of worlds and life forms.

Jmmanuel was not incarnated as the one he later became, when this is viewed with respect to his knowledge, because this was something he had to acquire through hard work and hard training, just like any other human also had to do. Wisdom and knowledge is not simply something a human is born with, not even a prophet, like this is being described over and over again is in various false doctrines. Namely, only that part of knowledge, wisdom and love which has been deposited as knowledge in the spiritual realm and in the memory banks can be taken along to a future life. But everything worldly and material knowledge is lost through the death of the body because this knowledge is purely material in nature and can only exist in the acid agglomerations of the brain.

Thus only pure spiritual wealth can be carried over to a future life. All material knowledge, however, must be acquired anew or be retrieved from the memory banks by every new incarnation so that the natural path of evolution and the stored material knowledge is followed. That means that material knowledge well can be stored in the spiritual realm as well as in the memory banks, when a very specific way of storing, for this purpose, is followed and when man free himself from his stagnation, which will allow him to store pure spiritual values in the spiritual realm as well as material information in the memory banks, which is then carried over to the next incarnations.

If material knowledge is put into symbolic values through a quite deliberate and knowingly procedure and action, then these values will pass the censor points of the material and the spiritual realm and change over to the memory banks where they will then remain firmly anchored for all great times and all all-great-times. This knowledge from the material realm, whenever needed, when requested or desired by a reincarnated human, then pushes through into the material realm where it again can be further evaluated, processed or applied.

Such a storing of material knowledge in a conscious way is arguably a completely natural procedure, Billy continues, but it has to be effected and carried out meditatively. Such a conscious storing of material knowledge is not possible in abnormal ways, when people live in stagnation or in a non-meditative way. This possibility first opens up to people when they live their lives in meditative form. However, this does not mean that a reborn human simply get stuck in old knowledge of the last life, or the previous lives, and no longer is able to learn any more.

In fact every rebirth requires that humans evolve, that they once again subject themselves to learning, in spiritual as well material-consciousness regard. In fact the time, which a human entering into the beyond spends there, does not simply stand still in the material world, but continues. That means that when the overall knowledge on a planet is expanding, then likewise will also material matters continue to progress and expand. A reincarnating human must then learn all this things anew in a continuous succession, whereby he progresses further in his evolution.

The aforementioned thus implies that at each rebirth of a human, his spiritual and material knowledge and capabilities must be developed up-to-date and to the latest competence, over and over again. And this is certainly not simply standing still but continue to develop with the turning of the planet and with the passage of time, because neither nature as a whole, nor humans, remain inactive but steadily continue to expand their knowledge and abilities in all its forms, thus a continuous education and evolvment. And that, exactly, must by everyone that is reborn also automatically become learned anew, to his old knowledge, if he wants to remain <up-to-date> and in fact also wants to develop further and not lapse into stagnation.

Now, the brain quotient of the Pleadians/Plejarans, Billy continues, in contrast to that of Earth humans, is significantly higher; expressed in percentage at 27 %. This represent 13 per cent more compared with Earth Humans, among whom a so called genius is calculated as 18 percent in perfect form. But then Jmmanuel had in his day already a percentage level of 23 brain quotient percentage, what in today's classification values correspond to a super-genius or a hyper-genius, if these terms may be used in the absence of another precise description. This percentage by Jmmanuel has since naturally increased even further and according to the information from the Pleadians/Plejarans should today amount to 25 %.

What is interesting to know, Billy continues, is that the increase of brain quotient percentage in normal cases has been increasing by about 1 % per millennium, since last time Earth humans came under the influence of extra-terrestrial intelligences for around 13 000 years ago, although it must be taken into consideration that 10 millenniums elapsed before the great stagnation in Earth humans was broken and the small stagnation set in, but from which many people were able to gradually free themselves from to resume their evolution. This implies that the earth humans first around 3000 years ago, more precisely 3500 years ago, again applied themselves to their evolution to a greater extent and thereby causing their brain quotient potential to increase, so that the percentage level of ordinary people in the meantime has now risen to 14, resp. to 14,5 %.

The rebirth and its confinement to a planet

The rebirth of any life form created on a planet is bound to this for so long until it becomes a pure spirit form. First then will it be able to remove itself from the planet and to also float away from the planet and dive into new realms that are purely energetic, in higher spiritual planes, which are of similar nature and value to itself.

What it means is that when an earthly life form is created on Earth, when it dies, it will then also inevitably again incarnate on Earth. This procedure is repeated for so long as the indwelling spirit form in the life form still requires a physical body, for what 70-80 billion years is necessary as a general rule. First after this period is it then possible for the spirit form to live without a physical body, whereby it also becomes clear that false doctrines, as such, immediately becomes recognizable, those which claim that certain <Great Masters> (like Jesus, Buddha, Micha, Morya etc.) would take hierarchical positions over Earth humans because, according to the highest teaching and findings, Earth humans were created out of Earth itself only around 5-6 million years ago, which means that the earliest spiritualization to pure spirit form of an Earth human can therefore first take place in 60-70 billion years – calculated from the time of creation.

The spirit form of a life form is therefore planet bound, and cannot leave the planetary area, for so long as it is still tied to a physical body. Thus, it is absolutely impossible, Billy continues, that a deceased Earth human, resp. his spirit, can again incarnate somewhere on another planet, like it is also absolutely impossible that an intelligence from another planet can incarnate on Earth. Such a possibility, a rebirth on another planet, fist exist when a physical life form is able to travel through space by any technical aids etc. (space ships, rockets etc., or by teleportation), in order to leave one planet to seek out another.

When a foreign planet is reached in this way, and the life forms in question dies there, first then does an incarnation on a foreign planet become possible, but always provided that the spiritual evolutionary state of the life forms in question is approximately, or equal, to the evolutionary state to those life forms on that planet gone there and deceased there. If that is not the case, then for the life forms deceased there, resp. for their spirit forms, only two possibilities for rebirth exists, thus namely that the spirit form, removed from the physical body, stays for so long in the realm of the beyond there, and do not again incarnate, until the spiritual evolutionary state of the life forms there has advanced to the point where it is approximately equal to the spiritual evolutionary state of the deceased life forms.

Thus, this is then in those cases where the evolutionary state of the life forms on that planet is lower than the evolutionary state of the intelligences who migrated there. However, if now the evolutionary state of the planetary intelligences is a lot higher than the evolutionary state of the newly arrived and deceased life forms over there, then this means for them, resp. their spirit forms, that they have to <emigrate> ; thus they have to remove themselves from the realm of that planet and float through universal space, for so long until they find a planet somewhere on which its inhabitants are at an evolutionary stage which is equal to the evolutionary stage of the spirit forms migrating there.

There, at that planet, are then the spirit forms able to reinsert themselves into the Spirit-form-We-Structure existing there in order to again incarnate on that planet in the future and further apply themselves to their evolution. The same case also appears if a life form dies out in deep space (in space ships etc.) The through-the-space-floating of a spirit form, constantly searching for the home planet, or a similar one suitable for rebirth, can under certain circumstances take millions of years depending on the given possibility to again find a Spirit-form-We-structure it can fit into, in order to then again have a reincarnation possibility.

A floating-wandering through the open space of the Universe lasting millions of years is of absolute insignificance, Billy adds, because within the framework of the great-times there is definitively sufficient time for any spirit form, that already has commenced life in knowledge, to be able to work itself up to the most advanced level, even so if it were to float through space for billions of years even, before finding a suitable planet for incarnation.

A rebirth can also occur out in space, if a suitable place is available there (space ship etc.). So when a spirit form, wandering in space, meets a space ship where a procreation of offspring has been carried out, then it is naturally able to incarnate there. The possibility by the way, for descendants to be born in space ships, is as great as on a planet, Billy continues, because countless spirit forms, of uneducated as well as of more educated nature, are floating through space, always looking for suitable planets for incarnation, because they, these spirit forms, through any circumstances in space, set out on a wandering from where they lost their physical bodies, or were hurled out there by any catastrophic occurrence etc. After that, they are floating there, in the endlessness of space, for hundreds, thousands or millions of years in order to find an opportunity to incarnate.

From an old spirit form forms no new one.

From an old spirit form, thus from one which already has enlivened a physical body and therefore also has evolved to a certain degree, is not a new spirit form being formed, but it is the same one, which already has enlivened a deceased physical body, which again later incarnates into a physical body and resumes its course of evolution exactly there, where it left the body, when the body died, or at the physical loss of consciousness. The only thing that is being newly created by a rebirth is the material/physical body, simply the physical human.

A spirit form leaving the physical body, experiences after the death of the body, during the stay in the otherworldly area, only a change in so far that the spirit form does not remain inactive, but develops and evolves further in the otherworldly area according to the data to be processed from the physical life, from which further love, wisdom and further knowledge will be developed, after which, after a rebirth, the respective human therefore becomes more spiritual evolved.

The material consciousness potency

The material consciousness potency consists of all the property which has been stored by the material consciousness and the material sub consciousness. This accumulated property, such as data, experiences, results, and so on and so forth, forms a power source of its own, independent from the spirit, which by humans can be used in very many ways in a conscious or unconscious form.

The utilization of the material consciousness potency depends solely on the actual waking state of the person concerned, which means: The more awake a human is in his material consciousness, the greater is his possibility to handle the powers of the material consciousness. Whether this power utilization take place in conscious or unconscious form, that depends in turn only on whether the person concerned is sufficiently evolved enough to become aware of his powers, consequently also for then in order to consciously utilize them. If this is not the case, Billy adds, he will only be using his material consciousness powers in a purely unconscious or in a half and half form.

If a human therefore, in his material form of consciousness, becomes more awake, he will then automatically better harness his material consciousness potency, with the consequence that greater results will be achieved and therefore also more knowledge can be given off into the pure spiritual realm, which then there, in the spiritual consciousness, after thorough examination, in turn becomes automatically stored.

Thus, Billy goes on to explain, this is simply related to the fact that humans sleeps less, seen merely symbolic, because in the common form of sleep condition, or half asleep condition (lack of interest, lethargy etc.), a human is always half way or totally paralysed, whereby he do not realize what he is really doing. In this way, clearly also no evolution will be performed and no processing of the appearing matters, which only very superficially reaches the consciousness, will takes place, and from this only an extremely small amount, or nothing at all, will be registered. This in turn also results in that the spiritual consciousness realm receives only very scant, or no property at all, which it can store.

When it now stated that the average, in regards to the material consciousness potency, lies at 13-15%, then this is correct, Billy continues, but which does not rule out that there are people on Earth with material consciousness potency of 18 to 25%, but who no longer can be classified to be within ordinary normality, since those people have to such an extent worked their way into a specific field of knowledge from which this high consciousness potency arise from.

But these people possess no further normal and valuable knowledge and reside far below the average norm in the actual consciousness potency calculation. Their knowledge is equal to zero in all other skills, because their consciousness potency only depends on one direction of knowledge, whereby they distinguish themselves as nonviable. Such people, Billy continues, are then also, by people on Earth, correctly being called what they truly are: nerds (German: Fachidioten.)

But, Billy adds, this explanation does not mean that Earth scientists as a rule must be considered to be nerds, because they truly do not fall within the degenerated limits. Interestingly, Earth scientists show a quite constant and worldwide spread material consciousness potency of 16-17%. Only few Earth scientists show higher values, which exceed a percentage number of 17, or even exceed 18%, but only when they, in any conscious or unconscious ways, are able to fetch values from their spiritual consciousness realm and process these values with the material consciousness values.

Namely, when the spiritual potency in normal cases, without and outside the <nerd-ism>, become involved and participates in the material consciousness realm, only then increases the percentage value to a higher level. From this it becomes clearly recognizable that higher values (In the case of Earth above 18,5%), in a healthy form, can only be achieved by spiritual knowledgeable, which means that the spiritual realm and the material realm, thus meaning their consciousness forms, only in unity has the ability to achieve higher percentages in consciousness potency value.

“Truly, it will take about another 800 years before you human beings of Earth finally wake up and until the majority of you slowly make an effort to give the creational truth and the laws of the Creation and its recommendations their right. Only after this time will the ‹Goblet of the Truth›, i.e. the ‹teaching of the true prophets› as well as the ‹spiritual teaching› as the ‹teaching of the truth›, the ‹teaching of the spirit›, the ‹teaching of the life› slowly begin to bear fruit. Only then will you human beings learn to establish good interpersonal and true personal relationships with one another, to understand one another and then finally live in truth, peace, love, freedom and harmony. Only then will it come about that your earthly humanity will become united, a oneness in which case the best language will be chosen from all the languages of all peoples in order to make this into a single and uniform global language, although all other languages of all peoples will be retained. And through this world language, every human being will be able to understand the other, irrespective of which people he or she belongs to. And this will then be the time when you human beings of Earth will fly through the broad expanse of space in a good way, creating new living spaces for yourselves. And this will be both on foreign worlds in the expanses of the universe, as well as in and under the waters of Earth, on the moon and in Earth orbit. And this will therefore also be the time that you human beings will become taller in general and achieve a very ripe age, communicating peacefully with one another, being friendly and helpful to one another. Also true and good knowledge will grow amongst you human beings, and you will gain and discover more and more and larger and larger secrets of the life as well as the creational laws, secrets of the present existence and the universe. From this, you will learn, understand and follow everything, growing ever more in line with the creational laws and recommendations, understanding, using, learning and following them.”

The definitive purpose of life, death, afterlife and rebirth

What all human beings of Earth should know!

What must be said about the creational-natural law of the reincarnation of the human spirit-form, as well as regarding the fact that a human being's responsibility does not stop with regard to life and death, because he/she is the guardian of it (life and death) and of him/herself.

But also regarding his/her repeated lives as always new personalities, everything demands from the human being a strict, inevitable and comprehensively complying responsibility, as it is determined by the creational-natural principles.

Human being of the Earth, you are erring greatly when you think that death is the end of your spirit, your life and your continuous existence.

Actually, regarding this matter, it is not so as you generally erroneously assume.

It is not the case that through death your entire existence ends and that everything of you is irrevocably erased and extinguished, as you secretly are afraid of, because, truthfully, there is another life for you after death.

The reason for this is a high-fine-fluidal and spirit-energetical factor within you, namely the spirit-form, which on the one hand, is integrated into the rebirth and on the other hand, makes it possible for you that after death you are reborn with a new consciousness as a new personality.

This, your spirit-form is independent of the coarse-material body and of the material consciousness; it is immortal and therefore, not integrated into the material change of becoming, passing and re-growth.

Your creational-nature-based given spirit, i.e. your spirit-form embodies the true power of life which you can experience yourself as a human being each day as well as in the form of the whole existence of nature around you, the planet as well as the fauna and the flora.

Within each human being exists the more or less conscious drive and the constant natural instinct for unalterable answers regarding all original, existential questions of the actual life's origin and the possible continued life.

In order to find all the timeless creational-natural truths within and outside the consciousness, the human being must throw away all of his/her imaginings which are based on a faith, a religion or on a pure materialism, so that he/she becomes and can be free in his/her consciousness, unbiased and clear.

For the ascertainment of the truth he/she must dismiss out of their consciousness, their thoughts and feelings all the false things which, until now, they have learned, taken over and what they have falsely imagined.

This is necessary so that he/she, as innocent and neutral as a newborn child, can proceed on the quest for the truth and may also find it.

Without the knowledge of the real truth of all being (material realm) and BEING (spiritual, high-fine-fluidal realm), he/she cannot be joyful at the end of his/her days and cannot knowingly and wisely look death in the eye, because without the knowledge about the real truth he/she cannot realize the facts of the efficacy of the laws of procreation, of life, of death, of the new birth of the new personality and the rebirth of the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form.

Without the true knowledge about the natural laws and recommendations of the Creation Universal Consciousness, the human being cannot find true happiness within him/herself, because without the knowledge with regard to reality he/she cannot understand him/herself and cannot help him/herself.

If he/she wants to be happy, understand life, really enjoy it and lead it sensibly, then it must be clear to him/her that he/she bears a great responsibility within him/herself since the day of the procreation of his/her first personality through the creational-natural principles, a responsibility which does not stop at the death of his/her body and his/her personality.

The “spiritual teaching” or “teaching of the truth, teaching of the spirit, teaching of the life” explains absolutely clearly that dying and death are not the end of everything.

In life – to which death and the so-called death-life also belong – there is no final disappearance.

There is always only a converting oneself and changing oneself.

Life is “becoming and passing” as well as a new “passing and becoming-again”; a process that is based on creational-natural principles.

Nothing that exists will ever get lost or be simply dissolved into nothing, which is also true for the human being and that which basically constitutes a human being.

If the human being knows this and knows the facts about it, his/her fear of dying and of death disappears because he/she knows that – in the eternal circle of life – death is only a stopping-place in the “overall consciousness-block” that has been created in the realm of the other world by his/her spirit-form.

The spirit and the overall consciousness-block that was created by it for the human being, continue to exist in an otherworldly high-fine-fluidal realm after the dying and death of the material body, in which case, the old consciousness-block within the overall consciousness-block is dissolved, converted into neutral energy and from it, a new consciousness-block with a new personality is created.

From there, the newly-created consciousness-block and the new personality together with the energy-form spirit, i.e., spirit-form are returning into a materially-bound body existence in due course, into a new human being.

From this results the question, what then constitutes the human being as a human being in his/her deepest inner nature?

Also on this, the spiritual teaching gives a clear and definite answer: the most important thing in a human being is his/her so-called “spirit-form” or simply his/her “spirit”, which, as an immortal, high-fine-fluidal energy- packet, keeps the material consciousness and the body alive and so embodies the essential power of the life.

The term “spirit-form”, i.e., “spirit” must not be falsely understood, however.

The spirit is no ghost which is haunting around and it also is no transparent humanly shadowy figure from the other world in a flowing white gown.

The spirit, i.e., the spirit-form of the human being is a pure high-fine-fluidal energy that has been created by the Creation and which enlivens the human being as his/her innermost nature.

The spirit of the human being is more or less his/her high-fine-fluidal energy source, his/her indestructible inner life-power.

The spirit-form first enables the life of the human being, thus the ability of existence of his/her whole body, his/her consciousness, his/her thoughts and the feelings resulting from them, which are responsible for the formation of the psyche as well as for the vegetative [denoting or pertaining to those bodily functions that are performed unconsciously or involuntarily] nervous system which regulates the functioning of the organs, and so on and so forth.

The spirit is highly concentrated high-fine-fluidal energy which was created by the high-spirit-energy Creation Universal Consciousness.

The spirit within the human being must not be equated with the material consciousness which alone can create ideas and thoughts and the resulting feelings in the material existence of the human being.

This means, however, that there is no “spiritual ownership” or “spiritual illness” because the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form is absolutely inviolable by attacks from the material consciousness realm.

That is why there can only be a “consciousness ownership” and a “consciousness illness”, because only the human material consciousness which creates conscious ideas can fall victim to illnesses or any other impairments or damages, but never the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form.

The Creation, in turn, is neither a god in the shape of a human being, nor also a figure-like or highest material “Wesenheit^[1]” which has created the heaven and Earth and who is watching over the human being and telling him/her what to do.

In most ancient times, god and gods were figures of fantasy that were used in fairy-tales as fantastic, most high Wesenheiten which were standing above all life and existing things, in order to give a shape to the creative one, i.e., the Creation-force.

God or gods, however, which are presented in a religious or sectarian as well as any other belief-based view, were or always are human beings of flesh and blood, who were, or are higher evolved than other human beings in certain things.

In this respect a “god” is another term and word for “king of wisdom”.

And wisdom means nothing other than having acquired and owning a highly-developed knowledge and ability in relative perfection in a certain field, e.g. in a science, etc.

Contrary to the fairy-tale fantasy-figure and the “god” as a king of wisdom, the Creation, however, is the greatest, energy-impulse-based highest intelligent, mightiest and most-highly developed spirit-energy-form in the universe.

It is a neutral, asexual and impersonal energy through whose principles the spirit-forms of all living creatures were created and still are created.

As has been mentioned before, the Creation is also being called “Universal Consciousness” and “Great Unity” etc., in which case, however, it shows absolutely no similarity with a human god or with any other life form, but is only the purest high-spiritual energy.

Even a human god is a creature who was produced as a human being from the creational-natural laws and thus owes his/her existence to the spirit-energy Creation.

The Creation, as a force creating all since the existence of the universe, has created unchangeable laws of nature, i.e., creational-natural laws, into which is ordered everything in the universe and therefore, also in all life and in all existence.

Besides the laws of nature, which the human beings know through the natural sciences, e.g. gravitation, the principle of causality i.e., cause and effect etc., there are also spiritual as well as material-consciousness-based laws that have an effect into the human being’s daily life, and naturally, also on the becoming and passing of the human being.

One of these laws is the rebirth, i.e., reincarnation of the human spirit, together with the birth of an entirely new consciousness with a new personality in a new human body which is procreated in the natural way together by a male and a female human being.

So the human being in his/her innermost Wesen is high-fine-fluidal and therefore immortal, simply in regards to the immortality of the spirit-form.

The part-piece Creation-spirit, the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form in him/her, is of a pure creational-law-based nature and therefore not bound to becoming and passing as is the material.

This is quite in contrast with the body of the human being which inevitably ages and sooner or later dies.

Everything that the human being acquires as real knowledge, real wisdom and true love, remains stored for him/her for all times, because all positive, equalized values, among other things, are stored by his/her spirit, i.e., spirit-form, however also recorded and deposited in a human being's material consciousness and in his/her storage-banks, where they remain his/her immortal property.

And as a repetition: when the human being dies, then his/her spirit, i.e, spirit-form enters into the otherworldly, high-fine-fluidal realm, whereas his/her half-material consciousness-block crosses over to the otherworldly, high-fine-fluidal overall consciousness-block that has been created by the spirit-form, which dissolves the old consciousness and the connected personality, and converts them into pure refined, neutral energy, from which a new consciousness with a new personality is formed.

From the essence of the valuable knowledge-, love- and wisdom-data, of all the former personalities, therefore, the concentrated knowledge, ability, the wisdom and love, etc., of all former lives of the human being, a completely new consciousness-block with a new personality is created, in which case, then the whole, together with the reincarnating spirit, is born into the newly procreated body, as soon as the time for the rebirth of the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form has arrived.

Each human being has therefore already lived many lives as a human being, and still has countless lives ahead, and indeed, always as a human being in a human body, with a human consciousness and with everything that goes with it, e.g., the psyche, the subconsciousness, the forms of the unconscious, the character and the mentality, etc.

Each new consciousness-block with its own new personality animates a human body again and again, but never the body of an animal or other creatures, etc, just as the creational-human spirit-form, i.e., spirit, can always only animate a human body and indeed, during all of its rebirths, whereby it follows its own reincarnation line from which it cannot escape.

For the human being's own protection the creational-natural laws prevent that he/she can remember former personalities, because he/she simply could not cope with the flood of information, and he/she couldn't master his/her life in the "here and now" with all its tasks, challenges and problems, and would fall into confusion or insanity if he/she would have access to all the information from his/her former personalities.

The memories of former lives are therefore not yet possible for him/her, because he/she has not yet worked out the necessary capabilities and powers and has not built them up within him/herself.

Only in this kind and wise can he/she begin each life freely, unburdened and completely anew and can build up completely new knowledge, new powers and capabilities.

A recollection of former lives would only be damaging and even connected with danger, of suffering damage in the consciousness, i.e., becoming confused or insane.

There is no heaven and no hell in a religious sense, because heaven and hell are conditions of the human being's psyche, which he/she creates him/herself through the effects of his/her thoughts and the feelings resulting from it.

Heaven and hell are no locations of an everlasting pain or a paradise, so, therefore, of no purgatory and eternal damnation, where a devil is executing its roaring rule.

Also no angels and archangels are waiting at some paradisaical location in heaven where a benevolent and yet obedience-, submissiveness- and punishment- demanding god is wielding his scepter, because truly, such locations do not exist, but are only fabrications of fantasizing windbags, swindlers and cheats regarding religious and sectarian beliefs.

Ultimately, such imaginings only serve to lead the human beings to believe in an imaginary reward for his/her dogmatic-submissive devoutness, or, in the case of hell, punishment of purgatory and the eternal hellish damnation, giving them a malicious fear of hell and screaming, frightful imaginations, in order to be able to determine over them, to rule and to make them fall in bondage as slaves of faith.

Belief, however, does not mean knowledge, and only a knowing human being can become free of the fear of death, through which he/she will also not be intimidated anymore through threats of punishment by the avenging hand of an imaginary god or devil which do not exist.

Just as erroneous is the teaching of the karma, according to which a human being is punished for the actions of his/her former personalities from former lives.

That is in itself impossible for the reason because each personality is created completely anew and with a clean record, from one life to the other life and without anything in common with the former personalities, except of course the power of the spirit, i.e., the spirit-form, which enlivens him/her.

Each human being must bear the positive and negative consequences of his/her thinking, doings and activities in each present actual life; however, when this life ends, then his/her consciousness-block and the personality cease to exist and with it, all his/her mistakes and unright, etc., which he/she made and committed.

A transfer of reward or guilt in a religious sense from one personality to another personality is absolutely nonsensical and impossible.

The idea of the karma is therefore based on a false view of things and on unknowledge of the real principles regarding the creational-natural laws and recommendations as well as regarding the life, the dying, the death and the rebirth of the spirit-form, as well as the new birth of the new personality.

Dear human being of this world, be you man or woman, girl, boy, old or young, you now may be asking yourself: "Why then the whole thing; what is the sense of life and the many rebirths of the spirit and the new births of the new personalities?"

The answer is just as simple as natural, quite in contrast to the confusing claims of the religions, sectarian gurus, false philosophers and natural scientists, etc., who do not know about the spiritual teaching or who simply scorn it or make a joke out of it.

The purpose of the human being is to develop, respectively, evolve his/her spirit-form inhabiting within him/herself as highly as possible over many, nearly infinite, reincarnations through always new births new consciousness-blocks and with it, also new personalities and their consciousness-based learning with regard to love, knowledge and wisdom, in order that someday, in many millions or billions of years, his/her spirit-form can return into the Creation and can unite with it.

As a result, the Creation Universal Consciousness, i.e., the universal spirit-energy mass Creation itself can, in turn, evolve a tiny bit ahead and higher in an impulse-based manner.

In principle and according to the creational-natural laws, this process never comes to an end because there is no absolute perfection, consequently, the spirit-energy Creation can never be perfect, but relatively perfect only, and must unstopably continue to store knowledge and wisdom and must evolve.

The life of the human being and the existence of the creational-human spirit-form may be compared to a long journey through space and time as well as through this world and the other world, during which the spirit-form as well as the consciousness-block of the human being, with all his/her always new personalities in always new human bodies, can learn very much. As a result, they can acquire always more love, knowledge and wisdom and, through it, steadily and unstopably evolve in every way.

The human spirit is something very special and specific and can never reincarnate or be reborn into an animal or creature's body, therefore, neither in an animal, creature nor plant, etc., as is on the contrary, falsely claimed by Hinduism (rebirth = palingenesis, transmigration of souls).

Only the human being has a conscious evolution-capable consciousness which draws its life-power from the minuteness of the creational-human spirit-form, the center of which may be found in the "upper part of the midbrain" = a pair of nuclei = colliculus superior.

The spirit-form itself has a spirit-energy-impulse-consciousness which develops itself further through the creation of love, knowledge and wisdom, and through the material consciousness.

This is in contrast with other non-human life forms; consequently, the following list results regarding consciousness-forms of the diverse life forms:

Forms of evolution

- 1) Creation-Evolution > spirit-energetic creation-evolution
- 2) Conscious Consciousness-Evolution > human being life form! Only the human being evolves in a conscious-consciousness-based manner.
- 3) Instinct-Drive-Evolution > animal and 'other' creature life forms

4) Impulse-Evolution Adaption- respectively assimilation-evolution > plant life forms

5) Energy-Evolution Developmental-change- respectively conversion-evolution > sand, stones, crystals, gasses, fluids, etc.

6) Micro-Evolution Compatibility- and mutation-evolution > bacteria, bacilla, virus

7) Intelligence-Evolution (May not be compared with the human being's consciousness-evolution) > Higher animal species like anthropoid apes, dolphins, horses, ravens, pigs, goats, parrots, buffalo and other cattle, bears, camels, donkeys, predators, elephants, dogs, cats, sheep, etc.

Plants, animals and all other creatures are regulated in a pure impulse- i.e., instinct-drive-based way, and they do not have the possibility to evolve themselves in conscious initiative.

In contrast, the human being has his/her intellect and his/her rationality which he/she can consciously and purposefully build up and put to use, in order to continually improve him/herself and to create and gather more and more knowledge, wisdom and love within him/herself.

From all the explanations until now it becomes clear and precise that the human beings of the Earth are the highest evolved material life forms and they should thus conduct themselves accordingly and bear the full responsibility for all and everything.

This is also valid now and in the future regarding the home planet Earth and everything found on it; the existence of all life forms as well as nature and all matter to the full extent, for whose existence and continued existence totally all rational human beings are responsible.

No one can and may ever shirk this far-reaching responsibility.

Consequently, it is erroneous to assume that the human being could escape from all or some of his/her duties or his/her own demands for his/her own or all other life, be it through disinterest, cowardice, egoism, etc., or through cowardly murder, manslaughter or suicide.

Truly life does not let itself be halted and the laws of nature will naturally wield their incontrovertible validity, also for the return of the spirit-form into a new human body, together with a new personality.

Through the laws of the Creation it is also given that the human spirit-form reincarnates on the same planet where that human being, who bore that spirit-form, has died,

Therefore, for each individual it will be that he/she in the next life, as a new personality, will be born again as a human being on the planet Earth.

In the future lives where, again and again, there will be new existences with a new consciousness and a connected new personality, it will be also the case that each human being will find exactly that situation on the home of Earth which he/she has created until now as a part of the collective humankind of Earth, due to the principle of causality, i.e., the natural principle of "cause and effect".

Through the thoughts, ideas, ideals, imaginings, actions and deeds in the “here and now” of the actual life, all human beings create the reality and truth of their present time and, simultaneously, the foundation of their future, which they will find again later on their Earth when they enter into a new life with their new consciousness-block and their own new personality.

On this planet, the Earth, other and very important things must be looked at, considered and understood, especially the overpopulation which suffocates everything with all its damaging results (please note FIGU’s many explanations concerning overpopulation in the form of articles, contact reports and open letters).

To be considered are also the unbelievably terrible things of the unrealistic cult-religions and numerous sects which since ancient times have executed religious and sectarian wars as well as religious and sectarian terrorism in the world, and which since time immemorial demanded countless human lives.

The undisputable fact, that since ancient times until today not only millions, but billions of human beings have been and continue to be brutally and barbarically tortured, massacred and murdered, should get all those who deeply believe in, dedicate themselves, and are submissively dependent on religions and sects, to think and get in touch with their conscience.

It should be realized that the religions and sects are attacking the human beings of the Earth with irrational teachings, are making fools of them, are making them dependent, belief-oriented without hope of rescue and putting them in bondage, in the same way as they are driven into the clutches of fear, terror and feelings of guilt through false, confused and irrational dogmas and threats of “godly” punishment.

The irrational connection regarding God and the Son of God as well as religion- and sectarian-based forms of beliefs and cults effectuate not only a general unknowledgeness, confusion and delusional guidance, but also fear of the reality and the resulting truth, that which can solely and exclusively come forth from the reality of the actual existence of everything existing and from the facts of the concerns of the spirit, of life and death as well as the entire creational-natural laws and recommendations.

All the religious and sectarian as well as false philosophical, irrational teachings lead to a boundless confusion and unknowledge of the believers, in which case, the creational-natural laws and recommendations are completely disregarded, are treaded down with the feet, are neglected and insulted as senseless.

From all of the related “Ausartungen^[2]” against the effective truth which only emerges from the reality, but never from invented stories of religions and sects, it follows that the humankind is multiplying like rabbits and moles in such an irresponsible way and in such criminally high numbers that, since many decades, the nature and the Earth are rising up against it through tremendous natural disasters.

But through the overpopulation, also the believers in the religions, i.e., the main sects as well as their connected or disconnected sects also increase, which leads to an increase of religious hatred between the different factions as well as to religious-sectarian terrorism.

So the overpopulation not only effectuates always more and primeval natural disasters, but it also increases the hatred of the human beings', just as their disinterest among each other, and the worthlessness of the human life.

So, on the one hand, through the overpopulation, enormous problems of all kinds are created everywhere which boundlessly increase and which increasingly cannot be mastered anymore even with the best means.

And secondly, through the religious delusion, the hatred against those of different faiths or against strangers is ever more intensified into a delusion, through which all rational thoughts are nipped in the bud and malicious feelings, words, deeds and actions result which are only oriented towards judging human beings of different faiths and from foreign countries as dirty bastards and stinking vermin and to treat them as such.

That is when, e.g. in the case of the Christians that "being Christian" finds expression, or in the case of the members of other religions and sects, that which is called their "goodness" or "love", according to the principle: "If you don't want to be my brother, I will smash your skull." And that is what is exactly taught in the so-called "houses of God" with regard to the "saints" teaching on the one hand that, based on God's word, love shall prevail, but enemies should be fought if necessary.

So the believers of the religions and sects are streaming into their "houses of God" and are listening partially to the words of their "clerics", in order to afterwards leave the "God's place" again and continue indulging in all vices and all evil, in order to hate human beings of other faiths and from foreign countries and inflict suffering and harm to them, and to do unright everywhere in all kinds of forms, and indeed, even against the fellow human beings.

It really is about time, on the one hand, that the overpopulation is stopped and that the human beings of the Earth become real human beings.

Time is ever more pressing because otherwise, all terrible things lead to chaos without hope of rescue, in which case, it would not be surprising when a world-wide disaster in the form of an enormous global conflagration with absolute anarchy and general destruction as well as a primeval crash of nature would follow.

The religious and sectarian belief, its global, terrorist and hateful "Ausartungen" and effects in every conceivable form and wise, as well as the overpopulation, effectuate ever more non-solvable problems which are getting out of control and also cannot be mastered anymore.

If the whole thing is not halted through intellect, rationality and logic, then there will be heavy trouble sooner or later and then indeed nothing or hardly anything can be saved.

Therefore, the human beings must finally think over their unknowledgeness and their submissive dependence and attitude regarding an imaginary godhead and concerning gods and tin gods etc. and give up their deluded belief, in order to become autonomous and internally free human beings, who purposefully and with a sense of responsibility determine over themselves.

Unknowledgeness and religious-sectarian belief must be replaced by the effective truth which comes from the reality, so that from it, love, freedom, joy, knowledge and wisdom as well as harmony, peace and happiness can result in an inner and external manner.

Only through this can a human being, as an individual and en masse in this world, the Earth, become a real human being and as such, become progressive in all forms of life.

Each human being of the Earth is urged to think about all of this thoroughly, to understand everything and, from now on, to do and implement everything correctly, whether he/she is small or big, meagre or corpulent, poor or rich, believing, non-believing, young or old, whether he/she bears a title or none, or whether or not he/she is in command of something.

It is important to thoroughly think everything over and to align the thoughts and feelings as well as the behavior and the deeds responsibly according to the creational-natural laws and recommendations.

It is only in this way that everything will turn out to the best for each single human being, the nature of the planet, the planet itself and all life on the Earth.

And if everything is done as the principles of creational-natural form demands, then everything will contribute to it that each human being in his/her present actual life, but also in future lives as new personalities, will be able to lead a worthy life as a true human being on the good mother Earth, if he/she only lets intellect and rationality prevail, preserves his/her beautiful home world, and follows the creational-natural laws and recommendations.

But this also means that the overpopulation must be speedily halted and that the human being of the Earth liberates him/herself from each fantasized deluded belief of a religious, sectarian and false-philosophical kind, and that he/she, solely and exclusively, turns to the reality and their truth and, therefore, the creational-natural laws and recommendations.
